Grand Trunk Have Placed Free Libraries on Trains

The Grand Trunk Railway System has installed a free library service on all its through trains, arrangements having been made with the Booklover's Library, of Philadelphia, for a supply of the latest works.

Eight cars are to be fitted up with between 25 to 50 books in each, and these will be at the disposal of all passengers on cafe-parlor and Pullman cars.

The service was inaugurated May 22nd, and the first car to be so equipped was No. 3906. This car was attached to the "International Limited," which leaves Bonaventure station at 9 a.m. for Chicago.

Other trains to follow in quick succession will be the through trains between Toronto and Buffalo, those between New York and Chicago, and between Buffalo and Muskoka.

The books will be free to passengers in the cafe-parlor or Pullman cars. But a feature which will appeal to the travelling public is that subscribers to the Booklover's Library will be given the privilege of exchanging their books while travelling on the trains. Others will, of course, merely have the use of the books while pursuing their journey.

While the free library service has become a very popular factor in Western transportation, the G. T. R. is the first line in Canada to adopt the principle.

A catalogue will be issued, giving a list of the books and distributed on the trains for the information of the patrons.

Each set of the books will be changed every three months, so that passengers can always obtain the latest literature on G. T. R. trains.

Under the arrangement effected with the Philadelphia firm, the authorities of the G. T. R. expect to have plenty of books in order to meet the varied tastes of the patrons of that line.

LOSS OF APPETITE.
A person that has lost appetite has lost something besides—vitality, vigor, tone.

The way to recover appetite and all that goes with it is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion and makes eating a pleasure.

Thousands take it for spring loss of appetite and everybody says there's nothing else so good as Hood's.

It is not nice in a man to point out to a woman the mistakes she may make.

$100 REWARD, $109.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

The Story of Irish Poplin.

The story of Irish poplin is a curious one. Lady Carew was to be presented at the court of Louis Philippe. She took with her to Paris a length of Irish poplin, which was then first being made in Belfast. It was of a creamy white, embroidered all over with little dots and sprigs of gold. Lady Carew took it to a Parisian dressmaker, and the modiste went into ecstasies over it. On her way up the stairs to the reception rooms at the Tuilleries Lady Carew felt a pull at her dress. Afraid of pickpockets, she turned quickly. "I beg a thousand pardons," said a splendidly dressed woman who stood behind her, "but would you tell me what your dress is made of? I never saw anything so exquisite in my life."

A dozen times that evening Lady Carew had a similar experience, and the result was one of the most extraordinary crazes for poplin that ever was experienced for any new fabric. One Irish firm sold $24,000 worth of the material within a year, and three large Belfast houses are said to have founded their present large fortunes on Irish poplin.

Tobacco Worth Its Weight in Silver.

In England the first pipes used appear to have been made of clay, with narrow bowls and contracted mouths. Then as the habit grew stronger and tobacco became cheaper something more capacious would be required. These are the pipes which under the name of "fairy pipes" are sometimes dug up and preserved as interesting relics of the past. Aubrey, writing about 1680, says: "The English people first had silver pipes, but the ordinary sort made use of walnut shell and straw. I have heard my grandfather say that one pipe was handed from man to man round the table. Within these thirty-five years 'twas scandalous for a divine to take tobacco. It was then sold for its weight in silver. I have heard some of our old yeoman neighbours say that when they went to market they culled out their biggest shillings to lay in the scales against tobacco. Now the customers of it are the greatest his majesty hath."

Playing Cards in Russia.

In Russia the manufacture of playing cards is an imperial monopoly. In 1888 14,000 packs were issued daily, but the demand was so much in excess of this that petition was addressed to the czar praying for a still more liberal supply. Among the card devotees the Russian soldiers are conspicuous. They commonly carry packs in their pockets, but when there is an actual call to arms and they prepare themselves for the battlefield they make it a point to get rid of all their cards. This is due to a superstition amounting to conviction, which leads them to believe that to retain them upon their persons at such a time would be to court grave disaster.

How to Preserve Leaves and Plants.

To preserve leaves and other parts of plants properly they should be placed between sheets of blotting paper, and the papers should be changed once a day for two or three days. They should be dried as rapidly as possible by passing a warm fission over the paper each time the change is made. They should be kept under moderate pressure at first, and to insure even pressing it will be well to place a stiff piece of cardboard or strawboard at intervals between the sheets. When the drying appears to be well advanced, the pressure on the specimens may be increased.

Curious Rent.

At Broughton, near Briggs, in Lincolnshire, England, some lands are held by the following tenure: "Every year on Palm Sunday a person from Broughton enters the church porch at Caister having a green silk purse containing 2s. and a penny tied as at the end of a cart whip, which he cracks three times in the porch and stays there until the second lesson begins. Then he enters the church and cracks the whip again, finally depositing the purse and contents."

Long People Are Seldom Fat.

Some persons are born with a normal tendency to become fat, others with a tendency to leanness. It is the same among the lower animals. The hog is a sort of machine for transforming the odds and ends of food into fat, but the farmer knows beforehand that a little pig with long legs and snout will work off the fat as fast as it can be made. So a long legged person seldom inclines to obesity.

A Quaint Epitaph.

The following epitaph is from a monument in a cemetery in New York, N. Y.:
Here lies the body of
John Black,
Aged 46.
That cherry tree of luscious fruit
Beguiled him up too high;
The branch did break and down he fell
And broke his neck and died.
Also three infant children.

A Self-Possessed Witness.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle told at the literary dinner recently given to him in London of his experience as a juror in his youth.

"I once served on a jury out of curiosity," he said, "and what most impressed me in that business was the high-handed manner of the cross-examinations. There was one witness, though, a dentist, whom no browbeating cross-examiner could disturb."

"This dentist was being questioned about a certain woman."

"Did you ever have any difference with the lady?" the opposing lawyer asked.

"No, sir," replied the dentist.

"Now, attend. Didn't you make her a set of teeth once?"

"Yes, sir."

"Didn't she return them?"

"No sir."

"The lawyer glared. Then he resumed:

"But you admit, don't you, that later on she had another set made by another dentist?"

"Oh, yes, I admit that," said the witness.

"Ah! You admit that. And the lady is wearing that other set now, is she not?"

"Yes, she is wearing it."

"And she has discarded your set?"

"No."

"What? Do you mean to tell me she is wearing both sets at the same time?"

"Yes, I do."

"Pooh! Nonsense! How can that possibly be?"

"Why, one is a lower and the other is an upper set," said the dentist.

The Earnings of Acrobats.

The old fable that the work of the circus and music hall artists is paid for by "starvation wages" holds good no longer, as may be seen by the following statistics recently collected: The monthly earnings of a lady circus rider vary from $75 to $100, while those of the haute école often earn $150. A clown's earnings average from $35 and $40 to $75 to $100. No performer on the tight rope "works" for less than from $50 to $70 a month. Engagements of these artists, it seems, are always made and wages paid by the month. Carpet acrobats earn from $100 to $110. Even second rate performers on the horizontal bar receive $125 to $150, while masters of the art earn as much as $250, and jugglers on the tight rope or on horseback are the best paid of all, earning often as much as $300 a month. Unfortunately the majority of these artists spend their money far more rapidly than they acquire it by no means easy art.—Westminster Gazette.

Sir George White's Elevation.

The elevation of Sir George White to the rank of Field Marshal puts Ireland in the position of furnishing three Field Marshals to the British army, or four if the Duke of Connaught is included. This is probably unparalleled in the annals of the army. Then Sir T. Kelly-Kenny, an Irishman, is Adjutant-General; Sir Ian Hamilton, a Scotsman, is Quartermaster-General, and Sir Edward Ward, Permanent Under Secretary of the War Office, is also a north countryman. And Lord Kitchener, the Indian Commander-in-Chief, is of Irish birth. When one takes stock of the Cabinet, with its four Scotsmen and three Irishmen, the Archbishop, both Scotsmen, and so on it must be admitted that Lord Salisbury's "Celtic fringe" looks as if it intended to become the entire mantle of State. The navy has been purely English up to very recently, but even in that chosen domain an Irishman is now head of the fleet which defends the Channel.

A Fable of the King.

Even Kings are not exempt from the foibles of ordinary mankind, and here is an interesting sidelight of a little weakness of our own good King Edward VII., writes the London correspondent of The New York Commercial. A certain royal lady was at an afternoon tea-party, and one of the guests told a decidedly amusing story.

"Oh!" cried the lady in question, clapping her hands, "that is capital! I must tell it to the King."

"No," she added, after a moment's reflection, "I won't, for if one tells the King a good story, he forgets in a day or two that it was told to him, and goes about repeating it to everyone as his own."

R. S. RUTHERFORD KILLED.

Had Been Missing From His Home on Borden Street, Toronto.

Toronto, June 6.—The dead body of Richard G. Rutherford, one of the oldest employees of Oak Hall, was found yesterday afternoon beside the railway tracks opposite High Park. The head was severed from the body, and it was apparent that Mr. Rutherford had been killed by a passing train. The remains were removed to A. M. Craig & Co.'s undertaking rooms, Queen street west. Coroner R. B. Orr opened an inquest at No. 6 station, and after the body had been viewed, the jury adjourned to meet again to-night.

Mrs. Barotole Cardella.

"I have suffered with Rheumatism for fourteen years, principally in the arms and shoulders. I was particularly tortured during the changes of the weather, and my hands would swell up so that I could not close them. I tried many different remedies, but it did not seem to do me any good. One vial of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is all I have taken, and the pains are completely gone."—Mrs. Barotole Cardella, 344 Dundas street, London, Ont.

Your druggist will recommend Munyon's Rheumatism Cure; ask him about it. Only 25c a vial.
