

Poetry.

HERE AND THERE.

Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.—(1 Cor. 13. 2)

What no human eye hath seen, What no mortal ear hath heard, What no thought hath ever been In her noblest flights conferred— This hath God prepared in store For his people evermore.

When the shaded pilgrim-land Yades before my closing eye, Then revealed on either hand Heaven's own scenery shall lie When the veil of flesh shall fall, Now concealing, dark'ning all Heavenly landscapes, calmly bright, Life's pure bliss murmuring low Forms of loveliness and light Lost to earth long time ago,— Yes, my own, lamented long, Shino amid the angel throng!

Many a joyful sight was given, Many a lovely vision here Hill and vale, and starry even, Friendship's smile, affliction's tear— These were shadows, sent in love, Of realities above!

When upon my wearied ear Earth's last echoes faintly die, Then shall angels harps draw near, All the chorus of the sky,— Long-hushed voices blend again Sweetly in that welcome strain.

Here were sweet and varied tones— Bird, and breeze, and fountain's fall, Yet creation's travail groans Ever sadly sighed through all, There no discord jars the air— Harmony is perfect there!

When this aching heart shall rest, All its busy pulses o'er, From her mortal robes undrest, Shall my spirit upwards soar— Then shall pure unmingled joy All my thoughts and powers employ.

Here devotion's healing balm Often came to soothe my breast,— Hours of deep and holy calm, Earnests of eternal rest; But the bliss was here unknown Which shall there be all my own.

Jesus reigns, the Life, the Sun, Of that wondrous land above,— All the clouds and storms are gone, All is light and all is love, All the shadows melt away In the blaze of perfect day!

THE RENOWNED REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS.—A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, Dear Sir.—Mrs. SARAH DIXON, of Liquorpond Street Boston, has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the best of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse. Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that all was well, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly. Dated August 12th, 1852. (Signed) J. NOBLE

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF ERYSIPELAS IN THE LEG, AFTER MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Bognor, Sussex, dated Jan. 12th, 1853.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, Sir.—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and I am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighbourhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful Serv't. (Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

A DREADFULLY DISEASED ANGLE CURED AFTER BEING GIVEN UP BY THE FACULTY, AT MALTA AND PORTSMOUTH HOSPITALS.

The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr. B. Dixon, Chemist, King-st., Norwich.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Smith, of Great Yarmouth, dated January 14th, 1853.

To MR. DIXON, Dear Sir,—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines.—Mr. JOHN WALTON, late in Her Majesty's Service, in the British Fleet at Malta, had a very bad ulcerated ancle, and after having been in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England as an invalid to Portsmouth Hospital, where he remained an inmate four months, there, as at Malta, refusing to have the ancle amputated, he was turned out incurable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months, but his ancle became so much worse that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice, he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which by unremitting application, healed all the ulcers, and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours very truly,

SURPRISING CURE OF A BAD BREAST, NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LITTLE HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. T. F. Ker, Chemist, &c. Lower Moss-lane, Manchester, dated Feb. 12th, 1853.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in forwarding to you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pills. Mrs. MARTHA BELL, of Pitt street, in this Town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill health, occasioned by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result, in fact she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have a recourse to your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effects produced was most astonishing, her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed. I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) T. FOSTER REIL.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases—

- Ague Female Irregularities, Scrofula, or King's Evil
Asthma
Bilious Complaints
Fever of all kinds
