

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—continued.

Negligence of constable in driving motor ambulance in carrying injured person to hospital—Damages—Liability of city—Liability of police commissioners—Liability of individual members of board	94
Non-payment of taxes—Arrest—Contention that tax-rate not made up as required by statute—Burden of proof	450
Powers—"Charitable" aid—Catholic army huts—Budget	147
Powers of—Only those delegated by express words, or necessary implication	351
Taxes—Notices—Validity of assessment—Assessment committee—Tax roll—Preparation of	482
Town Act (Sask.)—Exercise of powers under—Injurious affection of property—Damages	597

NEGLIGENCE—

Loan company advisory board—Duty to investigate applications—Liability of company	346
Municipal corporation—Drainage—Damage to property—Extraordinary rainfall	755
Of constable driving motor ambulance—Liability of city for damages	94
Railway and traffic bridge—Railway part not floored—Trespasser falling through—Death—Damages	701
Towage—Defective steering gear—Inevitable accident	392
Tug and tow—Snowstorm—Collision—Inevitable accident	402

NEW TRIAL—

Criminal law—Trial judge—Jurisdiction to grant	488
Malicious prosecution—Error of judge in instructing jury as to malice	574

PARTIES—

Company—Winding up—Judgment—Person privy in estate to party litigant	585
Foreign insurance company—General agent—Action to restrain from applying for registration—Company a necessary party	32

PATENTS—

New invention—Adaptation of old device—Seam in overalls	757
Place of manufacture—Assembling of parts—New invention	367
Process patent—Importation—Anticipation	756

PENALTIES—

Contract—Sale of land—Breach	1
------------------------------------	---

PLEADING—

Demand for further particulars—Order by master—Refusal to set case down for trial	747
Judgment for money had and received—Claim of trust—Amendment of claim necessary to maintain judgment—Statute of Limitations complete answer—Right of defendant to plead statute	406