

Bags, straps &c. under a penalty of ten shillings, with two Bags, to be made of raven's duck, one and a half yards long, with proper strings for tying or closing them, and with two straps sufficiently long to enable him to throw the same over his shoulder, the owner's name to be in black letters on one side, and Heart and Hand Fire Company, in black letters on the other side lengthwise; also with two Buckets and a Cap: the Buckets to contain three gallons each; to be painted black with the owner's name in white letters on the side near the bottom, with a figure of a Heart and Hand directly over it: the Heart to be painted red, the hand flesh colour, and reclining on the heart; the Cap to be made of leather, with a helmet top seven inches high, the brim three inches in front, and a circular flap behind, to fall six inches below the cape of the coat, to be painted black, with the figure of a Heart and Hand in front. There shall be furnished, at the expense of this Company, six Lanthorns and six Bed Keys: the rims of the Lanthorns to be painted red, with the words "Heart and Hand Fire Company," and numbered; the Bed-keys to be marked Heart & Hand, and also numbered. They shall be delivered to the Members appointed by the President to take charge of them. All the foregoing articles shall be kept together in the most convenient part of the House in which the Member resides, and never to be used or removed except on an alarm of Fire, under a penalty of five shillings. The holders of Lanthorns shall keep two candles of not less than six inches in length, constantly in them, under a fine of two shillings and six pence, and they shall bring them, together with the Bed Keys, at the Annual Meeting in February, under a penalty of two shillings and six pence. And any Member refusing to take charge of any of those articles, shall pay a fine of two shillings and six pence for every refusal. Should any of the Buckets, Bags, Caps, Lanthorns, or Bed Keys, be lost or damaged at a Fire, the owner or holder shall give notice to the Secretary within fourteen days after such loss or damage, under a penalty of ten shillings, and when such notice is received by the Secretary, he shall give orders to have the same replaced or repaired at the expense of the company, within one month after such loss or damage.
