

and Officers of the Garrison, together with a large number of ladies and gentlemen, friends of those competing, being present at the opening, as well as on the subsequent days, watched the proceedings with evident interest. The meeting was also attended by Colonel ROBERTSON ROSS, the Adjutant General of Militia, whose presence afforded both gratification and encouragement to the Volunteers present.

The Council refer with deep regret to the death of the late Lt.-General Sir C. WINDHAM, and they feel that the Association will join with them in fully acknowledging the support which he afforded to the Association and the Volunteers in general, and the interest he took in all their proceedings.

The Secretary's Report, together with a list of the matches, detail of scores, etc., is herewith appended.

The Council tender their thanks to Lt.-Col. MACPHERSON, for the performance of his duties as Treasurer, etc., and to the Secretary, Lt.-Col. STUART, for his indefatigable services as Secretary.
