- Q. What sex was the civilian?
A. He was a man.

JA: I suggest to you that your male civilian witnesses be brought in here and maybe the witness can recognize him. Say who they are and ask him?

(All male civilian witnesses are brought into the Court)

Prosecutor continues

- Q. Will you look here please? Do you recognize any of these civilians?
A. I am not sure enough.

(Civilians withdraw from the Court)

Prosecutor continues

- Q. What happened then when you come into the kitchen and found this civilian?
A. When the accused saw that civilian the civilian had alongside of him a young kid (meaning "kid" a young goat).

- Q. What happened then?
A. Then Pte Brisson asked that civilian to reserve that goat for himself till the evening of the next day, that he would come back at that time for it.

- Q. In what language did he ask that?
A. In English.

- Q. What took place after that?
A. The civilian didn't seem to agree with him, from where I stood I signified to him to agree.

- Q. And then what happened?
A. We then crossed the kitchen and came into another apartment which was the living room with a piano.

- Q. Was the other Regimental Police accompanying you and Brisson all the time?
A. Yes sir.

- Q. What took place in the lounge?
A. Nothing special, happened because I cannot remember of anything.

- Q. What happened after that?
A. From that apartment we took the same way back and left the house through the rear door.

- Q. What happened once you were out?
A. In the backyard I found on the ground a Sten Gun.

- Q. And what did you do with that?
A. I showed the weapon to the other RP, Pte St. Pierre, who picked it up.

- Q. This Sten Gun that you saw there, in what condition was it, how was it?

- A. The Sten Gun was in disorderly condition, the magazine being apart and being tied up to the body by means of a strap.
