LIEUT. MARSHALL'S (QUAR-MASTER C.O.R.) PRAYER.

"O' Lord!

Thou knowest
That if this German Kaiser His war lords and officers Shall be slain to-morrow
We shall rejoice
And Thou wilt not be sorry."

(We were all very much surprised to know that Mr. Marshall was of a religious strain. The C.O.R. may have a chaplain soon.)

HE KNOWS NOW.

Corporal Giebner was strolling along the banks of the Richelieu with a charming young lady, last Sunday afternoon, and seeing a youthful disciple of Isaac Walton (about seven years old), he thought he would like to know the French for "fishing". So casually strolling up to the young angler, he asked, "What are you doing, lad?"

The youngster looked the Corporal over very carefully and replied in tones that bore no French accent: "Fishing, you damn fool."

COFFEE AND SANDWICH, PLEASE.

One of the Officers of the C.O.R. walked through the train coming from Hamilton and said we would get coffee at Cobourg. One of the men thinking he could not wait that long pulled the communication-cord. The trainman came up to find out what was the matter, and the man told him he would like a sandwich and a cup of coffee as Cobourg was a H— of a long way off.

The fine, rich flavor and lasting qualities of

"STAG"

have made this famous chewing tobacco a prime favorite all over Canada.

It satisfies because the natural flavor of the tobacco is in it.
