PUBLISHER'S TALK

AS next Monday will be a Scottish anniversary, St. Andrew's Day, this issue of the "Canadian Courier" contains a historic article, "The Last of the La Guayrians," the account of an early Guelph settlement, which will be especially interesting to all Scottish-Canadians. The writer, Mr. C. C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, is an enthusiastic student of Canadian history and is known in scholarly circles of the Dominion for his patient research and luminous presentation of historic results.

THE second issue after this will be our Christmas number. We hope that it will be found satisfactory. It may not compare with some of the fifty-cent Christmas numbers but it will be a full ten-cents' worth. The contents will be lighter than usual and the whole number will be put together with a view to producing a Canadian souvenir suitable for sending abroad.

WITH next week's issue, we begin Volume Five. We have some regrets about the first four volumes, but no excuses to offer. We are proud of the sympathy and support which have made the impossible possible.

HAVE you sent in your ballot for "Canada's Ten Big Men"? They have been coming in fast, and the standing will be found on page twenty-five.

Stephens' Inks

are stocked in Montreal and Toronto, and all orders from the trade posted to "Stephens' Inks, Montreal" will be promptly supplied.

There is NO EXCUSE for being "OUT of STOCK."

KEEP IT IN FORCE

In the first place be sure you put your life insurance in a

SOUND AND GOOD COMPANY
AND THEN DO NOT ALLOW IT TO LAPSE!

You cannot do so without loss and you may be prevented, later on, by poor health from re-instating it. You did a wise thing when you took out a policy in

Keep it in force at any sacrifice. It may be, some day, (no one knows how soon), not only

"Glad News in a Sorry Season" but the chief support of those who now make home the dearest and sweetest spot on earth. Stand by your policy. It is the anchor of the Home!
