36	Veuve St. Germain, of St. Denis. The evidence in this case not being yet complete, it will form part of a supplementary Report.
37	Elizabeth & Therese St. Germain, of St. Denis - - - This case is well made out by evidence. The claimants are two single ladies, who supported an aged mother, eighty-four years old. They lived a very retired life, and had no connexion with politics. It is presumed that it was owing to their name that their house and property were burned by the troops in December last.	209 12 5	184 15 5
38	Luther Sawtell, merchant, of Montreal - - - - This is a claim for the value of certain property in the claimant's store at St. Denis (consisting principally of liquors), which was destroyed by order of the officer in command of a portion of the Queen's troops, in order to prevent the soldiers drinking the same, at St. Denis, in December last. The claimant is a person of unquestionable loyalty, and the case is made out in the most satisfactory manner.	172 3 10	172 3 10
39	Louise Bouvier, of St. Ours - - - - - This is a poor woman, some of whose clothes were taken during the march of the troops through the village of St. Ours.	2 7 1	2 7 1
40	Antoine Daigle, of St. Denis - - - - - Evidence was taken in this case; but it appearing to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the claimant did not come within the terms of the Ordinance, the claim is rejected.	227 - 10
41	Michel Godard, of St. Ours - - - - - This is a claim for a piece of cloth taken by the troops or their followers, on their march through the village.	3 10 -	3 10 -
42	François Xavier Lavigne, of St. Ours - - - - The claim is for damage done to a schooner by the Queen's forces. It appears that the boat was seized by Wolfred Nelson, without the consent of the claimant, and moored in the River Richelieu, opposite the house of Madame St. Germain, then occupied by the rebels. Major Reid, of the 32d, declared that the troops had been fired upon from this boat, and it was partially burned. The claim is for the repairs, and the claimant having proved his loyalty, it is admitted, with some deduction.	58 1 6	54 6 8
43	Julien Lebœuf, of St. Ours - - - - - This is a good claim (a small reduction made) for damage done to claimant's house and effects, on the return of the troops under Colonel Gore, after the action at St. Denis. The claimant deserves honourable mention, for having protected and attended two wounded soldiers, who were left behind at St. Ours on the 23d November last.	34 17 7	32 5 2
44	Louis Moge, of St. Ours - - - - - This claim is rejected, the claimant not coming within the terms of the Ordinance.	54 3 5
45	Joseph Jermain, of St. Ours - - - - - This claim is rejected, the claimant not coming within the terms of the Ordinance.	12 10 -
46	Germain, Richard, of St. Ours. The evidence in this case not being complete, the award will be contained in a future Report.
