

THREE NEW REGIMENTS FOR OVERSEAS CONTINGENT WANTED

Capt. Dunlop, of Dufferin Rifles Receives Call For Men Last Night From the Headquarters of Second Division.

Brantford Will Likely Supply One Platoon of About Two Hundred Officers and Men-Pay Will Commence on Day of Enlistment.

Capt. R. S. Dunlop, who is at present acting as C. O. for the 38th Dufferin Rifles, in the absence of Capt. M. B. Cutcliffe at Niagara camp, last night received a wire from the divisional officer commanding which stated that three additional infantry regiments were to be raised from Western Ontario, and that recruiting should open immediately at the Dufferin Rifles armories.

THE DISTRICTS. This district forms part of No. 2 division, and is comprised of country west of Toronto and south by St. Kitts, then north to Sault Ste. Marie. From this part it is proposed to raise three battalions of infantry, and cavalry may be called upon to supply men for these detachments.

DUFFS RECEIVE CALL. The quota required from the Dufferin Rifles, it is anticipated, will be upwards of two hundred men, and one battalion may in all probability be officered from this regiment.

STAFF OFFICERS. The Dufferin Rifles have undergone many changes of rank since the departure of Colonel H. Genet and Major P. P. Ballachy with the 58th, and the senior officers on the staff are at present taking part in a field officers' training class at Niagara.

ORDERS EXPECTED. Orders from headquarters at Toronto are expected forward, and until their arrival nothing more definite can be made known of the plans for recruiting.

NOT WAITING. On Friday last the enemy put 60 or 70 shells into or around the headquarters in 40 minutes. We are in a desolate little garden. Most of the time the place was a cloud of smoke and brick dust, and the surrounding corps thought the Germans had us, but, bless you, we were not waiting to be exterminated.

THRIFT AND ECONOMY MUST BATTLE WITH WASTE FOR VICTORY

Big Campaign Inaugurated at Guildhall—London Assurance Company Applies For $12,000,000 of New War Loan.

"We shall fight to the end, to the last farthing of our money, to the last drop of our strength, and to the last drop of our blood," Premier Asquith said in his appeal for national unity yesterday. "The only other course, he declared, was that his countrymen should diminish their expenditures and increase their savings."

WORLD'S COSTLIEST WAR. Premier Asquith opened the meeting by stating that apart from many of its "other features" the present war was the costliest that ever had been waged, with the total prospective expenditures amounting to a thousand millions of pounds ($25,000,000,000).

GERMAN SPIRIT OF BRAG IS REDUCED BY PASSING EVENTS

Lecture in Berlin by Herr Flamm Reflects a Sober Outlook and a Shaken Conviction as to Their Success

By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, June 30.—A cable to The Herald from London says: "The newspapers reaching London from Germany are particularly interesting just now. For the first time since the war began the old boastful tone seems to have subsided and while many quarters there are significant allusions to peace prospects—significant because they are made with official sanction—there is a general realization that the naval and military outlook is not so promising for the Reich as appeared a few months ago."

THE PRESENT IS NOT TIME FOR SUCH A QUESTION; NOTHING CAN BE SAID, SAYS PREMIER ASQUITH IN REPLY

LONDON, JUNE 30.—PREMIER ASQUITH TO-DAY MADE REPLY IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TO THE QUESTION ASKED YESTERDAY AS TO WHETHER THE GOVERNMENT WOULD STATE THE TERMS UPON WHICH PEACE WOULD BE POSSIBLE.

British Forces Capture Two Lines of Trenches From Turkish Army

By Special Wire to the Courier. LONDON, June 30, 5.18 p.m.—A British official statement issued today, dealing with the operations in the Dardanelles, announces that two lines of Turkish trenches have been captured to the east of Saghir Dere, and that three lines have been stormed to the west of that place.

SCENES ON ACTIVE SERVICE; GRAPHIC STORIES OF THE WAR

Col. Morrison Writes of Wreck of Battery—A Picturesque Sight—Wire Cutting Brigade Watched Shelling From Safety on Flank.

Ottawa, June 30.—Col. E. W. B. Morrison of Ottawa, Commanding Officer of the 1st Artillery Brigade, which has been for months in the thick of the fighting in France, has sent his wife here another of his graphic and intensely interesting letters detailing scenes and incidents at the front. He writes in part as follows, under date of June 7: "Northern France, June 7.—The weather is beautiful, the ruined gardens full of roses and the fields brilliant with poppies, which rival in plenitude and color the blood we are shedding. We have been here fifteen days, close up to the enemy's trenches, as we have the honor of being the 'wire-cutting brigade'—namely, the trick shooters who cut the barbed-wire entanglements with shell fire to let the infantry through. We are under both heavy shell and rifle fire. We have had another gun smashed, killing the Sergeant and wounding three men, and have had four ammunition waggons smashed or blown up."

HOW BATTERY WAS WRECKED. A week ago the Germans put 260—count 'em, 260—six-inch "crumpers" into the 2nd Battery. I do not think that in the course of the war there has been seen such a wreck of a battery position. Ammunition waggons blown up, a limber thrown upside down on top of a gun emplacement, two other limbers put out of business, dugouts smashed in, blankets, overcoats and rubber sheets blown into the trees. The only thing that saved the guns from being smashed to pieces was a broad ditch in front—a young canal—into which the big 'Gus' splashed and went blind, throwing weeds and sludge 50 feet in the air and over the guns, but injuring only one. Meanwhile the officers and men sat in a ditch to a flank, and had nary a casualty. The wreck was so picturesque that General Alderson came up from divisional headquarters to view it. That night I moved the battery to an alternative position, where they have not got it yet. The dead are still thick in front and unburied. My O. C.'s batteries were out in front examining the enemy's trenches yesterday. Major C. H. Raystone came on a young Canadian infantryman, and sent back a detail later to bury him. Capt. Cosgrave and I were reconnoitering in the forward trenches at Givenchy, and we came on a place where a British soldier had been buried in the wall of a trench. The trench was very deep and narrow, so they had just excavated a niche in the side and buried him upright like a mummy. It was not a pleasant spot, but the Tommies were sitting around eating in the immediate vicinity, so callous do men become. They call the bomb company in each regiment "the Anarchists," and the machine gun platoon "the Suicide Club."

RUSSIA HAS REALIZED HER WEAK POINT

Creation of New Munitions Board Was Work.

London, June 30.—Russia's reply to the series of Austro-German victories in Galicia is a law setting up a board of munitions empowered to spend unlimited money and given virtually unrestricted power over all private industries in the whole of the country. It is reported from Petrograd that the creation of the board became law with a celerity that was absolutely astounding, which is taken to indicate that the country fully realizes that the recent disasters to the forces of Grand Duke Nicholas largely were due to lack of munitions and equipment. With comparative quiet prevailing on all the fronts except that along the border separating Russian Poland and Galicia the attention of the English public again is turned toward diplomatic and domestic problems. Special despatches from the Balkans declare that Bulgaria is not satisfied with the territory offered her by the entente allies. That Turkey has not lost hope of conciliating her dangerous neighbor, however, is shown by the news that Bulgar-Turkish negotiations looking to the delimitation of the frontiers of the respective countries will be resumed in Constantinople. Rumors of a break in the diplomatic relations between Italy and Turkey again are rife. With the exception of the French claim that they have recovered all the trenches which the Germans had captured in the Vosges Mountains, no change in the military situation in the western battle line is reported.

DOMINION DAY

The Courier will not be issued to-morrow. For a period both in the morning and in the afternoon the special leased wire of this office will be kept open, and bulletins be displayed with reference to anything of importance in connection with the war.
