The editors have much pleasure in announcing that at the end of the year, dating from the issue of our first number, they will give to the person who has been most successful in discovering the answers to the Historical Questions a handsomely bound copy of "Hannay's History of Acadia." The answers to be legibly written and sent, together with post office address of solver, to W. G., P. O. Box 578, St. John, N. B.

26. When did Portland receive its name and from whom?
27. Where is the river known as the Saco-diac?
28. When and where did the first Governor of N. B. die?
29. Who was the first British settler on the Miramichi?
30. Where was Thorpes Rock and what was the name of the vessel wrecked there?

The comet made its appearance in Egypt on the morning of the attack on Tel-el-Kebir, which it was necessary to effect before day break, and so deceived Sir Garnet Wolseley that he turned to Major Butler and said, "We are done this time, there's the dawn."

"I am content to seek my ancestors in the Garden of Eden," says Dean Berzon, of England, in criticising the labor of the New Testament revisors; let others if they choose, look for theirs in the garden called Zoological."

Mr. Stanley Lane Poole admonishes the patriotic poets of England that Egyptian names should be kept in the middle of their lines. Neglect of this rule he says results in rhyming "Tel-El-Kebir" with "sabre," when it is pronounced "Tel-El-Kebeer," and would rhyme with "severo," while "Arabi" does not agree in accent or sound with "lullaby," but rather with a "Harpy."
