ONE MAN SUCCEEDS

And another fails and people wonder how it happens. The difference in men, that makes one succeed and another fail is small at the start.

It's like most all little things; when you stop to analyze it and figure it out to its ultimate result, you find that it grows into proportions of great magnitude.

An advertisement in the STAR is in itself a small thing, but it can carry your message to an audience of nearly 10,000 people every night.

Rates are exceptionally low. You might ask us for particulars.

MONCTON.

J. E. Price's Office—A Labor Union Organized.

MONCTON, Aug. 9.—There is an impression in L. C. R. circles that the office of J. E. Price, chief superintendent, will be abolished by the new management. Price's duties have been considerably curtailed, and his office is being dismantled, but just what disposition is to be made of Mr. Price himself is a secret. Of his clerks MacLaughlin, goes to New Glasgow, Cunningham to Truro and Currie to Campbellton.

J. A. Flett, vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, organized a union of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners here last night. This is the first union in New Brunswick. Flett will organize other unions in the province.

CRASHED THROUGH BRIDGE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Advices received at Galveston, Texas, from Sabine, says the correspondent of the Record-Herald, states that the southbound southern Pacific passenger train from Beaumont to Sabine Pass, fell through the bridge over Keith Lake, Dayou, seven miles north of that place, yesterday. The engine was precipitated in the bay, almost sinking out of sight. Thirty passengers were aboard, and had it not been for the tug Earnest being anchored nearby with a fishing party aboard, they would have perished in the water. The members of the fishing party and the crew of the tug hastened to the rescue and succeeded in rescuing all. T. Strubbing, a prominent prospector, and the fireman are the only ones hurt, and their injuries are not thought to be serious.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Charles A. Cregin, a civil engineer and superintendent of construction for Michael J. Dady of Brooklyn, committed suicide by shooting today in his room at the hotel St. George, Brooklyn. No reason is known for the act. Cregin was about 47 years old. He was married and his wife and step-daughter are believed to be at a summer resort somewhere in New Hampshire. Cregin had charge of work done in Cardenas, Cuba, by Mr. Dady.

THAT STOLEN GOLD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 9.—The theories upon which the detectives are now working is that the recent smaller robbery was executed by one man only. It is thought that the two bars of gold found on the waters edge was placed there designedly for the purpose of creating the impression that the gold had been carried away in a boat. On this hypothesis a strict search is being made near the scene of the robbery for the stolen gold.

NOT WISE WOMEN.

GREENS, Ky., August 9.—As a result of a pitched battle between Joel Allen, on one side, and William Wireman and Kelsie Sturgis on the other, Allen lies at the point of death with 30 holes shot in him. A daughter of Allen and a sister of Wireman had trouble and the men were also involved. Wireman was shot in the neck. Wireman and Sturgis are in jail.

LOOKS LIKE WAR.

WILLEMSTAD, Island of Curacao, Aug. 9.—The Venezuelan government announces that a new Colombian invasion occurred yesterday morning, near Coen. The invading force is commanded by the Columbia minister of war.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Eastern states and northern New York—Fair and warm tonight; Saturday, increasing cloudiness, with showers in the afternoon or at night; variable winds, becoming fresh southeast.

CAUGHT IN LONDON.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—At the Mansion House police court today James MacDonald, a waiter, was remanded on his own confession, on the charge of holding up the Bank of Portland, Oregon, in December, and stealing £200.

CARRIE NATION IS FREE.

TOPEKA, Kansas, Aug. 9.—Carrie Nation was released from jail last night, enough money having been raised by the temperance people here to pay her fine. Mrs. Nation will go to Atlantic City next week.

NEW LABOR UNION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—A new national labor union, intended to bring together all classes of mechanics, helpers and laborers in the navy yards and arsenals throughout the country, was organized here last night, the Navy Yard Employees' Protective Association is the name chosen. Considerable dissatisfaction was expressed at the meeting with the management of the International Association of Machinists and the conduct of strike for a nine hour day, although nothing was said that indicated lack of harmony with the principles of that association.

WANTS TO BE RICH.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Rebecca Ann McDonald of Binghamton, N. Y., is said to be preparing to enter suit to recover property in this city, the value of which is estimated at $100,000. Two hundred and eighty property owners are said to be involved. The claims will be made under the will of Jacob Tarden, who died in 1805.

A MAN'S SUGGESTIONS.

Relative to the Vexed Question of Women's Pockets.

(Toronto Star.)

Magistrate Denison having expressed the opinion that women should have pockets in which to carry their purses, the Hamilton Times intimates that the subject is one on which a mere man's opinion is of no value, and that women will continue to carry purses in their hands and leave them on store counters, car seats, and other places.

Probably Colonel Denison spoke in favor of pockets for women entirely in his capacity as a magistrate, and without any real expectation that women would accept his advice. It would be a good thing if women had pockets in which to carry their purses, so that they would not lay them down and tempt others to engage in theft. The need of a pocket was illustrated not long ago by an estimable Toronto woman who met with a very severe accident, and, recovering consciousness, found herself surrounded by doctors and strangers. She weakly whispered in the ear of a woman friend to remove her money from her stocking, which difficult feat was deftly performed, to the evident relief of the patient, who seemed to have dreaded that her "bank" would be discovered by the surgeons. A citizen going home at six o'clock on a recent evening found his wife's gloves and purse on the window ledge, where she had left them two hours earlier. The purse contained a round sum of money, and was plainly visible from the street, yet it safely reposed there for two hours. Probably the providence that protects insane persons and drunken men is mindful of women's purses.

But it is all very well for magistrates and men to agree that women should have pockets; women will concede as much. The difficulty is to so place a pocket in a woman's dress that it will be handy and safe. It is easy to put in a dress a pocket that will be handy, and it is easy to put in one that will be safe, but none has been invented that is both. Years ago every woman had a pocket in her skirt. The reader, as a boy, may have been sent to his mother's room to get a purse or key from the pocket of her black skirt. He would turn it round and round but find no trace of the secret pocket. Taking the garment down he would get inside and there find the dangling pocket and need to trace it to its outlet. If a resourceful youth, he would succeed in his errand by forcing the pocket inside out, and spilling the contents on the floor. That kind of a pocket was not handy, even when the dress was worn, the owner of it would grope in vain for it at times. There was another kind of pocket used by farmers' wives, who had brought the idea from Europe—a bag tied around the waist underneath the overskirt. For safety this exceeded all others, being almost equal in security to those saving banks where one cannot draw money without giving notice in writing three days in advance—three days in which the banker can produce the money or reach Mexico.

In fall and winter women might, perhaps, use inside breast pockets in their coats. A belt for the waist made of leather and containing a purse ought to be possible, while another suggestion would be a purse joined by a chain to a bracelet. This would be suitable for summer, and if locked on with a key before leaving home, and the key at the home, to lose or mislay it would be impossible.

A DAY IN THE WOODS.

A feller feels like drowsin'—for the air is full of dreams:
Far off the cowbells tinkle by the cool and shaded streams:
An' the wootin' winds invite you where the bees are on the wing,
An' the birds are makin' merry where the honeysuckles swing.

Sing a song o' summer—
"Ting-a-ling-a-ling!"
Cattle bays a-sleepin'!
Where the honeysuckles swing!

A feller feels like loasin' for the weather's fair an' fine,
An' the fishin' line's a-bobbin' in the thobbin' of the line:
An' the river beaks invite you where a breezy chorus swells,
An' scousin' o' joy delect you where the cattle shake their bells.

Sing a song o' summer—
"Ting-a-ling-a-ling!"
Cattle bays a-sleepin'!
Where the honeysuckles swing!

It's good to be a-livin' in this weather—
night an' morn';
When you hear a song o' plenty in the rustle of the corn:
When a picture o' the harvest shines in every dewy dawn,
An' the old world's rollin' happy 'neath a livin' bend o' blue.

Sing a song o' summer—
"Ting-a-ling-a-ling!"
Cattle bays a-sleepin'!
Where the honeysuckles swing!

MRS. LANGTRY IN JERSEY.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Interesting accounts are heard of Mrs. Langtry who is now enjoying a well earned holiday after the excitement of opening her beautiful new theatre in London. She is in her native place on the Isle of Jersey.

Mrs. Langtry in London, in Paris gowns and diamonds, and Mrs. De Bathe in the tiny green and white cottage, on the shore of the beautiful Bay of St. Aubins, in Jersey, are two very different persons. Visitors if they care to turn in at 2 or 3 o'clock the morning, might catch a sight of her fishing for eels, while frequently at early hours in the morning, a little fishing boat might be noticed in the bay with Mrs. De Bathe in a print gown, and fishing wife's bonnet handling lines and pulling in fish.

Hermann Cottage, called after the famous race horse, is a little, white, roofed villa, within a few yards of the water. It is owned by Mrs. De Bathe and life sized blue and white china cat, and an almost life sized china pig, which surmounts the gate posts. In front is a little garden containing a tiny summer house, and luxurious hammock. Between cottage and garden, beach and water, Mrs. De Bathe and her charming daughter will spend the whole day.

AUSTRALIA.

Second Reading of the Defence Bill Adopted Today.

MELBOURNE, Victoria, Aug. 9.—The house of representatives today passed the second reading of the Australian defence bill.

Edmund Barton, the premier, made a speech, during the course of which he said the standing army contemplated not only a sufficient force to guard the depots and to serve as military instructors for the levies to be called out in case the first line of defence, the navy, was broken.

The clause providing for calling out men from 18 to 60 years of age was simply inserted to demonstrate to the world what Australia would do in time of emergency. The cost of the navy would be about £1,000,000 annually.

THE STEEL STRIKE.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., August 9.—The steel situation underwent but little change over night. President Shaffer and his brother officials of the Amalgamated Association are still engaged in the effort to secure the co-operation of the American Federation of Labor. Neither President Shaffer nor President Gompers, nor any of the men engaged in the conference with them have given any intimation of their plans.

President Gompers and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, reached the strike headquarters at 10 o'clock. President Shaffer reached the headquarters at 10.30 o'clock, and announced a few moments later that his conference with President Gompers was off until 1.30 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Is it possible that the Federation of Labor will turn over to the Amalgamated Association all its lodges affected by the strike?" President Shaffer was asked.

"That is a question which I cannot answer," said Mr. Shaffer. "You will have to get that from Mr. Gompers. There is nothing new this morning, and there is nothing about the strike that I can tell you."

It is reported that President Gompers has a plan of discussing the situation with the steel officials with a view to bringing about a settlement, but the story cannot be confirmed.

THIS IS MURDER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Annie Partia, a young Italian woman who landed in this country from Italy recently, was deported yesterday on an order from Washington, notwithstanding the earnest protest of the ship's doctor, who insisted that the woman was too weak to stand the voyage. The case is peculiar and pathetic. When the girl reached New York she was light-headed and happy. She had friends here and went to live with them, filled with ideas of good fortune and wealth in store in the new world. But homesickness attacked her and soon, a victim of extreme melancholy, deserted by her friends, she became an inmate of Bellevue hospital. The order for deportation followed. When the unfortunate woman was taken to the dock yesterday she was a mental wreck and only a shadow of her former self. The official insisted on putting her on the ship. The doctor said she would undoubtedly die on the voyage.

LIGHTNING DESTROYS BUILDINGS.

ELLIOT, Maine, Aug. 9.—A heavy thunder storm passed over this place early this morning, causing considerable damage. The farm buildings of Nathaniel Staples, considered the most valuable in this vicinity, were struck by lightning and burned. Mr. Staples was rendered unconscious by the bolt and died soon afterwards. Sixteen cows perished in the stables. The financial loss is $9,000.

CHURCH DISPUTE IN SCOTLAND.

EDINBURGH, August 9.—The court of sessions has dismissed the claim of the Free Church of Scotland against the United Free Church. The plaintiffs are a minority who refused to participate in the union of the Free Church and the United Presbyterian church, claimed all the property and funds of the Free Church from the date of union, and asked for the rescinding of the acts of the united assembly.

THIS BOY IS A BIRD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—William Quister, eight years old, fell from the roof of a five story apartment house on Second avenue last night, and landed in a tub of water in the yard below. In his fall he struck seven clothes lines, and in this way his fall was broken. He was practically uninjured.

HOME FOR BURIAL.

BREMEN HAVEN, Aug. 9.—The German steamer Palatia, which sailed from Tsing Tau June 11 with the remains of Baron Von Kettler, the German minister at Peking, who was murdered in the early days of the Chinese trouble, on board, arrived here this morning, and Baron Von Kettler's body was brought ashore.

AN ANARCHIST YARN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Alexander Segura, a detective in a employ of the Italian government, is credited by the Journal and Advertiser with the statement that Bresci was not the man who killed King Humbert of Italy. The man who killed Humbert is, according to Segura, one Luigi Granotti, a former comrade of Bresci in Paterson, who stood at Bresci's side when the latter fired the fatal shot after Bresci had twice charged his revolver without effect. This discovery was made by Segura, he maintained, while he was working in the guise of a silk mill hand among the anarchists of Paterson.
