

of $ 252 <sup>88</sup>/<sub>100</sub>, with which to pay
the following accounts:

Mr Sprafford Barker
for Supplies $132:88
Mr Everett for seed supplied 100.00
Mr Brayne for Medicines 20.00
Total $ 252.88

Should you have any claim beyond the amount above stated, you should forward details, and at the same time explain how it occurs that you still claim, notwithstanding the payment of $ 132 <sup>88</sup>/<sub>100</sub> a balance of $ 113 <sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub>.

I have to remark that in your letter of the 17th Jan'y