

II. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall enjoy all the powers and privileges now enjoyed by them by law, and shall be subject to all the same duties and responsibilities that they are now subject to by law, in extending their works, pipes or mains beyond the said limits under the authority of this Act; the Municipality into whose jurisdiction they may so enter, being substituted in all suitable cases for the Municipality of the City of Toronto.

Powers and privileges of the Company extended to such new works.

III. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, body or bodies, whether principals or workmen, or party employing such, shall, within or beyond the limits of the said City of Toronto, join or connect any pipe to the main or service pipes of the said Company, or shall, in any way, join or connect any pipe for the supply of any light or burner, to any pipe whatever containing Gas, or used to contain or convey Gas, without having first received the consent of the Company or their Manager or Clerk in writing, then such person or persons, or party employing such shall, for every offence, forfeit and pay to the said Company the sum of Twenty-five Pounds currency, and also a further sum of One Pound for each day such pipe shall so remain, or be imprisoned for the term of two calendar months in the Common Gaol of the County, on being convicted thereof by any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Penalty on persons using Gas without leave, by joining pipes to mains, &c.

Further penalty per diem.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Company to buy, sell or dispose of in any way, any coal, surplus coal, or coal required for making Gas, or not found to answer for making Gas, and to buy, sell, lease or hire all meters, interior or service pipes, mains or Gas fittings, Lamps or Gas apparatus, and to employ the necessary workmen for putting up fittings generally.

Company may buy and sell certain things.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be held to be a Public Act.

CAP. CXLI.
