MORRIS PAYS HIS RESPECTS TO BOXERS

New York, Nov. 17.—While taking light exercise at the New Polo A. A. in Harlem yesterday Carl Morris, the Oklahoma giant, who in the opinion of many ring followers is the best white heavyweight in the world, paid his respects to Jess Willard and Gunboat Smith, with whom he has been trying to arrange matches.

Morris is keeping in condition with the idea of fighting Willard in the Garden on December 2, provided Willard can obtain reinstatement by the State Boxing Commission.

It is understood that a Buffalo promoter will withdraw his complaint against Willard for running out of a bout with One Round Davis last winter if somebody will hand over $5000 spent in advertising. But Manager Gibson of the Garden A. C. said yesterday that he would not agree to reimburse the Buffalo promoter until Willard had positively agreed to meet Morris here.

"If Willard signs articles to box me in the Garden on Dec. 2, I will be very much surprised," said Morris yesterday. "I don't believe he wants any of my game, for he has known me for years when we were both greenhorns out in Oklahoma. If he gets into the ring with me, just say that there isn't the slightest doubt in my mind that I will knock him out before the end of the tenth round. Willard cannot stand punishment such as I am able to give him."

"As for Gunboat Smith I think the sporting public realize now that he is afraid to meet me again. I did not foul him in the first round of our recent Garden bout. He simply quit rather than be put away. Smith jarred me with a left hook, the first blow of the fight, which was followed by a clean right on the other side of the jaw, but I recovered quickly and after that he fought himself out."

"I met Gunboat over in Brooklyn the other night and asked him why he had refused to box me again, especially when knowing that another bout in the Garden would draw at least $20,000. Smith replied that he had been engaged to a girl with Lanford in Boston tomorrow night, another with Ed Hagen at a local club Thursday night, and a 20-round bout with Pecky in Frisco on New Year's day."

"You beat Willard, Smith told me, and then I'll make a match with you for some time in February. If this isn't a case of sidestepping, what is it? Lanford, in my opinion, is the greatest fighter in the world, and if he isn't under wraps Smith will be knocked out cold in a couple of rounds. But I hear that the bout in Boston will go the limit."

Fremont Jim Flynn, who began training at Dal Hawkins' place in Westchester, is anxious to get the Dec. 2 fight with Morris. Flynn has no excuses to make for his losing battle with Gunboat Smith here last summer except the statement that excessive heat never did agree with him.

"I have enjoyed a good rest," said Flynn yesterday, "and I want another crack at Morris because he is a better man than when we were two years ago. If the Garden doesn't offer a purse, I will agree to take on any other white man at any of the local clubs."

Willie Ritchie, who left here for San Francisco on Saturday, is receiving credit from Manager Gibson of the Garden A. C. for unusual fairness. When Ritchie made the match with Cross he accepted an offer of 30 per cent. of the gross receipts or a $10,000 guarantee. The gate amounted to $21,000 of which Cross's share was 20 per cent. When Ritchie learned that the Garden A. C.'s bit would be comparatively small he voluntarily waiting the $10,000 guarantee and accepting the percentage, which amounted to a trifle more than $6,000.

Ed Hagen, the California heavyweight, who is under the management of Harry Pollok, is training under the supervision of Jim Flynn at Hawkins' place. Hagen made a good record on the Coast and Flynn says he may furnish Gunboat Smith with a genuine surprise when they clash in the Atlantic Garden next Thursday night.

Jeff Smith, the American middleweight, now in Paris, won a battle on Saturday night, receiving the decision over Bernard, the French middleweight, in a 20-round bout, which was fought at Luna Park. Smith received a guarantee of $2,000 for his end, Smith left Paris for England, where he is signed up to meet some good middleweight at Liverpool on Nov. 27.

A WORLD SERIES FOR STANLEY CUP?

Quebec, Nov. 17.—At the next meeting of the National Hockey Association, which will be held in Toronto on Nov. 22, for the purpose of drafting the schedule, it is probable that Messrs. Quinn and Fremont, the Quebec delegates, will make a motion to the effect that the Stanley Cup trustees be approached with a view to making it a trophy in the world series, which is likely to take place after the close of the N. H. A. season between East and West.

The idea is that the historic trophy should be the highest honor in the hockey world, and that it should not be superseded in importance by any other cup which might be put up if the Stanley Cup were not available for a series between the Pacific Coast and the East.

THE ELEVEN WHICH ALL BIG TEAMS FEAR AS GRIDIRON FOE

Of all the football teams in the country there is none that is deserving of more praise or that annually attracts more general interest than that of the Carlisle Indian School. It is the one eleven that is willing to match its prowess against all comers. It does not "pick" its schedule, but accepts the challenges of both big and small. If all the big teams of the East would give Carlisle a place on their schedules the Indians would gladly accept; in fact, Glenn Warner's warriors would welcome an opportunity to meet all of the big teams. It is said that the Indians are not so strong this year as they usually are, yet they have defeated Cornell and Ied-Pennsylvania. They have been cast out of consideration as contenders for the so-called more or less mythical "championship" because they were defeated by the University of Pittsburg.

NAME MAKES A DIFFERENCE JUST THE SAME

"What's in a name?" Well, for instance, just bill some of our mitt entertainers under their correct appellations and you will really be surprised.

How does this sound? Geary Steffens vs. Louis Wallach. Or this: Fred Thomas vs. Willie Breslin. Give this up and down: Joseph Carrova vs. Joe Rivera.

Frankly speaking, you would go so far to see a bunch of unknown dubs like them, would you? No, of course not!

But at the same time you wouldn't mind witnessing a few rounds of performing by Willie Ritchie and Leach Cross or Freddie Welsh and Jack Britton or looking over Johnnie Dundee and Joe Rivers.

Oh! that's different. No, it isn't either. They are one and the same. Ritchie is Steffens, Cross is Wallach, Welsh is Carrova, Britton is Breslin, Dundee is Carrova, and Rivers Rivera. And that is not all. There are others—many others.

Probably one of the best known of these was Joseph Youngs, who chose the handle of Tommy Ryan to carry into the ring with him because it was more in harmony with his business. Kid McCoy, a pupil of Ryan at one time, and who later donned crossed him, was always married under his own name of Normal Selby, son of the Rev. W. Selby.

During the meeting of the board of supervisors in San Francisco a member is dignifiedly addressed as Mr. John Herger, but earlier in life he was known as Joe Herger, and earlier still as Joe Herger.

Tommy Burns is known the world over, but few know his real name is Noah Brusco.

That reminds us of old Bill Lanz, one of Tommy's victims. Remember Bill? He was sent over here touted as the greatest boxer in the world—and he never missed a punch, what a name in this country. He always signed his letters home to Australia "William Lanfranchi."

Then there was Hugo Kelly, an Irish name of a pure-blooded son of Italy, who was none other than Ugo Michel in the land of spachetti. That was one on Ireland, and, lucky for Ugo, he was a good fighter.

Do you suppose Jim Flynn would have possessed as much stamina if he had to carry around with him the jaw dislocation, Andrew Clarifiton?

Neither would the hard hitting Sullivan or Burke have received as many interviews if he sent a card bearing his correct name, Charles Prasser, in to the sporting editors.

The most picturesque fighter of recent years, the late lamented Stanley Ketchel (when will there be another like him?) was not permitted by the sporting writers to use his Polish name. In the city hall in Conway, Mo., his untimely death is recorded under the name of Stanislaus Ketchel.

Joe Thomas, who fought "Steve" two grand battles, one of which—the thirty-three round contest at Columbia—is considered the greatest fight ever witnessed in the west, was in private life, Joe Daly.

Also that good, dusky boy—the Dixie Kid—was not from Dixie, but from Missouri, and he had a name, and that name was Aaron Brown.

Before Young Corbett ever dreamed that he would one day be a champion, he was called Willie Rothwell by his Denver pals. Charles Neary, the light weight, was Charles Neary. Fighting Dick Hyland, the old San Francisco battler, who is still in the game, was known in his boyhood as William Urea. Frankie Conley, that very good bantam that gave Conlon a terrific tussle for the title a few years back, was the high-browed Italian appellation of Francesco, Conte.

The old timers are not the only ones to use aliases. Here are a few everyday fighters that we all know and their truthful patronyms: Meet Ernest Cutler Price of Indianapolis. Who? Oh, to be sure, Mr. Price and Jack Dillon are one and the same. Know Paddy Lavin at Patrick Stynes, and we introduce Wildcat Ferns, after the wester title, as Clarence McCubbins.

Oh! there's a lot in names.

When Eddie Campi, the blackhaired little Prisco newboy went to school the teacher wrote his name as Edward Campus, K. O. Brown's "honest-to-Gawd" handle is Valentine Braun. And Jack and Charley White, the clever Chicago high lights, left their family name of Anchowitz back in Liverpool, England, where they were born. Harry Lewis is not a brother of Willie Lewis, as he was born Henry Besterman.

HARVARD AND YALE CLASH ON SATURDAY

With the big contest of the year scheduled for Saturday next and the hopes of Harvard for victory vested mainly in the unerring toe of Charlie Brickley and the exceptional speed of Eddie Mahan, the Crimson supporters are wondering, and with due cause, whether their two Crimson stars will ever get the opportunity they need to show their undoubted skill in this last game of the season with the Elis.

Yale has a great habit of killing off stars and on Saturday next mayhap some 44,000 spectators will be given an illustration of the way in which the Blue tucklers go after and get their men. Yale got Baker Saturday and they put an immediate crimp in the Princeton captain's ambition to show his speed on Yale field. It behooves Harvard to watch out next Saturday.

Tomorrow when Brickley, Mahan and other most potent factors in the Harvard attack are extremely liable to be put out of the play at an early hour.

In this crucial game of the year between big teams it is the custom, the necessity of which is continually demonstrated, that the players of both the Harvard and the Yale elevens, to stop the men who are liable to prove the most dangerous in the way of achieving a score.

While perfectly within the rules in regard to their hard tackling, it is easily possible to throw and down a player in a way that is very liable to take a good deal of his ambition away. Yale teams have been noted for ability in this respect in previous years and it requires no wide stretch of the imagination to see some such a stunt as this pulled off on Saturday.

Yale's line, undoubtedly the superior of the Harvard first defense, is liable to lose some of its great effectiveness through the skill of Mahan at rounding the ends and the ability of Brickley to drop the ball over the goal posts from nearly any angle. The Yale line may withstand the line plunges of the Crimson successfully only to see a wonderful defense made impotent should Mahan get away for a touchdown.

Three years ago Harvard's great team failed to defeat Yale at New Haven mainly because Ham Corbett, the man upon whom the Crimson most depended, was tackled so savagely from the very opening of the game that he was unable to do himself anywhere near justice. His fumble was the indirect result of a savage toss that he had received a few minutes previously.

It is still remembered how Charlie Kilpatrick got Tal Pendleton of Princeton and how Homelander got Baker last year, although he was himself put out of the play in accomplishing his purpose. Two years ago it took but one play in the Harvard-Yale game for Ham Fish to get Lilley, the big Brickley to drop the ball over.

WILL PLAY GAME OVER ON FRIDAY

At a meeting of the committee of the School Boy Athletic movement in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon it was decided that the protested championship game between Albert and Grade VIII. of the High School teams would have to be played again. The protest was made by the Albert team on the ground of false tackling.

At the hearing yesterday the evidence showed that the false tackling in question materially affected the final result, and the game was ordered replayed on Friday afternoon next at four o'clock.

Unbiased. Hostess (gushingly)—They tell me doctor, you are a perfect lady-killer. Doctor (modestly)—I assure you, my dear madam, I make no distinction whatever between the sexes.—Tatler.

The insult. Lady (ordering boots for her husband)—Do you keep men's boots? Shopman—No, madame, but we keep up to nine in women's.—London Opinion.

Yale tackle. When a man is to be gotten the tacklers generally perform the work laid out for them.

The tackling of the Yale team against Princeton last Saturday was as fierce as ever displayed in a big game and the success of the Blue in this direction will probably spur them on to further efforts next Saturday when they remember what Brickley did against Yale last year. Without a doubt they will try to prevent either Brickley or Mahan from repeating.

On the theory that Harvard gives tit for tat it will be interesting to see just how successful the Crimson will be in taking care of Wilson and Alinsworth. Wilson showed Saturday that he is the real power behind the big Blue rush line. While Alinsworth proved the best ground gainer on rushes through the line. If Yale attempts to sidetrack Brickley and Mahan, just watch Harvard dispose of Wilson and Alinsworth.

REAL ARTICLE IN WRESTLING IS PROMISED

St. John will have a real championship match when Anderson and Young Carpenter come together.

Sam Anderson will have to show this time at his best and it will be a finish match at the middle weight. And the belt won by Anderson in the world's tournament in London 1908. Shortly after Anderson left here, the promoter got a letter from Kolim asking for a match. Anderson was communicated with, and the offer he made was that he would come again and take a chance of putting the belt against $200 with McDonald or any middleweight we could get to wrestle him in St. John. The promoters got a line on Carpenter and he agreed to the proposition, and those who know him feel he will be here with the goods on the 25th of this month.

Advice for the Snubbed. Mrs. Matchmaker—I know Betty snubbed you, but don't mind that. Follow her up, be persistent and you are sure to win.

Jack Wyse—No, thanks. I haven't forgotten the advice once given me by an old Southern colonel. "My boy," said he, "never run after a woman or a street cat—there'll be another along pretty soon."

Figures Won't Balance. Jack Singleton—My fiancée actually keeps count of the kisses I give her. Tom Wedderly—All very fine, but if she continues that after marriage you're in for it.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEED GRAIN AND POTATOES

Dominion Experimental Farms will Send Out Best Sorts of Grain and Potatoes to the Farmers.

By instructions of the Hon. Minister of Agriculture a distribution of superior sorts of grain and potatoes will be made during the coming winter among the Dominion farmers. The samples for general distribution will consist of spring wheat (5 lbs.), white oats (4 lbs.), barley (5 lbs.), and field peas (5 lbs.). These will be sent out from Ottawa. A distribution of potatoes (in 3 lb. samples) will be carried on from several of the Dominion farms, the Central Farm at Ottawa supplying only the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. All samples will be sent free, by mail, to the farmers.

As the supply of seed is limited, farmers are advised to apply early, but the applications must not necessarily be filled in the exact order in which they are received. Preference will always be given to the most thoughtful and explicit requests. Applications received after the end of January will probably be too late.

All applications for grain (and applications for potatoes) should be addressed to the Dominion Cereals Branch, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. Such applications require no postage. If otherwise addressed delay and disappointment may occur.

Applications for potatoes, from farmers in any other province should be addressed (postage prepaid) to the Superintendent of the nearest Dominion Experimental Farm in that province.

J. H. GRISDALE, Director, Dominion Experimental Farm.
