Ottawa, January 17, 1926.

Dear Dr. Tolmie:

Attached is copy of telegram received from L.J. Fallis, and copy of my reply. I would suggest in your reply you say something to the effect that as between various local Conservative associations you never decide questions of priority; that all are welcome, and all are treated cordially by the leaders and general organisers of the party.

Yours very truly,

Hon. Dr. S.F. Tolmie, M.P., House of Commons,
Ottawa, Ont.
