A considerable substitution in the control of the substitution of of the substitut A considerable reduction is proposed on nearly all lines of imports, including cotton goods. If this bill becomes law the effect must be to give an impetus to farming and certain lines of lumbering all over the province. There appears to be some doubt as to its passage this session but that some such bill will become law at a very early day cannot be doubted. A report was in circulation to the effect that the extreme protectionist wing pro posed to let the bill pass without opposi ion. The New York Sun denies this and says that Mr. Randall means to oppose it but our contemporary is careful to say that Mr. Randall will fight the bill in the interest of labor and not in behalf of capital. This is so very different from the Sun's customary treatment of Mr. though the high tariff men were discount ng their defeat. It is only right to say, how ever, that the Sun has for years been a strong advocate of the abolition of the duties on lumber in order to stay if possible the wholesale destruction of domestic forests.

The second carnival of the season was a future. Our leader realizes this, and has indicated the lines in which he thinks the country should advance. His views commend themselves to us and we trust to the Liberal party generally and we hope to see them emphasized in the statement of the principles of New Brunswick Liberalism which the committee will promulgate.

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—Early yesterday morning the residence lately occupied by Chief Justice Ritchie, and known as Gleniffier House, near New Edinburgh, was entered by a gang of burglars and several apparatus for ventilating purposes, and other articles were carried away. County Constable Head having been notified set to work to catch the thieves, and before midnight had two of them, Jean Langevin and Jean Paulin, in the lock up.

The Government will present to Thomas Grahame, second mate of the "John Mann," of Windsor, N. S. and seamen R Gill, Jonnohan, Emil Lefebrre, and J Slonnun, a silver watch and $10 each for services rendered to "Marie Antoinette" of New Carliale.

Medals for distribution to volunteers who served during the North West rebellion are all struck, but have not yet been shipped from England. It is probable that some day will be fixed during the session for their distribution when members of Parliament will be present and take part in the proceedings.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—The principal topic of conversation in the hotels to-day has been the proposal of the Untario Government to increase license fees. The liquor men are indignant and declare they will have to charge ten cents per glass for whiskey and also it will ruin several of the smaller hotels. Temperance people on the other hand are jubilant and attribute the unexpected action of government to the exertions of the temperance men who so frequently interviewed the members of the government on the subject.

The result of the labors of the Central prison commission was laid before the House yesterday. Warden Mussey is completely exonerated from charges of cruelty and mismanagement made against him.
