

QUARTER MILE BEHIND, ITALIAN COLLAPSES IN 26th MILE AND LONGBOAT TAKES GREAT RACE

Both Runners Maintain Terrific Pace Almost Side by Side Throughout Nearly the Entire Distance — Italian Again Overtakes His Strength and Saggers and Drops Within Sight of Goal — Longboat's Time 2, 45, 05 2-5

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 15.—As on that memorable occasion of his first Olympiad, Dorando Pietri collapsed within sight of the goal tonight and Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, who had been led by a yard or more nearly all the way, won the marathon race at Madison Square Garden.

The race was hard-fought from start to finish and kept the thousands of spectators in wild excitement. At 26 miles Dorando was leading by two yards. A moment before Longboat had made a remarkable spurt and put himself on an even footing with the Italian. Dorando immediately regained first position and the men were fighting it out in the 26th mile with Dorando in the lead but visibly weaker.

Chances Improved
The chances of Longboat appeared to improve in the second and third laps. In the fourth lap, while the crowd was crying itself hoarse, both men slackened perceptibly. Then suddenly Dorando staggered and dropped. Longboat finished alone. His time for the distance of 26 miles, 385 yards was 2:45:05 2-5.

Slower Than The Other
The time was 35-5 seconds slower than the mark established by Dorando when he defeated Hayes over the same track three weeks ago. It was a grueling race for nearly 26 miles, the Italian generally in the lead, but occasionally overhauled by a wonderful spurt on the part of the Indian. The men started away at a brisk clip, Dorando at once establishing a lead of nearly two yards. Longboat had won the pole position and pushed the other no hard in the first few minutes of the race that at the end of five miles the Dorando-Hayes record for the distance had been beaten by nearly a minute. Later the men slowed up and for many miles they kept the same relative position in slower time. Then Longboat spurred and repeated these tactics until they had a plainly evident effect on the Italian.

Held His Advantage
Dorando nevertheless held his advantage until the last lap of the 14th mile, when Longboat took the lead and increased the pace a little. He finished the fourteen miles in 1 minute 18-5 seconds ahead of the Dorando-Hayes record. Longboat's effort proved to be spasmodic and Dorando easily passed him in the 18th mile. Longboat showed signs of fatigue in the 17th mile, but kept on doggedly within striking distance of the Italian. In the 23rd mile Longboat shot ahead and dropped into a natural jog which kept him in the lead for five laps. Then Dorando, amid cheers, forged ahead. Again in the 23rd mile the Indian made a sensational spurt and gained the lead. In the second lap of the 24th mile Dorando regained his advantage. Both men moved more slowly and showed weariness. In the beginning of the 26th mile Longboat sprinted and the Italian went to the rear. In the middle of the mile and when a quarter of a lap behind Dorando fell to the ground, it was necessary to pick him up and carry him to his dressing-room.

THUNDERER IS REALLY SORRY

OTTAWA, Dec. 15.—The Thunderer has publicly retracted its insinuations made against the integrity of the Canadian National Transcontinental commissioners in an article written by its special correspondent in Canada and published in London on the eve of the general elections here. The action of the commission in placing the matter in the hands of Sir Charles Russell, Canada's legal agent in London, with the request that he take all necessary steps to vindicate the commission against all attacks in the London Times, or any other British paper reflecting on the integrity of the commissioners or their officials has resulted in the following apologetic paragraph, headed "The Canadian Elections": "In the Times under date of December 12th our attention has been called by Hon. Simon N. Parent, K. C., the chairman of the Transcontinental Railway commission of Canada, to a certain cable sent us by one of our Canadian correspondents and appearing in the Times of October 24th and the Mail of October 26th. We desire to say that this message was not intended to convey the slightest reflection upon the commissioners or on their integrity. We ourselves do not regard the dispatch as containing any such reflection and we regret that anybody should put any such construction upon it. A cable conveying news to the above effect was received this morning by Hon. Mr. Parent from Sir Charles Russell. The latter has a standing commission to institute prompt legal action against any British paper reflecting on the integrity of the commissioners or their officials has resulted in the following apologetic paragraph, headed "The Canadian Elections": "In the Times under date of December 12th our attention has been called by Hon. Simon N. Parent, K. C., the chairman of the Transcontinental Railway commission of Canada, to a certain cable sent us by one of our Canadian

TWO PROMINENT HOUSES SUFFER BY THIS BLAZE

MONTREAL, Dec. 15.—A fire which broke out at 3.30 this afternoon did actual fire damage estimated at $50,000 to the Birks building on Phillips square, though the loss to the firms located in the building will likely greatly exceed this amount, the greater part being due to the ruining of the Christmas trade. The principal sufferers in this respect are Henry Birks & Sons, Ltd., jewelers, and Wm. Notman & Son, photographers, the two most important establishments of their class in Canada.

The Birks firm occupied the entire ground floor of the building as their show rooms, and about half of this was damaged by water, while the Notman galleries, located in the upper floors, were badly damaged by fire, smoke and water. The fire also did some damage to a portion of the Birks factory, but the monetary portion of this being located in the lower half of the building escaped without much damage. The Birks firm carried insurance of a little over $600,000 on the building, stock, machinery, etc., while the damage of the Notman firm, placed at $20,000, is fully covered.

A spectacular feature was the rescue of six girls from the upper part of the building by the firemen. Escape was cut off by the stairs and the girls were carried down extension ladders by the firemen. The little baby belonging to the janitor was also rescued in a similar manner. The loss tonight is estimated at $100,000.

JULES MASSENET, COMPOSER

His "Thais" and "Le Jongleur de Notre Dame," produced by Oscar Hammerstein recently, have added greatly to his fame.

Lowell's Mayor, Conqueror of Corruption, Reaches City

George H. Brown, Lowell's policeman mayor, arrived in St. John yesterday on the steam, Calvin Austin, accompanied by Winifred C. MacBrayne of the Boston Herald staff. To a Sun reporter who met him at the dock, Mr. Brown said that his present trip to New Brunswick was simply for rest and to visit his mother, who resides at Jordan Mountain, Kings Co., N. B., where his worship will write his inaugural address.

Mr. Brown was born at Waterville, Me., in 1877, and is therefore 31 years of age. He has been a member of the Lowell police force for the past eight years, and prior to that served two years in the Spanish-American war. The present mayor-elect first came into prominence in 1904, when the electors of Lowell voted for the no-license law. He was during that year a member of the liquor squad, whose duty it was to report a violation of the liquor law. Acting in his official capacity he made a great many sensational arrests, among them being many prominent hotel and saloon men. Many attempts were made to turn the policeman from his purpose, and bribes of every description were offered, but without avail.

Realizing that their efforts to turn Mr. Brown away from the path of duty were useless the liquor people resorted to the influence of the police commission, and so great was it that Mr. Brown was removed from his position and given a best on the outskirts of the city.

THOROUGHLY DISGUSTED.
About eight months ago Mr. Brown, who had become thoroughly disgusted with the amount of graft and corruption in civic circles and in the liquor department in particular, decided to enter the mayoralty contest this fall, although he said nothing of his intentions at that time. Some few weeks ago he applied for and received two weeks' leave of absence in order to see if he could get the nomination for the position of chief magistrate. At that time his purpose was considered in the light of a joke by the city officials, but after a few days canvass the police department became alarmed by the success of his campaign as well as by the disclosures he made, and revoked his leave of absence and summoned him to appear before them. He promptly refused, and 100 policemen were detailed to find him but did not succeed. This affair brought him at once into the limelight and was of the best advertisement he received during the campaign. After two days he appeared before the police commission of his own accord and then, told them that he was prepared to have every one of the statements he had made and was determined to make several others. This statement startled them so that they became afraid to revoke his leave of absence and he continued his campaign.

Mr. Brown's campaign fund consisted of the enormous sum of $15, which he spent in procuring a supply of cards. He also stated at the beginning of his campaign that he had no money as he was determined that his election should be a clean one. All the influence and wealth of the corruption and graft party were then turned against him, and almost every available meeting place in the city secured by them. Notwithstanding this drawback and also the fact that every paper in the city was in opposition to him, Mr. Brown went about his campaign in a determined manner, speaking from the top of lunch wagons, steps of public buildings and at the mill gates. On one occasion while addressing a meeting in a hall, he was tackled in the pay of the graft party attempted to disturb the meeting.

STILL A POLICEMAN.
Mr. Brown from the platform reminded the disbelievers that he was still a policeman and that the first person who disturbed the meeting would be placed under arrest.

Every means was used by his opponents and the press to defeat him, but he went on and won. He has over three columns of libelous matter. Mr. Brown at once entered suit for $50,000 damages, and the suit is now pending.

His opponents in the contest were James B. Cassey, a former mayor; Jas. H. McKinley, an ex-senator, and another wealthy and influential citizen. In the face of all this opposition, when the votes were counted it was found that the former policeman had elected by a majority over the combined vote received by his opponents. When asked as to the cause of his receiving such a large majority, Mr. Brown said that he had always done his duty in a fearless manner and had won the confidence of the people.

"In my life as a policeman," said the victor, "I have always had the interests of the people at heart, and I believe that I am in a position to know the needs of the people better than the average citizen. In my official capacity I intend to use the knowledge that I have gained in the police station and had a conversation with Deputy Chief of Police Jenkins. He also visited the Sun office and later entertained the representatives of both morning papers at dinner at the Clifton House. Mr. Brown has a very forcible manner and is a very fluent speaker.

SPYING ON HIM.
He has been followed from Lowell by a number of detectives, who are spying on his movements. These men are in the employ of the brewers and the wholesale liquor dealers of that city. Both he and Mr. MacBrayne thought that they had put these men off the

FORMER MANAGER WILL TAKE STAND Evans, Witness in Central Inquiry

Former Manager's Testimony Will Practically End Probe

Speaking with a reporter for The Sun last evening H. A. Powell, K. C., declared that he was not sure of the witness he called at the first session of the Central Railway inquiry, which takes place tomorrow in this city. However, he expected that E. G. Evans, formerly general manager of the road, would in all probability be the chief witness while others will no doubt be heard.

Mr. Evans for the past few months has been outside of the province, so it was impossible to secure his presence at previous sessions of the inquiry. He returned home a short while ago and has been served with a subpoena for his attendance at the inquiry tomorrow.

Mr. Evans' evidence will be closely watched and much may develop from the story he tells. He was manager of the company for some time during its earlier existence. The session will be held as usual in the admiralty court room and will begin at 10 o'clock. Judge Lindsay presiding.

While the inquiry will not be wound up with this session, the evidence given will have an important weight on its continuance. Mr. Powell states that Hon. Dr. Pugsley will again give evidence, though it is rather improbable that he will be present tomorrow.

Mr. Powell will again act as counsel for the commissioners, in which capacity he has served throughout the entire session. Outside of the evidence given by Mr. Evans the remainder of the session will probably be of an unimportant nature.

Another Case in Glendive
GLENDIVE, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Chenoweth makes the fourth case of lung trouble cured this week by Catarrhose. A bad cold settled on her lungs and resisted all treatment, but "Catarrhose" cured the sore throat and irritation in a few days. Local druggists report the sale of Catarrhose is enormous. It has great merit and quick cures colds, bronchitis, lung troubles and catarrh. Two months' treatment costs one dollar and is guaranteed; sample size twenty-five cents at all dealers in medicine.

THREE PARTIES SHOW INCREASE IN VOTES CAST
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The total popular vote of the various presidential candidates at the last national election was made known today in an official form by the filing of the last of the official vote, that of Michigan. The totals show the following votes cast:

Taft (Republican), 7,637,676;
Bryan (Democrat), 6,888,182;
Debs (Socialist), 447,661;
Chafin (Prohibition), 241,285;
Hilgen (Independence League), 82,153;
Watson (Populist), 33,871;
Gilhaus (Socialist-Labor), 16,421.
Total for all candidates, 14,882,230.
This grand total exceeds by 1,643,230 the total number of votes cast in the presidential election of 1904, when the grand total was 13,239,000.

Compared with that election, the candidates of the Republican, Democratic and Socialist parties increased their vote this year. The reverse is true of the candidates of the Prohibition, Populist and Socialist-Labor parties. The Independence party did not figure in the presidential election of four years ago.

The biggest difference in a party vote is shown in an increase for Bryan of 1,815,311 over the total vote cast in 1904 for Alton B. Parker, the Democratic candidate. Taft received 14,190 votes more than were polled for President Roosevelt in 1904, and Debs ran 46,988 ahead of his predecessor on the Socialist ticket.

The heaviest loss is shown by the Populists who, with the same candidate, registered 83,818 votes less this year than in 1904, when their total was 117,133. The Prohibitionists' candidate, Chafin, ran 17,284 votes behind the 1904 mark of his party.

New York 570,070; Pennsylvania, 455,779; and Illinois, 625,232, gave Taft the greatest number of votes among the states, while as to Bryan the order was: New York, 665,468; Ohio, 502,721; and Illinois, 459,810.

Debs received his largest vote in Pennsylvania, 38,915; Illinois, 39,711; and New York, 38,451.

Hilgen's vote in New York, 38,817, and in his own state of Massachusetts, 18,257, together, formed nearly two-thirds of all the votes he received in the whole country.

track at Portland, but last night as they were leaving on the 7 o'clock train for Sussex one of these trailers broke the car in which they were seated.

Mr. Brown's inauguration will take place on the first Monday in January, and it is expected that there will be a general house-cleaning in the civic department shortly after that date. Mr. Brown's resignation from the Lowell police force took effect yesterday.

DONALD ROBERTSON IS VICTIM OF FIRST COASTING ACCIDENT

While coasting on Carmarthen street yesterday afternoon, Donald Robertson, the little son of H. F. Robertson, living at 155 Queen street, collided with a cab, sustaining injuries of a serious nature.

The sled of young Robertson was bounding along at a high rate of speed, when at the corner of Mecklenburg street a cab chieftain in sight. Unable to stop or to divert his course the boy plunged into the rear wheel of the vehicle. When picked up his face was found to be badly bruised and lacerated, one cut extending up into the nasal cavity.

The boy was removed to his home, where the wounds were dressed by Dr. Bishop.

The accident, which occurred at three-thirty o'clock, is the first recorded of the present coasting season. So far as is known nothing has been done as yet by Chief Clark in fixing the prohibited streets. The accident of yesterday will, however, it is thought cause immediate action to be taken.

COMMITTEE DECIDES TO TAKE A RELIGIOUS CENSUS OF CITY
A committee meeting was held in the Sunday school institute rooms in the Hiltch building yesterday afternoon. The meeting was mainly for the purpose of discussing the taking of a religious census of the city and a discussion to take the census was reached. Rev. David Lang was elected chairman of the committee, and Rev. S. W. Anthony, secretary.

It was decided to work in co-operation with the Sunday School Association and to take a religious census of the city about the second week in January.

The following advisory committee, representative of the different denominations, was appointed as follows: Rev. David Lang, chairman; Rev. Neil McLaughlin, Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, Venerable Archdeacon Raymond, Rev. S. W. Anthony, Rev. J. C. B. Appel, Rev. G. S. Sovell and Brigadier Turner.

The census will be taken with in a short time is now an assured fact and the work will be followed with much interest.

It is proposed to take the census in one week, hundreds of men and women employed at the work, each having a small section of the city to attend to.

ELDER MINER OF "THE HOLY GHOST AND US" SOCIETY ON MISSION HERE
Sectarianism is doomed, but its abolition will never bring about a united church in the popular sense of the term, said Elder Miner of Shiloh to The Sun yesterday. Interdenominational conventions are in their purpose as so much chaff. Human resolutions and human strivings directed towards an end ordained by God Himself are as ineffective as they are presumptuous.

The disciple of Sanford, the ex-Baptist minister, whom his adherents are pleased to regard as the prophet Elijah spoken of in the Bible, tilted back in his chair and lapsed into apparent reverie.

"You know," he began again, suddenly starting up, "the entire fabric of so-called Christian endeavor has for its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two and thirty-four has begun its onward triumphant march. It will culminate shortly in the ushering in of the millennium, the church united in its very warp and woof the machinations of the devil. Bickerings, jealousies and deceptions are chiefly characteristic of the religious bodies in their dealings with each other. Their pretensions are of one color and their practices of another. They will unite. Yes, but only in annihilation. Already the movement referred to as a small stone in Daniel two