

A HERALD MELODY OF SPRING.

“SPRING-TIME: THE ONLY PRETTY RING-TIME.”

EDITED BY

CHARLES PETERS,

Editor of "A Crown of Flowers," "The Girl's Own Outdoor Book," etc.

THIS NEW AND HANDSOME VOLUME FOR EVERY TRUE LOVER OF NATURE IS NOW READY.

THIS work treats of the various aspects of the country during the enchanting months of Spring. Every pent-up City worker longs to be out in the open—"away from the dwellings of care-worn men"—and it is hoped that this volume will come to him like a breath of the fields, or like the scent of the pines drawn forth by the warmth of the Spring sunshine.

The following are some of the Contributors:—

JOHN ALLEN, Mrs. ELIZA BRIGHTWEN, Author of "Wild Nature Won by Kindness," HELEN MARION BURNSIDE, AGNES GIBERNE, the Rev. NEWMAN HALL, D.D., MARY ROWLES JARVIS, FRED. MILLER, G. CLARKE NUTTALL, B.Sc., J. A. OWEN, Editor of "A Son of the Marshes," the late Sir BENJAMIN WARD RICHARDSON, JESSIE M. E. SAXBY, GORDON STABLES, M.D., CLARA THWAITES, HARRISON WEIR, and many others

Profusely Illustrated from Drawings and Paintings by

JOHN ALLEN, ALLAN BARRAUD, W. H. J. BOOT, Mrs. BRIGHTWEN, W. J. HENNESSY, DAVIDSON KNOWLES, G. E. LODGE, FRED. MILLER, W. R. FAIRFAX MÜCKLEY, HENRY RYLAND, GEORGE L. SEYMOUR, PERCY TARRANT, MARCELLA WALKER, HARRISON WEIR, CHARLES WHYMPER, E. WILSON, and many others.

Handsomely Bound, Price SEVEN SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

"This is a handsome volume, in which the sights and sounds of spring, the beasts and birds and other living creatures which it calls into fresh activities, the foliage of trees, the blossoming of flowers, and other like things, are gracefully described by pen and pencil."—Spectator.

"A really beautiful book. The splendid illustrations, the beautiful frontispiece in colours, and the very handsome binding make it very suitable for a present."—The Freeman.
