OVERBURDENED.

The Egyptian woman looks greatly overburdened, and yet the physical burdens she carries will not compare with the burdens borne by many an American woman. There is no burden like the burden of disease. The woman who suffers from inflammation or ulceration, bearing-down pains, weak back and rervousback and nervous-ness, bears a burden which crushes her very life.

Every woman should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong well it cares the womanly diseases which cause weak-ness and feebleness. It quiets the nerves, cures the aching check and throbbing for wifely duties.

"When I first wrote to you I was in 4 had condition, and had almost given up." says Mrs. Bella Snider, of Wilkesville. Vinton Co. Ocio. "I was suffering from female trouble of the worst kind; I couldn't at anything without suffering great distress, threat hair me by spells; was nervous and week. Had numb hands and arms, heart trouble, pains all through my body and aching heat and nech. It recreed that I could not work at all. I got for fiftees medicine and took it as directed, and the first week it began to help me. I took three bottles and am glad to say that if did me more good than all the other medicine I ever took. I feel better than I have for years."
