

Journal Ad.

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1851.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS.
FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.

TORONTO, April 17, 1851.—
The Cabinet has been in Council two days.

Yesterday there was a rumor in the city that the subject of their deliberations was an immediate dissolution of Parliament; but their decision on the subject has not transpired.

It is said that Geo. Thompson, M.P., has received intelligence that two assassins have been sent in search of him with the deliberate purpose of killing him; if they succeed in finding him I believe it is correct that such intelligence has actually been communicated to Mr. Chapman.

He is still in his city.

The paper will have informed you of the result of the Haldimand election.

The following is the result of the poll at the Haldimand election. The following is the result of the poll at the Haldimand election.

Mr. Brown's Day.—The Sons of Old

England had a splendid day for their annual procession, and marched in greater force than for some years past. They assembled in Great St. James Street, opposite Dolly's, in the morning, with bands of music and banners; and after marching in procession round the Place D'Armes, passed through Notre Dame Street and McGill Street to St. George's Church, where Divine Service was performed, and a good sermon preached by the Rev. Mr. Bond.

The dinner of the Society took place at Dolly's, and was, as always, a capital one.

Many gentlemen who had delayed to obtain tickets were disappointed in getting them. There was also an excellent dinner at Isaac MacNutt's, numerously attended.

During the night of Monday or Tuesday, a robbery was committed in Gouford Street Church.

Entry was effected by the Vestry door, and the communion pates, a number of hymn books, and some articles of needle-work which had remained unpaid at the late Bazaar, were stolen.

The Missionary boxes were broken open, but fortunately they had been examined the preceding week.

We hope the thieves will be discovered.

Russell's House, Quebec.—We observed by an advertisement, an intimation of the removal of Mr. Russell from his present mansion on the esplanade at Quebec, to the house he formerly occupied in Palace Street.

He has enlarged the accommodations so as to lodge 150

gentlemen, and to send 300 at his dining-table.

The result of his arrangement is as follows:—

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.

Mr. Russell's bill, last year, was

£1,200, and the sum to be given up

by himself is £1,000.