Weekly Tribmue.

WITH SUPPLEMENT.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JAN. 27, 1874.

persistent attempt is made to throw all neither side, quietly leaving Mr. Mekinds of dust in the eyes of the electors.
The only issues are the merits of the candidates and the merits of the positions they take. The electors have only tions they take. The electors have only that gentleman.

Dr. Vail's friends are

Dr. Vail's friends are

Dr. Vail's friends are

Dr. Vail's friends are

January 20.

Matthew Kearney, the only prisoner in the dock, must have been supprised to the company with others who have given to the city in Akerley's sleigh, and at once with the dock, must have been supprised to the company with others who have given to the city in Akerley's sleigh, and at once with the dock, must have been supprised to the dock in the dock, must have been supprised to the dock in the dock, must have been supprised to the dock in the before the people in this contest, and a courteously by Mr. Domville, but he takes our interests require? Which candi- King's County people we meet as being to serve us, is best qualified to fight not go to the polls, many of them will against what would injure our interests? vote for Mr. Domville, but few of them These questions are all the issues be will sustain the course that has been fore the electors. Let them ask them, pursued by Mr. McCready. answer them, and vote accordingly.

return before the 10th only," are not binding on the ticket-holder, and may be legally disregarded. But the case against the railways is by no means so clear as is believed, several United States courts having decided in favor of the binding character of the conditions printed on the tickets. Such a decision has just been given by the Court of Appeals of the State of New York. The plaintiff in the case had a ticket stamped "good for this day only," and demanded a passage on it at a subsequent date. The Court held that the ticket date. The Court held that the ticket was not a contract, but was "a mere token or voucher showing that the plaintiff had paid his fare and was entitled to a passage as thereon indicated, give the passage, no matter what may gentleman who were present. be the conditions on the ticket. Other decisions again, affirm that the condibinding on the purchaser. The man Portland. who proposes to go to law with a railway on this question must not imagine, therefore, that he had a clear case, as the decisions are most conflicting.

Mackenzie's silver mine and and jobbery, fered to minister to its wants until some of George Brown? Mr. Blake may be found in opposition before the session is exposed, or it would certainly have been long that the found in opposition before the session is exposed, or it would certainly have been long that the found in opposition before the session is exposed, or it would certainly have been long that the found in opposition before the session is exposed, or it would certainly have been long that the found is the first appearance in the Police Court. His exposure of the same o over. He is evidently disgusted with perished from cold. the swindling Brown clique that has used his eloquence as so much political chance of winning.

In the field. A "convention" was held in the field. A "convention" was held in the field. On Saturday a train of cars from Spring

Isaac Burpee. Mr. Smith promptly re- Riviere du Loup Railway. It will be fused to have anything to do wi h it, carted to the Western Railway, and for-Dr. Sharp, finding that Mr. Mc ready warded to Fredericton. The cost, when was bound to rale or ruin, and seeing no lauded at St. Mary's, will be a little over chance of winning in a three-cornered $9. The engines on the Riviere du Loup contest, quietly withdrew. The paper to road use coal altogether, and the great which Mr. McCready is attached as cheapness of narrow gauge railways is there he saw, but could hard; think it ges to 10 per cent, lower prices hands, and readily acknowledges that much less than by rail. A great deal is said about the issues hands, and reads, and reads, squarely and date is the ablest, has the most ability virtually decided in favor of Mr. Dom-

This volume pretends only to give the it is commonly believed that the print-personal adventures of a Border Hunter, el restrictions on railway tickets, such in his own language, and comprises, as "good for this day only," "good to hunting and trapping adventures with return before the 10th only," are not Kit Carson and other border heroes. It Local agents wanted. M. McLeod, 51

Satu day night the Portland. John. "Then go and find it. If you come back here again I will find a place and work for you." The people of St. John have got something else to do be sides supporting you. They have their honest poor to look after; pow go."

Mr. John have got something else to do be sides supporting you. They have their honest poor to look after; pow go."

Building Herewald to attentively being ance Hall was crowded to hear Mr. Pal-If the ticket is not a contract how is the mer on the political situation. The purchaser to be held to its conditions? is speech of Mr. Palmer, from beginning to asked. The Courtanswered this by affirm end, was listened to attentively, being ing that "railroad companies carrying frequently interrupted by applause. Mr. passengers have the right to make reason- Palmer spoke for over an hour, giving able rules and regulations for conducting an account of his parliamentary career, able rules and regulations for conducting an account of his parliamentary career, drunkenness last night. All are so entheir business, and they and their agents his various votes and acts for the benefit giged in the election that they have not half an hour was dead. their business, and they and their agents in starious votes and access to the station of St. John. The audience were evidentineur no liability in enforcing them in the incurrence of St. John. The audience were evidentineur no liability in enforcing them in the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of the station of St. John. The audience were evidentianed by the station of the s firm that when a railway company takes tribute to Lt.-Governor Tilley awoke a money for a passage they are bound to response from many old friends of that At the conclusion of his address R. A. Gregory, Esq., who acted as chairman. made a stirring speech in favor of Mr. tions on the ticket form a contract, Palmer as the choice of the people in Child Desertion. Sunday evening between seven and eight Edward Blake announces his intention of retiring from the Ministry. Does he refuse to sit in Council with the infamous Huntington, is he ashamed of the same Allan's front door, in Golding street, by trate entered. A few minutes was sufficient to dispose of their cases.

John Thompson was charged with lying drunk in the King's Square. He was fined $4.

Heart Disease.

used his eloquence as so much political capital for their own use. How sacredly is the purity of the Government of Canada guarded by Mr. Mackenzie when he makes a man over whoma Chareery judgment for gigantic mining frauds is impending President of the Council.

Mr. Palmer made a host of new friends by his nomination speech. If there had been any doubt about his heading the poll the reception accorded him then would have dissipated it. The readiness with which he responded to questions, and the clearness with which he recommended to make a man over whoma Chareery judgment for gigantic mining frauds is impending President of the Council.

Mr. James I. Fellows.—Deur Sir: In for protection, said he was on his way to Halifax, and was told to get there as soon as possible.

January 2cth.

The Magistrate this morning congratulated the Chief of Police and the force on only having arrested four persons charged with drunkenness on Monday. It was especially pleasing when there was so much excitement about the election.

Patrick Donnelly confessed being drunk in Duke street and was fined $8.

W. H. Taylor admitted the same charge and was also fined $8.

W. H. Taylor admitted the same charge and was also fined $8.

W. H. Taylor admitted the same charge and was also fined $8.

W. H. Taylor admitted the same the was imposed.

The heart being a great muscular organ, requires vigorous nervous force to sus in the charge, and the same tine was imposed.

chance of winning. Many efforts were nade to get Mr. McCready to stand asid via, from Pictou, N. S., for Galveston,

CITY POLICE COURT. January 21.

George Beadley was drunk, and, when arrested by Sergt. Rider, used very abusive language. For this offence he was fined $6.

William Holland was drunk at Reed's Point. He stood at the "loafers' heaven" and annoyed people passing, just as a good many sober people do at the same place. He was fined $6.

William Ward was arrested drunk in Sheffeld street, and also charged with some place. Sheffeld street, and also charged with

Well, I guess I can find one," answered adjourned after Mr. Hilyard's evidence, for Benjamain Houston, in for protection was allowed to go.

Wm. Crow was, yesterday afternoon, charged with using abusive language to Walter Wilson. The prisoner pleaded his own case by offering prayer, and, as address a throne of grace, the charge was possible during the month of January dismissed.

The charge against Patrick Cruikshank and give our subscribers the full benefit

Sunday evening between seven and eight o'clock an infant was found at Mr. Thos. Allan's front door, in Golding street, by pearance in the Police Court. His ex-cuse was not taken, and the fine was im-John Keeffee, who went to the Station

The court opened this morning at the usual hour, but there was a delay of over half an hour waiting for one of the jurors, who lives in Carleton and was detained.

Mrs. Day, the mother of one of the Beck Extra 11.00 Beck Extra 14.00 Codfish. per quintal 3.75 Codfish. per quintal 3.75 Codfish. per quintal 0.00 ulet as it was 11 o'clock. He believed Kerosene, Can, per gal... ne prisoner was one of the crowd. Poceman Pidgeon and himself followed tem up the street, and four or five of crowd turned up the Bridge Road.

e was not positive that it was the pr Cargoes of Fish, Produce, &c.

ondent, and Mr. McCready shown from the fact that one and a half was not him. In cross examination he himself, are industriously spreading the report that Dr. Sharp retired in Mr. Mccready that Dr. Sharp retired in Mr. Mccready's favor and is working to secure the Summer season the coal will only was, and he was not positive that Ramsay He had his election. Such is not the fact. Dr. ost the company about $6, when landed was there at all. (Mr. Thomson said he Sharp, of course, feels deeply the treat at their station in St. Mary's, as the cost considered if Pidgeon knew he had met Fell such a woe as bows thine head again. ment he has received at Mr. McCready's of taking it by sail up the river is so the prisoner on that evening, it was criminal misconduct for him not to have so stated when he gave evidence.)

Andrew Ramsay was in the city at ten to ask themselves: Which candidate is independent, unpledged, ready independent, unpledged, ready support or oppose any party as and the contest is now regarded by all the Wilson. The case will be investigated. William Clark and Andrew Gamoid and Colins were seated when they got were charged with obstructing Union st., in. They went to the car-shed and walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried with obstructing Union st., in they went to the car-shed and walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried with obstructing Union st., in they went to the car-shed and walked towards the Bridge road, where they got were charged with obstructing Union st., in they went to be car-shed and walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried with obstructing Union st., in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried with obstructing Union st., in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they met to work in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they were charged with obstructing Union st., in the carried walked towards the Bridge road, where they were charged with obstructing Union st., in the carried walked towards the bridge road, where they were charged with obstructing Union st., in the carried walked towards t with him. It was then after 11 o'clock. Three prisoners were fined for drunk- This witness had never seen the prisoner with a neckties or collar on. From the The International Hotel in Halifax will enness this morning.

With a neckties or collar on. From the little international for business on the 2nd of time he met the prisoner, about 10 o'clk, be opened for business on the 2nd of February at the collection of the 2nd of of the William Ward was arrested drunk in Sheffield street, and also charged with having an open knife in his hand. He confessed the drunkenness, but could not remember having the knife. A fine of $4 was imposed.

The trial of Mabee, commenced in the police court yesterday, was finished this afternoon. By the evidence of several witnesses an alibi was proved, and the Magistrate discharged the prisoner. Mr. Mabee now thinks of bringing an action for damages against Mr. Christie who prosecuted.

The was imposed.

Henry Hilyard, Esq., remembered to stub.

New Year's night. The Portland clock was striking ten when he entered his own door. It took him about twelve minutes to go from the clock to his house. He saw no one walking but met one team when the train pussing over and crushing it.

A saddle horse belonging to Mr. Dickston, Stevedore, while being exhibited to a gentleman at Richmond Depot, Friday morning, who had a notion of purchasing prosecuted.

January 22.

Jan es Gould and Wm. Neman, charged with drunkenness in Prince Wm. street, confessed and were each fined $4.

John McLauchlan was sent to gool a few days ago for drunkenness, and was four in five minutes he would have seen station few days ago for drunkenness, and was let out yesterday. He sought a lodging in the Station House. "Have you no place of abode?" said the Magistrate. the bridge to his own house. The court the bridge to his own house.

> Euiden Deith. Mr. John Budge, the blacksmith em

PREMIUMS. CLUBS! CLUBS!

In order to secure as many new subhe complainant would not so effectively scriptions to THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE as for abuse to James Wright, was dismissed on payment of seven and sixpence ers to agents and travellers, we have decided to make the following rates

TO CLUBS. We will send THE WEEKLY TRIBUNI for one year to Clubs at the following rates, the papers to be sent to separate addresses or in bundles to one address at the option of the subscribers:

For Clubs of five, ten, fifteen. 11.50 twenty, 15.00 These Clubs may be made up of old an new subscribers, and the cash or P. O order, must accompany the names. In addition to these liberal rates will present to the agent who sends the largest list of names [not under fifty beeen now and the first day of March.

He had no children, who for love of mca. Being God, endured of gods such things as thou, day, a brilliant success.

TO VICTOR HUGO.

On the Douth of His Son Francois BY A. S. SWINBURNE.

Nova Scotia News.

Customs of the Inhabitants.

Araminta and I went to Washington last week on a lark or rather to use the very latest and more fashionable slang a "toot." We were resolved to see all the ployed by the Water Commissioners, died sights, to "do up" a large number of very sud lenly Monday no ning, at his calls, and to have a good time generally. January 23, res dense in Machlen urg street. He Washington is the paradise of middle There was not an arrest made for got up as usual early in the no. r. aged ladies, there are such crowds of mei naturally they make belles of women who are charming, whatever their agmay be, and no wonder, for at the hotel there are vast herds of masculine creatures eating in droves by themselves, and so constantly thrown on each other for society that it is not surprising that they welcome anything feminine with enthusi-Araminta had never been in the capital of the nation before, and was, therefore, full of awe for the great beings who rule and reign over our country. To her a judge was a person to be venerated, a goueral something to be feared, and as for the members of the Senate, words fail adequate to portray her respect fo tose distinguished creatures. These views of hers suffered a terrible shock during our few days in Washington.

few days in Washington.

She saw judges talking nonsense to pretty girls; she met generals who were evidently bashfully afraid of the ladies, and, worst disenchantment of all, she beheld Senators, the very patries c nscripti, riding in horse-cars and wearing shabby overcoats! by overcoats!

Her expression was quite a study when this last fact became evident to her. We had taken a car on a fine clear morning to ride to the Capitol, and presently this plebian conveyance began to fill up with common-looking, grizzled men. "How are you, Senator?' said one to with position before one ase. Here decreases with which as man over when chaeses; but the proof of the contract of the contrac

Dancing was attempted at one of the entertainments, but very shortly became a mere pretence of that amusement, the crowd becoming so great that after a time, as one gentleman said, "You could only stand opposite one another and shake feet." However, the entertainment was according to the papers next TIGER LILY.

of Eugene Johnson, a lad thirteen years of age, of Niles Hill, near Wellsville. of age, of Niles Hill, near Wellsville.

The boy and his sister, eleven years old, have always been objects of aversion to both parents, and have frominfancy been subject to the most inhuman treatment.

It is said that the hoy falling at times to the work of the large of the la It is said that the boy, failing at times to find the cows when he has been sent for the Dunthion came in and asked for Mr. McMullen!—and arm and arm the two them, has remained in the woods for "McMullen!—and arm and arm the two "Confederates left the Hotel for the station nights and days together rather than re- "and took tickets for the East."

abusing the boy in an outrageous abusing the boy in an outrageous manner.

When he became weary of torturing the child, he left the house and went back to finish his visit. Shortly after he left, the poor boy, according to his sister's statement. gathered up his playthings and put them away in a little box, and then went to the barn. Being gone a long time, the girl followed him to the barn where she found him dead, and hanging by the neck to a beam. Terribly grieved and frightened, the girl remained with lei brother until her parents returned, when her frantic screams attracted their attention, and her father soon arrived at the seene of the tragedy. Was he shocked? Did he cut down the lad and manifest as much sorrow as a tigress he sheeked? Did he cut down the lad and manifest as much sorrow as a tigress would for the loss of her young? Not by any means. He was not the kind of a man to indulge in any such nonsense. Telling the girl to go home, he did up his chores, left the boy as he had found him, closed the barn door, returned to his house, went to bed, and slept the refresh ing sleep of innegaring. He then leisure.

A Modest Candidate. A new candidate has entered the field, panied by the usual price of insertion, and was detected and removed. This is we publish it as a curious specimen of climbing ambition pulled back to the electioneering puffery : It is important that we should send A Society for the Suppression of Vice Powerful not simply in votes, but in ideas, in thought, in language, in competency, in force, in energy. What one of our three representatives does not possess should be supplied by the other. The one should, as far as possible, comand constitutional law-men who can and constitutional law—men who can understand and discuss questions that arise in Parliament. Such men were in the party and they had been overlooked.

A great party have great duties. If it A great party have great duties. If it is unable to put forward men equal to the times, it is not able to fulfil the task which must feel that his extremist's dreams were realized.

In the evening we went to two receptions, after the dissipated manners of Washington people. The houses of these public characters never seem in the least like homes; they are mere halls or tents, as it were, through which a great crowd perpetually ebbs and flows. As we stood a little way within the portals and heard the mames called, how very grand they sounded:

"The President and Mrs. Grant."

de. Your candidate should be ceurageous as well as able. Am I not courageous? Did I not run from the brawnery fist of Capt. Firth? If I did lose my hat when running away from the wild Irishman whose fault was it? The wind was high. The Reform party has within its ranks many clever men. That's Mr. Maher and myself. The party managers failed to bring us to the front. Therefore have I come out myself and being come seek, beseech your suffage. I have had no requisition offered me to come out. That's seech your suffrage. I have had no requisition offered me to come out. That's another reason why I am determined to contest the election. I have always believed that an editor loses his influence and uscfalaess as a journalist when he enters Parliament. But as I have long a little while Araminta said, with a sigh:

"I feel quite dreadfully to think I have no title. If, now, I only were General Araminta, or Major or even Judge, Araminta, or Major or even Judge, Araminta how nicely it would sound!"

seech your suffrage. I have had no requisition offered me to come out. That's another reason why I am determined to contest the election. I have always believed that an editor loses his influence and uscfalaess as a journalist when he enters Parliament. But as I have long ago lost any little influence I may ever have had, surely I cannot be any worse off. My Party meets in the Theatre. You may judge of our motives therefore by our may judge of our motives therefore by our whether the lose of the Largest Club!

Mr. William Sommerville, Upper Jemseg, is authorized to act as General Agent for the Weekly Tribune.

Mr. Weekly Tribunes

terse remarks on clear Grit inconsistency, fearless criticisms on public questions and powerful advocacy of the rights of Driven to Suicide by a Father's Brutality.

The last issue of the Wellsville (Mich.)

Free Press gives an account of the suicide

The last issue of the Wellsville (Mich.)

Birds of a Feather.

nights and days together rather than return to his home and undergo the excessive punishment which he knew would be inflicted. For weeks past he and his sister have been compelled to cut from two and one-half to three cords of wood per day with a cross-cut saw, under penalty of a severe beating. Last Sunday the parents went to a neighbor's to supper, leaving their children at home: but before going Johnson told the boy to water the horses. Returning to his house in the afternoon on some errand for the neighbor whom he was visiting, he ascertained that his instructions in regard to the horses had not been complied with, and at once commenced beating and abusing the boy in an outrageous man ing sleep of innocence! He then leisurely informed his neighbors of the occurrence; and they, eighteen hours after the suicide, cut down the cold and rigid body, prepared it for the grave, and in due time buried it.

The telegraph announces the death of the Siamese twins. These twins were very much attached to each other and they stuck together to the last. They were lovely and pleasant in their live and in death they were not divided.

Horace Greeley's sentiment, "The man but we fear he is too modest to win. He who raises ten boys is greater than sends us the following card, unaccom- Cæsar." planted a keg of gunpowder unpanied by the usual price of insertion, and der a school house, for the purpose, but to the Parliament of Canada some men has just been organized in New York. at least able to do more than vote. * * * This would be a good kind of society to blement the other. * * * A great party lowed to interfere in election matters. Government officials should not be allike that of Reform should choose men This has been a battle cry of the Grits for acquainted with Parliamentary practice This has been a battle cry of the Gras for years, yet at the present time the Hon.

it has undertaken. It should be courage- confidence operators? In this line every READ OUR TERMS TO CLUBS. Strive to obtain one of OUR PREMIUMS!

A SILVER HUNTING CASE WATCH To the getter up of the Largest Club?