THE ASSYRIAN ASSAULT CASE.

In the police court this morning Magistrate Ritchie heard the charge against a number of young men who were accused of assaulting some Assyrians at the corner of Hanover and Erin streets on Sunday evening. Those who appeared to answer the charge were Frank Ritchie, James Taylor, James McBride, Frank Arseny, and Frank Freese. H. H. McLean was their counsel.

Several Assyrians gave evidence to the effect that while they were quietly standing near their homes the defendants came along and shouted "Shenny" to them, at the same time throwing stones. A free fight ensued, in which some of the Assyrians were hurt. The defendants denied that they had started the affair and gave their own side of the story, which was to the effect that the others were wholly to blame. The case was dismissed.

The Reason Why

The Business Has Grown So Fast

Is because of the values we are able to give on account of the lower rents on this street, our small expenses and a strictly cash business. ## THE NEW KING.

King Peter etc. Has Been Informed of His New Job.

The Late Lamented Alex and Draga Were Heavily Insured—The People Not Interested.

LONDON, June 15.—The Brussels correspondent of the Daily Telegraph learns that the late King and Queen of Serbia were insured for $400,000 with a Belgian Dutch company. Half of this sum will go to Queen Draga's sisters and the remainder to ex-Queen Natalie.

LONDON, June 15.—The Times' correspondent at Belgrade says there seems to be no probability of the change in the Serbian dynasty leading to international complications, or aggravating the existing situation in the Balkans. So far as is known none of the adherents of the late king have been molested or arrested except Col. Nadjolavitch, the late court marshal, who has been placed in the Belgrade fortress and the late prefect of the city, who has also been arrested.

BERLIN, June 15.—The Berliner Tagblatt's correspondent at Belgrade says that Col. Maschin and his fellow conspirators received a large sum of money for their deed.

BERLIN, June 15.—The new royal cipher, ordered at Comlin, Hungary, some days ago, are reaching the military department today, and will be served out to the army before the arrival of King Peter.

The portraits of the late King Alexander are being removed from the walls of public offices and placed in lumber rooms.

BEGRAD, June 15.—A deputation of the two chambers, composed of four senators and twenty deputies, headed by the president of the two houses, left Belgrade by special train last night to inform King Peter of his election to the throne. The officers who have been appointed to attend the king went on the same train. The deputation is expected to return here with the king on Monday or Tuesday next.

The chamber met at 10 o'clock this morning and adjourned for the purpose of going to the cathedral, where a great thanksgiving service, including a Te Deum, was celebrated.

Extraordinary lack of interest is shown by the majority of the people in the events arising from the revolution.

The notice as served by the municipal authorities yesterday calling on the inhabitants to decorate their houses in honor of the new king has met with scant attention, and the town by no means has a festive appearance. The illuminations last night were not brilliant. A military band marched through the town playing lively airs, but a heavy rain soon cleared the streets.

FRUIT THIEF LET GO.

Kenneth Hamilton, the boy arrested for stealing fruit from Peter Pepper's cart in Carleton was before the court today and was let go. He denied the charge but Sgt. Ross produced a witness in the person of Wallace Stevens, who said he saw Hamilton take the fruit. After this Hamilton made no further denial. He was sentenced to four years in the reformatory, but the sentence was allowed to stand.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A very pleasant time was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Green, 137 Metcalfe street, last evening. The occasion was the tenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Green's marriage and about forty friends dropped in to wish them continued happiness. During the evening they were presented with a fine hat tree, and Mr. Sullivan, who made the presentation expressed in a brief speech the warm feelings of the company. Mr. Green fittingly replied, and during the evening supper was served and the time passed in games and dancing.

TERRIBLE FLOOD

Took All Before It and Destroyed Many Lives.

SPOKANE, Wn., June 15.—A dispatch from Echo, Ogn, says: N. L. Tooker, of Portland, who was at Hesper when the disaster happened, was the first to bring out news. He says the rushing torrent came about 5.30, a time when most of the inhabitants were at the evening meal. All were taken so suddenly that nothing could be done to save them. Homes, stores and buildings in the main portion of the town were torn to pieces and driven toward a low estimate places the dead at 200. The town has a population of about 1,500, but only about one half of the population could be located. It was about five o'clock when the storm first started to gather to the west of Hesper. It was a mass of dark cloud at first, but it rapidly grew worse, accompanied by a heavy wind. The cloudburst struck fairly in the canyon of Wallo creek, six miles above Hesper, and there was no escape. The mighty wall of water had reached the town. As it came rushing down the creek bed it tore down everything in its path. When it reached Hesper the water was more than fifty feet high, splashing, falling, leaping and creating a mighty roar. Those who were on the streets shouted warnings as they rushed madly to the hills for their lives. In some cases men returned to save members of their families. Many were carried to their death in the effort. Those who had reached the high ground in safety immediately formed themselves into rescuing parties. Persons were seen in midstream and their cries for help were heard, but we could only stand and see them go to their death. It is estimated that the damage done to property alone was $500,000. Some of the brick and stone buildings were swept from their foundations.

"The goods in several buildings were and the owners came by wagon and on foot from all directions to the assistance of the sufferers. They could not come by rail for nine miles of the track was washed below the town. All communication was prostrated. Leslie, at the first warning of the flood, mounted a horse and rode at break neck speed down the canon, in front of the rushing water to notify the people of Lexington, a small town nine miles below, ahead of the flood and the people rushed to the hillsides. When the flood had passed only two houses were standing.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 15.—A dispatch from Echo, Ore., says: David McKate, a business man whose residence is on a "bench" above Hesper was an eye witness of the disaster on Sunday afternoon. Said McKate, there had been a severe storm accompanied by lightning. I was standing in front of the house and noticed a cloud of remarkable density approaching. I turned for a moment, when a roar of water caused me to turn again. I saw the first rushing wall of the mountain carrying immense trees and timbers on its crest and tearing the very rocks from the hills. The terrific storm struck the upper part of the town first. The residence of Theo. Howard was the first to fall, and his entire family was drowned. In the Krug house, also, every person was drowned, as was the case in the Hale and Saling residences. All these houses were four or five blocks above the business centres. The house of Abraham Hanstuck was demolished. Palace hotel was the first building to stem the tide and all the guests were saved.
