

529. The officers, non-commissioned officers and men attached from time to time for instruction, shall for purposes of discipline, be held to be called out for active service, and be subject to the laws and regulations which under the provisions of the "Consolidated Militia Act of 1883," apply to officers, non-commissioned officers, and men called out for such service.

530. The Commandants may dismiss from their respective Schools, attached non-commissioned officers or men, who, at any time by their conduct, character, or from other causes, are not likely to benefit the service by their retention in Schools of Instruction, reporting each case to Head Quarters.

Courses of Instruction.

531. Ten officers and twenty non-commissioned officers or men (previously recommended) are authorized to join each Cavalry, Artillery and Infantry School for a "Short Course" of instruction, to last three months; on the termination of which the Commandant of the School may select from these officers and non-commissioned officers, one or more of the most efficient and retain them for a "Long Course," being an additional period of twelve months, but in no case is the establishment to be exceeded.

(2.) In order to afford all the facilities possible Commandants of Schools may, without reference to Head Quarters, permit officers, non-commissioned officers and men belonging to the Active Militia who prefer to reside at their homes or in lodgings, to receive instruction in their respective Schools by daily attendance thereat, during specified hours; but it is to be understood that no person attached for instruction who does not reside in barracks, will receive either transport, pay, rations or any other allowance to be made a charge against the public.

The number authorized to receive instruction with permission to reside at their homes or in lodgings, may be in addition to the ten officers and twenty non commissioned officers or men authorized to be "attached for instruction."
