The effect of Electricity upon the weak, debilitated man is the same as rain upon the parched field in summer. He may be debilitated from varicocele, losses, impotency; may have confusion of ideas; fear to act and decide; gloomy forebodings, timid and fretful; avoid friends and company; without confidence in himself to face the slightest responsibility, and let him properly apply Electricity for but a few hours and all these symptoms vanish. A few weeks to a couple of months' use of this treatment banish them forever, and make strong, confident, manly men out of the puniest weaklings. For nearly forty years'I have treated and restored weak men through my world-famed invention, and am still doing so with greater success than ever. In fact, I do not expect to fail in any case of this kind, and therefore, as most men are more or less sceptical, I will continue to give my Herculex

Dr. Sanden Electric Belt Free Until Cured.

Not one cent is to be paid me in advance or on deposit. Call or write and get the belt, and use, say, for sixty days, and if cured pay me price of belt only-most cases low as $4; if not cured return the belt and the deal is ended. But I know what the belt will do, and will take the risk of my pay when you are cured. I also give my belts on same terms in Rheumatism, Lame Back, Stomach, Kidney and Liver Complaints, etc.

Office Hours: 9 to 6. Saturdays until 9 p.m.

As the originator and founder of the electric belt system of treatment, my forty years' success is the envy of many, and my belts of course are imitated. (What good thing is not?) But my great knowledge to advise and direct my patients is mine alone, and free to all who use my belt until cure is complete.

What would you not give to have your old vim back again? What would you not sacrifice to feel as you did a few years ago; to have the same snap and energy; the same gladsome, joyous, light-hearted spirit and the physical strength you used to have? You know you are not the same man, and you know you would like to be. You might as well be. It's easy. I am making men out of wrecks every day, and the above offer must convince you what I feel I can do for you.

Call or send to-day for my belt; or, if you want to look further into the matter, I have the best two little books ever written upon Electricity and its medical uses, and send them free, sealed, upon request.

THE SPICE OF LIFE.

The late Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, once wrote to a friend who was ill with something at first supposed to be appendicitis, but was afterwards discovered to be indigestion, that he was glad to hear that his trouble was in his table of contents and not in his appendix.

A traveller, domiciled at a Far West hotel, exclaimed one morning to the waiter: "What are you about, you black rascal? You have roused me twice from my sleep by telling me breakfast is ready, and now you are attempting to strip off the bed clothes. What do you mean?" "Why," replied Pompey, "if you isn't goin' to git up, I must hab de sheet, anyhow, 'cause dey's waitin' for the tableclof."

The wife of an Irish landlord lost her purse in the Ladies' Gallery of the House of Commons. Mrs. Gladstone, who had been sitting near her, after kindly assisting in the ineffectual search, observed:

"I hope there was not much in it." "No; it was a nice little purse I had had for a long time; but, thanks to your husband, there was nothing in it."

" Are you the 'Answers to Correspondents' man?" inquired the dyspeptic-looking caller. "I am," replied the gentleman addressed. "What can I do for you?" "Firstly, what will dissolve a chunk of lead in the human stomach? Secondly, won't you please refrain from publishing recipes for plum pudding here-

Not long ago a pair of rooks built their nest in one of a cluster of trees in a gentleman's grounds. The owner was delighted at the prospect of having a rookery practically at his back door, but the farmer who owned the surrounding land didn't look at the matter in the same light.

The farmer was no great lover of rooks, and he gave his sons orders to 'pot 'em'' at the first opportunity. One norning the farmer received this note rom his neighbor:

"Sir,-I wish your boys would let my rooks alone. I'm trying to make a ookery."

The farmer altered three words and returned the note.

"Sir,-I wish your rooks would let my crops alone. I'm trying to make a living.'

Mrs. MacCarthy had a son, a small proprietor, and he got married. The mother-in-law lived with the daughter-inlaw, who had rather grand ideas, and set up as a parlormaid in the house a raw ass just taken from the dairy. One afternoon old Mrs. MacCarthy saw the parish priest coming to call, and told the girl if he asked for Mrs. MacCarthy to say she was not in, but the dowager was. Now, the maid had never heard the word "dowager" in her life; but she thought she would make a shot for it. So when his reverence asked if Mrs. Mac-Carthy was at home, she blurted out: " No, sir; but the badger is."

And to her dying day the relict of the deceased MacCarthy went by the name of 'the badger.''

HIS MOVING PLANTATION.

"I was at Memphis, lending money to planters for eastern parties," said the judge, "and one day a planter who had more than a mile front on the Mississippi came in to see me about making a raise of several thousand dollars. After some talk it was arranged that he should send on his titles for inspection, but after four or five days he wrote me:

" 'Yesterday the river cut 50 acres of land off my property, and I suppose I'll have to get the papers fixed up before sending them on.'

" I replied to him, and a week later he wrote me:

"' Last night the river cut in on me again and took my whole plantation across into Arkansas. I suppose I'll have to get the deeds made out accordingly.'

"But the papers never came," continued the judge. Two weeks passed, and then I got a letter saying:

" ' Never mind about that loan. The river has cut in on me again and carried my plantation 75 miles down stream, and I'll try to borrow the money elsewhere and not bother you any more."
