THE REWARD OF TYRANNY.

Russia's governmental sins are surely finding that country out. The cruel tyranny which the Czars have meted out to their own people, is proving, in their own country, the greatest danger which Russia has to face today.

In her own territory Russia's recent oppression of Finland has caused a Finnish disloyalty which extends wherever the Finnish refugees have been driven; and even in old Poland, in whose country the Russian disloyalty has been more than a century ago, there is now such a ferment of discontent as leads The London Spectator to think a new Polish rebellion quite possible, if all Russia's energies become absorbed in the struggle in the Far East. Then, in Russia proper, the seedling discontent of the people is finding vent in openly expressed hopes that the pride of the government may be humbled by defeat and in threats, which only await the proper moment to materialize in a bloody revolution.

Besides this trouble within her own territories Russia is confronted with a hostile sentiment, in every civilized country in the world, which renders hopeless the search for an ally in the present emergency. The feeling is directly the result of the Russian government's oppression of the masses in their own country and is so strong as to neutralize what friendliness for Russia may be felt in governmental circles in such countries as France and Germany. France especially is officially friendly to Russia, but the working people, among whom the Socialists have great influence, are bitterly anti-Slav and the fact that the present French ministry holds office through a coalition of the Liberal and Socialist parties makes it impossible for Premier Combes to take any action favorable to Russia without ruining his government.

No other great power of the world would, in defeat, receive as little sympathy as Russia. In the end tyranny always defeats itself.

EXHIBITION AND TERCENTENARY.

It is regrettable that affairs have so been mismanaged as to cause any rivalry between the Exhibition Association and the promoters of the Champlain tercentenary celebration. There is no reason why both should not be successfully carried on. The Tercentenary certainly must go on and will probably prove the most popular celebration ever held here. On the other hand, no exhibition has been held here for two years and if this year is allowed to go past, it is more than possible that the project could not be successfully resurrected, which result, considered from agricultural, educational, or popular standpoint, would be deplorable.

The government has practically assured the Exhibition Association of a grant and has no right to refuse it on account of the demands for a celebration in which the whole province is deeply interested and which in no wise conflicts with the exhibition. The two are matters for separate consideration. The common council will also act unwisely if it decides to make the success of either project detrimental to the other. Both, while of a provincial nature, will be directly beneficial to the city and money given to their aid would be returned in other ways.

The Fredericton Herald sees in the rumor that the Imperial government is to quarter 10,000 soldiers in Canada a chance to make the New Brunswick capital a gay garrison town again. It urges that the Fredericton exhibition buildings be offered to the British government as barracks and promises that "if His Majesty will kindly send his troops this way they will be very warmly received and comfortably cared for."

Joseph Chamberlain, with whom the monoco was almost a trade-mark, is said to have taken to spectacles instead. The Halifax Echo recommends that Mr. Geo. E. Foster, who was once a temperance lecturer, should drop a note of warning to his friend on the evils of one glass more.

John D. Rockefeller is said to be planning to give away one hundred millions of dollars before he dies. The Lord help us poor people who have to burn kerosene oil.

NEW AUSTRALIAN TRADE.
The experimental tobacco-growing carried out by the Victorian government at Edin Farm is proving very successful. Samples of the tobacco grown at the farm have been submitted to several Melbourne tobacco manufacturers, who have expressed high approval of the quality. The manager of the States Tobacco Company, reporting on the samples, says: "They are the best samples of Australian-grown cigar leaf we have ever had submitted to us, and we ourselves would be prepared to purchase immediately a large quantity of such leaf at a price which we believe would be profitable to the producer."

I. C. R. TRAIN WRECK.

Twenty Cars Derailed at Rothesay and Smashed to Pieces—Fifty Head of Cattle Killed.

Yesterday morning about 9.45 o'clock a cattle and freight train, composed of thirty cars, was almost totally wrecked at a short distance this side of Rothesay station. Twenty cars left the rails and were broken up into pieces. Out of two hundred head of cattle, fifty, valued at $3,500, were killed. The entire damage is estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000.

Shortly after the accident occurred an immigrant special, which was following the cattle train, came in sight and was promptly derailed. The immigrant train was delayed for eight hours.

The cattle train left Moncton at 5.30 o'clock yesterday morning. The train was in charge of Conductor Wilbur and Driver G. Demill. Twelve of the cars contained cattle, and the remainder were loaded with miscellaneous freight. The immigrant train left Moncton 20 minutes later.

It was just 9.45 o'clock when the cattle train passed Rothesay station. About 500 yards further on the train went to pieces. Twenty cars left the rails, ten of them containing cattle. The engine, the van, a passenger car and a number of freight cars remained on the track uninjured. The scene that followed was one of wild confusion.

Conductor Wilbur immediately telegraphed to St. John and Moncton for assistance. In the meantime the cattle, a dozen in all, who were on the train, assisted by the immigrants, got to work to save as many of the cattle as possible. A number of Rothesay men, notably Thomas Rathburn, Geo. Gallagher, H. Macrae and Daniel Douglas, rendered great assistance. John Storm, who has charge of shipping cattle at Sand Point, was early at the scene of the accident, having driven out as soon as he got word. He, assisted by his cattle foreman, put some of the worst injured cattle out of their pain, while those that were not so badly injured were cared for.

Wrecking crews were sent from both St. John and Moncton. They soon cleared the track of the demolished cars and by 6.30 o'clock had repaired the track so as to allow the immigrant train to pass. The immigrant train reached the city by 7.30 o'clock.

The 150 head of cattle which escaped injury were brought to the city last night shortly after 12 o'clock. Donald Monro, who owns the cattle, will arrive in the city today from Montreal.

TERCENTENARY OR EXHIBITION.

A meeting of the programme committee of the tercentenary celebration was held in the mayor's office on Saturday night. Mayor White was in the chair and D. R. Jack acted as secretary. Among those present were: D. J. Purdy, M. P. P., Geo. Robertson, M. P., Police Magistrate MacNeil, Rev. W. O. Raymond, Col. Markham, Ald. Macrae, Roland Frith, D. C. Clinch, Ald. Bullock, R. O'Brien, William White, C. A. Macdonald, and a number of others.

The meeting was called to consider the matter of grant from the government and city, but little progress was made beyond appointing a committee to wait on the Exhibition Association at their meeting this afternoon.

It seems that the government considered themselves pledged to grant to the Exhibition Association, while the common council are in the same box and neither body feel they can afford to double the grant. Opinions differ as to what is best to be done, and so His Honor Judge Ritchie and Rev. W. O. Raymond were selected to meet the exhibition people.

GO ON.
Another failure! Never mind! Go on! Thy work has not been wasted. Try again!

The old base the lighthouse stands upon. Supports it hidden by the chafing main.

Success is just the lantern of the tower. The flag upon the flagstaff, or the shine that comes of burnishing pure gold, the power.

Evolve when work and patience intertwine. To raise the tower, the flagstaff to up-rear, Refuse the gold—this is thy present need; And, working upward, nearer and more near, Thy soul shall to the height it craves proceed.

Success! This is the top of all, the crest. The stone that locks the slowly-built bridge. The colored ribbon on the vetran's breast. The medal for the stormers of life's ridge.

Go on! Don't run a little way and stop! Go on, and, if alone, go on alone. Till effort find a foothold at the top. And worth, proved worthy, make success its own!

The Eastern liner St. Croix, Captain Thompson, did not reach St. John till 9 o'clock Saturday night, two hours after the time announced for her departure for Boston again. She sailed at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The weather encountered on her way St. Johnward was terrific, but the staunch ship acted well as usual.

Ferguson & Page, the King street firm, have had their spacious premises repainted and even more attractively ornamented than ever before. Hundreds of citizens looked in Saturday to congratulate these enterprising merchants on the improvement in the appearance of the store. It makes the handsome stock look better than ever. The schooner Frank L. P., which has repeatedly fallen over in the slip to the southward of the east side ferry floats, is being stripped for her owners, the Lantulum concern, by P. Egan. Her timbers have been removed and the rigging is being piled on the wharf. It is hoped she can be righted shortly and then she will be consigned to the most convenient place to be broken up for the materials of value in her.

Charles H. Nelson of Waterville, Me., the well known horseman, spent Saturday night and yesterday in St. John as a guest at the Dufferin. It is hoped she can be righted shortly and then she will be consigned to the most convenient place to be broken up for the materials of value in her.

WHAT WE OWE TO ASIA.
(Portland, Oregonian).
It is noteworthy that out of Asia come our Alphabet and our Arabic numerals. The compass we owe to the Chinese, who knew of the magnetic needle as early as the second century A. D. Gunpowder originally came out of Asia, and so did the art of printing and the manufacture of paper. The Chinese invented movable types in the eleventh century, 550 years before the invention of the printing press. They also made silks long before Europe, and porcelain that has never been equaled by Europe. Truly Asia is the cradle of the race. On the original ideas of the Persians, the Arabians, the Hindoos and the Chinese, our modern society has been built.
