

F. D. MONK THROWS LIGHT ON QUEBEC BY-ELECTION

A POLITICAL EPIDEMIC.

Nationalist Denies Racial Appeals and Offers Resolution Demanding Consulting People on Navy.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—This was a day principally devoted to the Drummond and Arthabaska election with French Canadian comment to the fore and F. D. Monk offered an amendment to the address demanding that the electorate be consulted on the naval policy of the government. He made a powerful speech in defence of his attitude and in repudiation of the assertions made by the Liberal press as to the campaign waged there.

MILLIONAIRE WEDS DOMESTIC

Favored Son Of Western Union Founder Worth $3,000,000 Marries Former Servant On Father's Home. New York, N. Y., Nov. 22.—Miss Minnie Egan, who formerly was a hotel maid at $20 a month, was married today to Thomas T. Eckert, Jr., heir to the $3,000,000 estate of the late General Thomas Eckert, long president of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

CAMPAIGN IN BRITAIN GROWS IN BITTERNESS

Suffragettes Surpass All Previous Efforts In Attacking Cabinet Ministers—Stirring Manifesto Of Nationalist.

ASQUITH FAILS TO PLACATE LABORITES

London, Nov. 22.—The political campaign is being waged with a fierceness almost unknown in England, both by politicians on the stump and suffragettes on the battlefield. The battle of Downing street which was fought this afternoon, when several hundred suffragettes attempted to storm the premier's residence, assaulted Mr. Asquith, and Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, and broke many windows in the government offices, surpassed all previous spectacles of the sort.

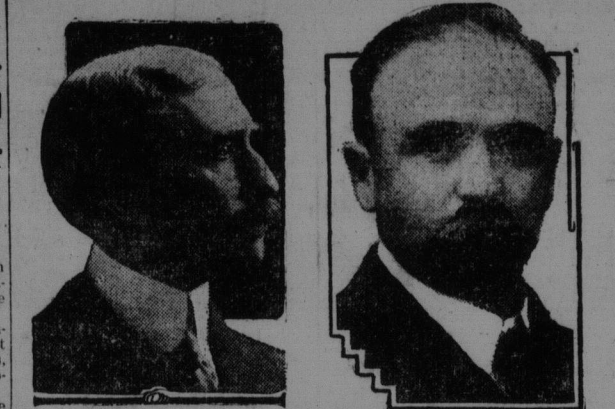

MILITIA INEFFICIENT IS REPORT OF GENERAL FRENCH

Imperial Inspector Found Undeveloped Organization and Lack of Knowledge of Conditions.

Commanding and Company Officers Censured—Maritime Forces Absurdly Inadequate.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 22.—Sir John French's report on the Canadian militia was laid on the table of the House of Commons today. He strongly advocates the maintenance of a large and efficient staff at headquarters and in the commands, saying that the present staff is absurdly inadequate.

Diaz Troops Well Placed in Mexico

HENRY LANE WILSON, U. S. Ambassador to Mexico, who predicts that Diaz will remain in control. FRANCISCO I. MADERO, who aimed to succeed Diaz and leader of the revolutionary movement.

Sharp Fighting at Many Points, but Revolutionary Cause Believed Hopeless—Plot to Kill Government Leaders.

Mexico City, Nov. 22.—Documents found in the house of a revolutionary are said to have revealed a conspiracy for the wholesale assassination of prominent government officials, including Foreign Minister Creel, Vice-President Corral and other prominent Mexicans, among them Editor Spinola, owner of "El Imparcial."

Reports Confirmed. Reports which were current last night in Gomez Palacio and Torreón, Mexico, are in part confirmed by the Mexican officials and army officers stationed in Nuevo Laredo, although it is denied that the battles assumed serious proportions. It is admitted that in battles between the insurgents and the Mexican troops at both places, several deaths resulted, the loss on both sides being evenly divided.

A Pitched Battle. Matamoros, Tamaulipas, Mex., Nov. 22.—More than a dozen Federal soldiers and revolutionists were killed last night in a pitched battle between the opposing forces in the streets of Camargo. A band of 75 revolutionists attacked the garrison and were driven into the country after a fierce encounter with the government troops.

Killed On Train. El Paso, Texas, Nov. 22.—A passenger train on the Mexico Northwest Railroad running between Chihuahua and Madera, was fired into last night and several second class passengers were killed. The number, names and details could not be ascertained, as all the telegraph wires have been cut.

Not Likely to Succeed. Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—That the revolutionists in Mexico are doomed to defeat is the opinion of Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador in the Mexican capital. From the vantage point with access to the reports received by the Mexican government from its military commanders and civil governors, and with his private advices from the American consular officers at points where disturbances have occurred, Mr. Wilson has been the conclusion which was transmitted to the state department, that owing to the excellent disposition of President Diaz' military forces, the revolutionary movement which appears to have been sporadic in its nature, is not likely to succeed.

Quiet at Laredo. Laredo, Nov. 22.—Everything is quiet in this city notwithstanding an undercurrent of intense interest in the possible outcome of the situation in Mexico where there is now an acute struggle between the government and anti-government forces at various points throughout the republic. So far as local conditions are concerned there is very little fear of an outbreak of any kind. The U. S. government has an increased force here and the state rangers also are on the ground, notwithstanding the general belief that their services will not be needed here or at other border points.

One Killed Two Injured in Elevator. Boston, Mass., Nov. 22.—Caught beneath a freight elevator which descended upon them as they were at work in the pit, Charles H. Shattuck, supervisor of elevators at the south terminal station was killed and John J. Fitzgerald was seriously injured tonight. The men were repairing the elevator in the outward baggage room. Shattuck was almost instantly killed and his companion horribly crushed and bruised and is feared internally injured. Shattuck was 69 years of age, resided in Dorchester and had been in charge of the elevators at the south station ever since the building was opened. He was a veteran of the civil war.

Mrs. Archibald Lampman. Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Lampman, widow of Archibald Lampman, the premier poet of Canada, fell dead in the library of parliament this afternoon. Death was due to heart disease. She was 39 years of age and had been employed in the parliamentary library since 1903. She received the appointment some time after the death of her husband. She leaves two children.

GAMBLING HELLS MUST GO. New York, Nov. 22.—Mayor Gaynor made plain this afternoon his attitude toward gambling houses in New York. He says they must go.

CIVIL SERVANTS PAY TAXES IN TORONTO

Toronto, Nov. 22.—The judges and Dominion government officials in Toronto have fallen in their appeal against having their incomes assessed for municipal taxes. Consequently they will have to pay income taxes the same as other citizens. This was finally decided this afternoon.

DEWEY DOES NOT FANCY AIR FLIGHT

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 22.—Graham White the aviator, today sent invitations to General James Allen, chief of the signal corps of the U. S. army, and to Admiral Dewey at Washington, asking them to accompany him on a cross country flight of 5 miles in his biplane, visiting Philadelphia navy yard.

J. A. D. McCURDY IN AIRSHIP ACCIDENT

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 22.—While descending from a 500 foot flight this afternoon J. A. D. McCurdy dipped too near the earth, one of the wing shields of his aeroplane striking the ground when going at a high rate of speed, and turning the machine over.

POLICE BREAK UP MOURNERS

St. Petersburg, Nov. 22.—Bands of singers who gathered in various cities throughout Russia to honor the memory of Tolstol and to sing "Eternal Memory" were dispersed by the police. At Kiev a girl was trampled to death and a score of persons were wounded by the whips of the Cossacks.

SIR EDWARD GREY, Whose house was damaged in Suffragette onslaught.

London, Nov. 22.—The Suffragettes tonight attacked the residence of Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary, and Lewis Harcourt, secretary of state for the colonies. Stones crashed through the windows of the houses, Sir Edward Grey's hearing the brunt of the attack. One hand splintered, Mr. Birrell, strolling through St. James Park, to the Athenaeum Club and swooped down upon the aged statesman, knocking his hat over his eyes, and kicking him about the legs. When help came, and the women were driven off, Mr. Birrell limped to his motor car, on the arms of policemen.

Attack Residences. The rioting continued into the evening, when squads of women attacked the residences of Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary, and Lewis Harcourt, secretary of state for the colonies. Stones crashed through the windows of the houses, Sir Edward Grey's hearing the brunt of the attack. One hand splintered, Mr. Birrell, strolling through St. James Park, to the Athenaeum Club and swooped down upon the aged statesman, knocking his hat over his eyes, and kicking him about the legs. When help came, and the women were driven off, Mr. Birrell limped to his motor car, on the arms of policemen.

ONE KILLED TWO INJURED IN ELEVATOR

Boston, Mass., Nov. 22.—Caught beneath a freight elevator which descended upon them as they were at work in the pit, Charles H. Shattuck, supervisor of elevators at the south terminal station was killed and John J. Fitzgerald was seriously injured tonight. The men were repairing the elevator in the outward baggage room. Shattuck was almost instantly killed and his companion horribly crushed and bruised and is feared internally injured. Shattuck was 69 years of age, resided in Dorchester and had been in charge of the elevators at the south station ever since the building was opened. He was a veteran of the civil war.

MRS. ARCHIBALD LAMPMAN.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Lampman, widow of Archibald Lampman, the premier poet of Canada, fell dead in the library of parliament this afternoon. Death was due to heart disease. She was 39 years of age and had been employed in the parliamentary library since 1903. She received the appointment some time after the death of her husband. She leaves two children.

GAMBLING HELLS MUST GO.

New York, Nov. 22.—Mayor Gaynor made plain this afternoon his attitude toward gambling houses in New York. He says they must go.

TEBO CHARGED WITH MURDER

Youth Held On Suspicion In McGregor Case Will Be Formally Arraigned Today Declares Innocence.

Special to The Standard. Digby, Nov. 22.—Tomorrow morning John Tebo, Jr., charged with the murder of Edward McGregor, will be formally arraigned before Stipendiary Harvey. As the Crown is not quite ready to proceed an adjournment will be made.

Detective Hanrahan has been working hard all day and claims the evidence he is securing is gradually enveloping Tebo. On the other hand Tebo says he will have witnesses to prove his whereabouts for every minute of the day and night that McGregor was last seen and also claims that he can account for every dollar of the big sum of money in his possession.

Tebo sleeps well and eats heartily, in Digby jail. Tonight McGregor's body, minus the head, lies in the grave. The skull was held as evidence and after being photographed, was placed in Sheriff Smith's keeping. McGregor's funeral was held today from Rice's undertaking rooms and was followed to the cemetery at Marshalltown by only the immediate relatives of the unfortunate man.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF MANITOBA APPOINTS COMMISSIONER TO INQUIRE INTO STATEMENTS REGARDING WINNIPEG'S MORALS.

Special to The Standard. Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 22.—Justice Robson has been commissioned by the Attorney General of Manitoba at the request of the Police Commissioners of Winnipeg, to investigate the charges recently made by Rev. Dr. Shearer, secretary of the social and moral reform department of the Presbyterian church, regarding conditions in what he claimed to be the segregated district of Winnipeg.

FIGHT FOR CANAL EXPO.

San Antonio, Nov. 22.—The struggle to obtain the Panama canal exposition was transferred this afternoon to the convention of the trans-Mississippi commercial congress, which is in session in this city. The reception each speaker received indicated that the congress is divided on the question of lending its endorsement.

Special to The Standard. Digby, Nov. 22.—Tomorrow morning John Tebo, Jr., charged with the murder of Edward McGregor, will be formally arraigned before Stipendiary Harvey. As the Crown is not quite ready to proceed an adjournment will be made.

Special to The Standard. Digby, Nov. 22.—Tomorrow morning John Tebo, Jr., charged with the murder of Edward McGregor, will be formally arraigned before Stipendiary Harvey. As the Crown is not quite ready to proceed an adjournment will be made.

Special to The Standard. Digby, Nov. 22.—Tomorrow morning John Tebo, Jr., charged with the murder of Edward McGregor, will be formally arraigned before Stipendiary Harvey. As the Crown is not quite ready to proceed an adjournment will be made.

LENEVE SAILS ON DAY OF EXECUTION

London, Nov. 22.—Ethel LeNeve has booked passage on the steamship Majestic which sails from Southampton for New York tomorrow. The execution of Crippen will take place between eight and nine o'clock, Public executioner Ellis, of Rochdale, who hanged a wife murderer at Liverpool this morning, arrived in London today. The scaffold for the hanging is not likely to be posted until evening. The body probably will be buried in quicklime in the prison yard. This is the custom at Pentonville, although not in all English prisons. Father Crippen, who has visited Crippen frequently entered the prison at 6 o'clock this evening to spend the night with the condemned man. He will walk with Crippen to the scaffold. An evening paper caused a sensation by flooding the city with placards that Crippen had made a written confession. Every one in a position to know denied this. Ethel LeNeve said: "I was the last person to see Dr. Crippen. So far as my knowledge extends he has not made such a confession. Every one in a position to know denied this. The paper denies that it has his confession."