ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

(Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book stores of G. S. Wall, P. E. Alchem and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at O. F. Trevelyan.)

Aug.—One of the pleasantest events in society this week was the picnic given on Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens at Oak Point. The guests were conveyed to the picnic grounds in buck boards. On their arrival Mrs. W. T. Todd kindly placed her cottage at Mrs. Stevens' disposal and those of the guests who cared to play cards soon took possession of the parlor, and the game of sixty three was in full blast in a very few seconds. Other guests went rowing and walking about the beautiful sandy beach. A most sumptuous luncheon was served at six o'clock. The guests who enjoyed this delightful outing were, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graham, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. John Black, Capt. and Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. Arthur S. Burdette, Miss Carrie Washburn, Miss Annie Stevens, and Messrs John M. Hastings, Jack Warner and Herbert Grant.

The concert given by the Misses Furlong, in the St. Croix Hall Calais last Tuesday evening was a most delightful one and far beyond any musical entertainment given in the St. Croix for many months, and was greatly enjoyed by those who were there. It was universally regretted that so few were able to attend. It was not generally known as it was so slightly advertised, and so many plans had been arranged for other amusements, that it prevented a large number from enjoying a real musical treat as the Misses Furlong certainly gave the audience that evening. The season now is not for indoor entertainments, and if the concert had been a month later the Misses Furlong would not have been greeted with a full house; perhaps they may visit the St. Croix at some future time, and if so will find their talent and ability fully appreciated.

The saddest event that has occurred in our midst for many months was the drowning yesterday afternoon of Mary the young daughter of Rev. James Millidge. The accident occurred at Oak Bay near the rectory, where with several young friends she was enjoying the fine bathing the bay affords. She suddenly sank in the water and in spite of the frantic and almost superhuman efforts of her companions to save her, nothing could be done. It is thought a sudden failure of the heart was the cause as she did not speak or make any sign of fright, and she was accustomed to the water and bathing. She was fourteen years of age, and was the third of four daughters. The funeral services took place this afternoon at three o'clock from the rectory at St. David's. Rev. O. S. Newham of Christ church conducted the funeral services, much sympathy is expressed for Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Millidge in their great sorrow and trouble.

Harman father of the bride when the daughter of the house Miss Ellen G. Harman, was married to Mr. Ernest W. Lewis B. The ceremony, which took place in the presence of the near relatives and friends of the bride and groom, was performed by Rev. E. S. Parker, pastor of the Free Baptist church, assisted by Rev. G. F. Oarrie. The bride who was unattended, looked charming in a costume of white cashmere trimmed with lace chiffon, and white satin ribbon. The groom's gift to the bride was a very handsome gold watch and chain; and amongst the many beautiful gifts received by the young couple was a silver tea service, from the father and sister of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the evening train for a bridal trip to Boston, Montreal, and other points in Upper Canada; they will reside in Campbellton, whither they will be followed by the good wishes of their numerous friends in this city.

Champion of St. Martin's N. B. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, Mrs. W. W. Dornier and Miss Nellie Forbes having superintended the work, and was filled with friends and relatives of the bride. The bride was looking her best in a handsome fawn colored travelling suit with hat to match, and as she entered the church Professor Watts, played the Wedding March from Lohengrin and the choir sang The Voice That Breathed o'er Eden. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. W. W. Lodge pastor of the church assisted by Rev. Geo. Groves, and effectively concluded by Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Mr. and Mrs. Champion left immediately after the ceremony on the L. N. B. for a wedding trip to the home of the groom in Alberton P. E. Island. THINGS OF VALUE.

An Inspector, examining a boy's written answers to a series of questions upon elementary physiology, lighted upon the sentence, "The liver is an internal organ." He noted his blue pencil over the word "internal," and was about to scoop down upon it, when he paused, and, speaking with that sincerity which comes from personal experience, said, with a smile upon his face, "No; let the word stand. The boy is right—quite right!"

There never was and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all the ills to which the flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the vital systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restorative. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nervous, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased nutriment—results, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine, in the form of a pleasant and palatable tonic, and, in the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Sammy: "Was money der root oh! all evil for it?"

Isaac Slim: "Yes, Sam; so you must dry and do' all the good you can in life by getting it away from the people."

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Hickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives diseased parts a chance to heal.

Hotel Clerk: "This is a bad halloo for you, sir."

Commercial: "All right, I had a bad night."

"It is a Great Public Benefit"—These scientific formulae were used in relation to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, by a gentleman who has thoroughly tested its merits in his own case—having been cured of it. It never fails to relieve sore throat, as well as lameness, and is an incomparable pulmonary and curative.

"Wanted, a young man partly out-of-doors and partly inside an hotel," reads a late advertisement in a bush paper of Australia. A correspondent feels compelled to ask what would happen when the door was shut.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion.—C. W. Snow & Co, Braintree, Mass., writes: "I enclose you ten gross of Pills. We are selling more of Parolee's Pills than any other Pills we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Mr. Chase & Smith, Lindsay writes: 'Parolee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these Pills have cured her.'

"So you are going to marry Herr Meisner?"

"Hardly. Papa is not altogether satisfied with his position; mamma doesn't like his family; he doesn't strike me as quite stylish enough—and, besides, he hasn't asked me."

Dyspepsia or Indigestion is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also being the principal cause of Headache, Fatigue, Nervousness, and all the ailments which attend indigestion. Vegetable Pills taken before going to bed, for a year or never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "Parolee's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."

"Look at these manuscripts of mine that have been returned," growled the author. "That editor doesn't know a good thing when he sees it."

"But he probably knows a bad thing," suggested his friend, very quietly.

Out of Sorts.—Symptoms, Headache, loss of appetite, nervousness, and general indisposition. These symptoms if neglected develop into some disease. It is a trite saying that as "quack" prescriptions are worth a pound of cure, and a little attention to this point may save months of sickness and large doctor's bills. For the complete cure, from two to three of Parolee's Vegetable Pills on going to bed, and one or two for three nights in succession, and a cure will be effected.

"Do you find my son prompt and practical, Mr. Grindley?"

"I never had a young man in my employ who, at the close of business hours, could get out of the office with less delay."

Confidence

The
W. H. JOHNSON CO. Ltd., Halifax.

Every business man who expects to make a permanent success of his vocation in life, must have the confidence of the people who trade with him. This is sound natural law that is applicable to every legitimate trade that we know of, and no matter what the disposition of the individual may be, if he has ordinary common sense he must realize that IT PAYS TO BE HONEST with his customers. We have built up a very large business in various kinds of musical instruments throughout the Maritime Provinces during the past twenty-five years, and we owe it, not to the fact that we are more energetic than our competitors, nor that we have a monopoly of the best PIANOS and ORGANS made in the world, but simply by doing the very best we could for our clients under all circumstances. This is an absolute fact and one that we can furnish you ample proof of, if you ask us.
