JUNE 11.—The burning question of the day in our town—only it refers to the summer—is "Are we going to have any summer this year?" and each morning the trembling citizen plants his bare and shivering toes on the cold unfeeling floor, and creeps shivering to the window to see if the sun is in there in view. It really is a very dry outdoor there. There is a very dry outdoor there. There is a very dry outdoor there.

Just now the excitement of the hour is the prospective military camp. A great many visitors are expected, and I think we are all looking forward to a sort of summer carnival, beside which the Carnival of Venice and ancient Rome during the military games will sink into insignificance. I have even heard whispers about ball, but as yet they are only whispers, not facts. However it is a very positive fact, that Lieut.-Colonel Maunsell, D. A. C., paid a visit to our town last Thursday, and selected the site for the camp. It is situated in Lewisville, on the Jura and Legere farms, which adjoin each other, thus forming a larger area of land than could be readily found elsewhere.

For it is delightful to think of it, girls! Only it is such a pity that the camp will be two and a half miles out of town; such a long walk, and you know you are not fond of walking, any of you. Well, take my advice, and if you want to see the very most you can for your long walk, get up a little earlier than usual, take two or three other girls and your brother—one of your brothers will do as well—and go over in my humble judgment at least, is better worth a long walk than anything else in military tactics, though, of course, the afternoon parade is not to be despised. But I will tell you more about it by-and-by.

Mrs. R. W. Hewson left town on Saturday, to spend a week at her former home, in Dorchester. Miss Milliken's many Moncton friends are delighted to welcome her home again, after her long visit to our American cousins. Miss Milliken returned last Wednesday, having enjoyed her visit immensely.

Another Canadian lady, who has been in the United States for some time, and who now makes her home there, has been back among her old friends this week. Her name is Miss Iveline, formerly Sister Iveline, of St. Margaret's Home, Boston. Better known in Moncton as Miss Iveline Chandler, eldest daughter of Dr. A. H. Chandler, who has been paying a short visit to her father. The many friends that Miss Chandler left in Moncton, where nearly all of her life has been spent, were glad to see the sister's sweet, calm face once more, though, of course, the conventional good-byes to her are a great barrier between all those who wear it and the outer world. Sister Iveline returns to Boston tomorrow.

Miss Magee, of St. Andrews, is in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams of Highfield St. Mrs. D. B. Lindsay, formerly of Moncton, but now of River du Loup, are in town visiting friends, and are expected to be here for some time.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book store of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall.]

JUNE 11.—I scarcely know how to describe the wedding that have occurred since yesterday. The matrimonial wave seems to have floated over Saint Stephen. It is rarely we have three weddings at one time.

Last evening a very pleasant wedding party gathered at the residence of Mr. W. E. Edwards, to witness the marriage of his niece, Miss Georgia McWha, to Mr. Harold Moran. The bride, who is a pretty brunette, looked charming in a gown of pale pink fish net. She was attended by Miss Follie Cox, who wore a cream-colored cashmere dress, with trimmings of satin. The groom looked marvelously happy, and was supported by his cousin, Mr. Herbert C. Goss. The ceremony was performed at nine o'clock, by Rev. Godfrey Shore. The bride received numerous wedding gifts from her friends, among whom she was an acknowledged favorite. Mr. and Mrs. Moran left this morning on the Shore Line Railway, for St. John, their future home.

At seven o'clock this morning, the Methodist church, Miss Grace Vessey, one of our most popular young ladies, was married to Dr. Edmund A. Brown of Calais. Miss Vessey was a pretty girl, with a handsome traveling costume of dark green, with hat to match. Her sister, Miss Abbie Vessey was bridesmaid. Dr. Brown looked his best, and had at his left hand, his friend, Mr. Stephen Webster of Calais. The presents were exceedingly handsome. Rev. E. W. McWha performed the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Brown left on the Flying Yankee for Boston to spend the honeymoon. On their return, Mr. Brown will receive his friends at the American House, Calais.

At the same hour this morning, a very happy wedding party assembled in the parlor of Mrs. Robert Clarke, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Annie Clarke, to Mr. John Mowatt, of the Bank of Nova Scotia. The Rev. Godfrey Shore performed the ceremony. After the dejeuner and the congratulations, and good wishes of their friends, the happy pair left on the train for their home in Amherst, Nova Scotia.

Calais, as well as St. Stephen, has its share of wedding festivities. On Wednesday evening last, Miss Lillian Mac Burn was married to Mr. Frederick Leslie Butler at her mother's residence, on Green street, Calais. The bride, who is a golden-haired beauty, looked lovely in a pretty gown of pale blue silk. She is a great favorite in Calais and was showered with handsome and costly gifts from her friends. The Rev. Mr. Anderson performed the marriage ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, the bride party standing on a mat made entirely of apple blossoms. After supper the bride changed her wedding dress for a more traveling costume, and amid the good wishes of the guests, the happy couple left in the evening train for a wedding tour to Boston.

The ladies of Trinity church prepared a supper on Monday evening for the entertainment of the visiting Masons from St. John. I hear it was a great success, and quite surpassed the supper held on the 26th of May. Truly ladies are most excellent cooks, and deserve every praise.

Mr. Lewis Wadsworth Harris, who is so well known here in society circles, and will long be remembered for the many evenings he helped his friends enjoy, with his talent for amusing songs and recitations, is now in Topeka with August Dailey, with whom he has made a three years engagement.

To the regret of his many friends here, as well as Calais, Mr. L. C. Bailey was attacked with paralysis while at breakfast, one morning last week, and still continues very ill.

Mrs. W. H. Todd, Mrs. John D. Chipman, and Miss Jessie Whitlock, returned from Montreal on Friday last.

The W. C. T. U. are enjoying an excursion today to St. Andrews. It is the first water excursion of the season, and a large number of citizens are attending.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen from St. Stephen and Calais drove to the Devil's Head last week, to attend the ball given at the opening of Hotel DeMonte, a summer hotel recently erected there. The hotel is built on the bank of the river in a very picturesque spot. It is a most excellent place for families to spend July and August, and picnic parties cannot find a more charming spot to spend a day.

Hon. L. G. Downes, Col. A. E. Nell, and Mr. W. Marchie have returned from their visit to Washington.
