Dear Willie, —

At last I'm writing to you to thank you for the very pleasant surprise which came to me from you on my birthday. I don't think I've ever had a telegram before in my life and I was thrilled. It was sweet of you to send it but it's still a birthday. I had a few friends here when the telegram arrived and it excited quite a stir. Another young person who was delighted in a similar manner by Willie Willie was Henry J. We certainly have appreciated everything you've
