We are sorry to hear that the Rev. G. A. Rix has resigned Cannington, but wish him every success in his new charge.

The Church of England Temperance Society will have an excursion so Sturgeon Point on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 19th, (D.V.) and would like to have as many of their friends accompany them as possible. The fare is only ten and twenty cents.

Sixteen members of St. Paul's Sunday school passed the Entrance Examinations to the Collegiate Institute last month. This out of a total of between 60 and 70, is a very good showing. We congratulate our young people, and trust that their lives may be very useful ones.

Mr. David Browne, whose death we this month mourn was for some time churchwarden of St. Paul's and took a most active part in the building of both church and Sunday school. So many of our older members are being called away.
