MARRIED.

WINSHIP-HASKELL.—At the parsonage, Glencoe, by Rev. R. Fulton Irwin, on Wednesday, April 25, 1917, Thomas R. Winship to Miss Gertrude Mae Haskell, both of Mosca township.

LOCAL.

Everybody is gardening. May 13th is to be the day honoured this year as Mother's Day.

Bread was advanced to nine cents a loaf in Glencoe last week.

A new time card will come into effect on the Grand Trunk on Sunday.

Miss Lettie Pole has been engaged as stenographer at the Merchants Bank.

Wm. McRae has bought and moved into the residence formerly owned by Thomas Henry.

A fish diet may not strengthen the brain, but a little fishing trip invigorates the imagination.

George McCallum, son of A. D. McCallum of Ekfrid, has been taken into the Royal Bank as junior.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Aldred on Monday, April 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lathrop have returned from London, having spent the week-end with Miss Myrtle McMillan.

Tony Cortese, one of London's oldest and best-known musicians and Italian harpist, died suddenly at his home on Tuesday.

The day is coming when the average woman will be just as proud to see her name on the voters' list as in the society column.

Rev. Mr. Owen gave an interesting address on Jamaica to the Book Club on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mayhew.

With greater production the national cry, it is not encouraging to read that a cheese factory is to be torn down and rebuilt into a garage.

Appin Red Cross shipped to Hyma Hall, as its March donation, 23 pairs of socks, 10 grey flannel shirts and a quantity of old linen.

David Eddie of Ekfrid sold to Wm. Wood, live stock dealer of Glencoe, 26 hogs that brought him $1,128.30 and weighed 7,210 pounds.

"An Honest Glencoe Man" is a headline in a daily paper. We would just like to impress on the city editor that there are many of him.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are holding a talent tea at the home of Mrs. Luckham on Saturday next from 3 to 6. All cordially invited.

The Tait's Corners Patriotic Society shipped to Hyman Hall last week 22 pairs of socks, 48 hospital towels, 9 dozen handkerchiefs and a quantity of old cotton. The society has also donated $50, part of the proceeds of their recent box social, to the Byron hospital for returned soldiers.

A new bell has been placed on the public school building, the old one having become cracked. Its tone is quite musical, even to the belated pupil.

Last Sunday Rev. R. Fulton Irwin preached very successful educational sermons on the Appin circuit, contributions being more than double those of last year.

Miss Della M. McIntyre, who wrote on the Grade A examinations at the London Normal School recently, has been successful in obtaining a second class certificate.

M. R. McKellar, son of Neil McKellar of Saskatoon, who left Winnipeg as a private, is now lieutenant in the 3rd Battalion, having won his commission at the front.

A strong flow of gas was struck on Wm. Monroe's farm, township, North Glencoe, last week, while drilling for oil. Prospects for gas for fuel in Glencoe are not remote.

The Rodney Mercury says:—Mrs. Margaret Finlayson, of Glencoe, has purchased one of D. Markle's dwellings on Furnell street, and will move to our village in a few weeks.

Do you know that boosting Glencoe boosts you. If for nothing else than selfish interest boost your town. Be careful when knocking hard that you don't skin your own knuckles.

Mrs. Dornand, Glencoe, has received official information that her husband was severely wounded in the left arm while in action in France. Mr. Dornand went overseas with the 142nd.

Miss Florence McKellar of Saskatoon, who is on a visit to relatives and friends here, rendered in a very pleasing manner the solo, "Teach me to pray," in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning.

Glencoe's total assessment this year is $448,630.94, including taxable income of $4,590 and business assessment of $28,700.94. The assessment roll gives the number of persons in families assessed as 847. The dogs number 36.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Poole met at their home in South Ekfrid on Friday evening and presented them with a mantle clock and a dozen pearl-handled fruit knives prior to their leaving the community to take up their residence in Westminster township. A complimentary address was read and a very pleasant social evening was spent.

The following elections were made in the Epworth League for the coming year:—Hon. vice-president, Rev. W. F. Ford; hon. president, Rev. R. E. Irwin; president, Miss Ethel Bechill; president of Christian Endeavor department, Miss Ella Samson; president of missionary department, Mrs. F. Hayter; president of literary and social department, Mrs. (Rev.) Irwin; president of citizenship department, Dr. Mumford; secretary, Miss Cleda Hicks; treasurer, Miss Pearl Parish; organist, Miss Muriel Precious. This league has closed a good year, and much valuable work has been done.

About seventy-five of their friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. John Dugdon and daughter Ada on Wednesday evening of last week to bid them farewell on the eve of their departure to take up their residence in Winnipeg. A very pleasant social evening was spent, during which Mrs. Dugdon was presented with a club bag and pearl brooch and Miss Dugdon with a wrist watch, in token of the esteem of their many friends in Glencoe and vicinity.

There was an informal program of music and speeches, and further enjoyment was had in cards and dancing. Lunch was served by the ladies of the party. Mrs. Dugdon and daughter will not be forgotten for the genial hospitality of their home while they resided in Glencoe.

HEALTHIEST ONE IN THE FAMILY

No Sign Of Dropsy And Kidney Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

HATTIE WARREN

Port Robinson, Ont., July 31st, 1915.

"We have used 'Fruit-a-tives' in our house for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives' and would never be without them."

WILLIAM WARREN.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.

Original Home of Welshmen.

Jutland was probably the original home of our Kymric ancestors, as well as at a later period of some so-called Saxon invaders. It was peopled in classical times by the Cimbr, identified by ethnologists with the Cymry, or modern Welshmen. The Germans magnanimously declined to annex Jutland with Schleswig-Holstein. It was then considered a worthless waste of moors, sand dunes and marshes. But the industrious Danes have transformed what one English traveler styled "a forsaken wilderness" into the most prosperous pastoral countries of western Europe.—Westminster Gazette.

Bee's Double Stomach.

The bee has two distinct stomachs. In the first it stores away the honey it so industriously gathers up from the flowers until such time as it is ready to yield it up, while the other stomach is used simply and solely for digestion purposes. Thus the food and the honey are never mixed. When the bee returns to the hive and is ready to deposit the honey it has gathered it contracts the muscles of the stomach, by which act the honey is ejected through the mouth. As to bee food, it is vast and in kind, consisting largely of the honey it so patiently makes for others.

No "Poor Land."

"That land of yours was mighty poor when you bought it," a friend of ours remarked to the wide awake owner of a beautiful farm we passed the other day, whereupon the owner delivered himself of a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance—or mighty nearly so. "You're mistaken," he said. "There's not any poor land when you manage it right." It is a true rule that "there is more in the man than there is in the land."

Superstitions of Royalty.

Cæsar, Napoleon, Bismarck and others were not above the superstition of "lucky" and "unlucky" days. Thursday was the "unlucky" day of Henry VIII., of his son Edward and of his daughters, Mary and Elizabeth. It is strange that they should have died upon this day.

As Regards Vanity.

"All is vanity. At least so says the philosopher."

"I don't know about that," chimed in the Plunkville sage, "but there is enough of it to keep the drug stores doing a good business in complexion contraptions."—Exchange.

Couldn't Fool Him.

Lecturer (in small town)—Of course you all know what the inside of a corpse is like. Chairman of Meeting (interrupting)—Most of us do, but ye better explain it for the benefit of them that has never been inside one.—Puck.

Get Familiar With Them.

Professor Fugue—What do you mean, Mr. Jones, by speaking of Dick Wagner, Ludie Beethoven, Charlie Gounod and Fred Handel? Jones—Well, you told me to get familiar with the great composers.—Musical America.

Just Change.

Mrs. Bacon—Does your husband carry any life insurance? Mrs. Egbert—Well, I never happened to run 'gainst any when I've been going through his pockets at night.—Yonkers Statesman.

Children and Reading.

That the child who reads rapidly gets the most thought out of the books read is the result of every experiment that has been made in this line.—Miss Mary Downey at Chataqua.

WINNER OR WASTER—Which Are You?

On a recent public occasion the Honorable the Minister of Finance for Canada, in addressing a representative Canadian audience, dealt with the urgency of everybody doing, even in the smallest way, their share towards aiding the Empire.

It is well to remember that every dollar thrown away extravagantly does one hundred per cent. more good to the enemy than one dollar saved by ourselves.

The wealth of the world finally filters through individual dollars, and if the curse of extravagance strikes deeply enough, our ruin is bound to follow.

Save a dollar TODAY and do a hundred per cent. more for the Empire than your extravagant neighbor does for the enemy.

GIVE YOUR WIFE ONE

Thousands of wives and daughters run their own Ford cars. They use them for shopping, calling, attending the theatre, taking the children for a run in the country or to school.

The Ford is as easy to operate as a kitchen range, no knowledge of mechanical details being necessary. Inexpensive to operate. A woman can call around town all afternoon or take a 25-mile spin in the country, at the minimum of cost for gasoline, oil, wear on tires, etc.

You couldn't give "her" a present she would appreciate more than this beautiful, modern car, with its stream-line effect, tapered hood and crown fenders.
