THE PICTURE THAT WE TOOK

Dear God, what changes time can bring!
Sometimes now, unawares,
I find myself half listening
To hear her on the stairs;
And when I chance upon her dell,
Or on her brownie men,
I almost think if I should call
She'd toddle back again.

And when through mists I look upon The little picture we Took of her that day on the lawn She seems once more with me; Once more as in those other days The sun gleams on her halr, And with her rubber doil she plays Beside her high-backed chair.

In Paris, Florence, Naples, Rome,
Are noble worts of art,
Are noble worts of art of are noble worth of art of

A BICYCLE ROMANCE.

A BICYCLE ROMANCE.

It was a wretched-looking old blke, and for antiquity would have taken first prize any where. My disappointment was intense, and tears of mortification sprang to my eyes, but I forced them back as I noticed the look of anxiety on the face of the old man beside me, who enquired, with some emotion: "Have you got a cold katie? Your eyes are wet." "Yes, Uncle Thomas," I replied, "and summer colds are so hard to get rid of; but never mind my cold. Hanhs you so much for buying me the bicycle." "Well, dearle," he replied, "it's not quite a new one, but I thought it would do for you to learn on." Oh, how I did wish he would go away and let me have a good cry; but as he hung about I had to mount and take a few turns round the garden, much to his delight, and he rubbed his hands, exclaiming: "Well done, little girl! You'lh be thee before any of them, you bet!" At last he went indoors, and, hiding myself in the summer house, I wept coptously. What should I do? Get my-prayer book and keep on repeating the collect for rain? Stay in bed the next day, and pretend my cold was worse? No, neither of these-pesources would do; and even If I rained all night, which was not in the least likely, I would have to put in an appear, ance on the morrow. Well, there was once spice of comfort left—the roads were inches deep with fine, white dust. I would start early and get a good covering of it over poor uncle's gift, and then perhaps some of its many deficiencies might be hid; and then, being adurt I did not allow our little mid to interfere with the proper tea, that being a duty I did not allow our little mid to interfere when I had a long hear and owner of a merchantman, but he had only been able to leave a very moderate independency for my mother, so we two had always lived very quietly, and it was quite an event in our lives when a letter came from Frisco telling that my mother's only relative was coming home after an absence of 40 years, there's only heldre was coming home after an absence of 40 years.

fairs. Still, I am pleased to think he is coming." Well, Unice Thomas followed closely on his letter; and, true enough, his affairs did not seem to have flourished, for his clothes were quite threadbare and his luggage of the scantiest. Like most girls of the present day, my great ambition was to own a bicycle, but, unfortunately, the buying of one was quite out of the question, although I could ride well enough, my companion, Florrie Floyd, the doctor's only daughter, having let me learned hers.

Schaffer once more discussing the matter over with mother, I had to reluctantly give up all idea of joining the plenic, and I had so longed to go; for one thing, it was the first time Sir Walter's demesse had ever been accessible, and that in itself made more anxious to see the beautiful grounds that had always been so jealously guarded from intrusion. Sir Walter had died six months before, and the heir that he had never seen had given permission for this special party to hold their meet in his demesse; and, by the way, he had not seen the place himself, but was expected to arrive at an early date. Perhaps I ought to have said that his agent had given the doctor's party leave to see the grounds, and not he. Well, after mother had succeeded in convincing me of her inability to get me even a second-hand mount, Uncle Thomas had unexpectedly chimed in by saying: "Well, Kathie, if you don't mind having a very first-class tike, I'fl get you one. I was both astonished and delighted, and kissed the old man gut I wished he had bought himself a new, coat instead. The collect for rain was unanswered; so was my desire for sudden sickness. I never felt better in my life, and the sky was cloudless, so there was nothing for it but to put a bold face on the inevitable, and at the time appointed sky was cloudless, so there was nothing for it but to out a bold race may be even a second-hand mount, Uncle Thomas had uncypetedly and went to be do when I joined the others, every one of whom owned a first-class mount? Should I turn back and the finites hall, where he hanking dained in the hanking of his property and the search of the hanking of the h was already overwhelming the learned professor himself. In 1868 Professor Bain published "Mental and Moral science"; in 1870, "Logic—Deductive and I Inductive," and in 1873, "Mind and Body—Theories of Their Relation." Professor Bain's educational works are many and valuable. In 1887 he brought out a revision of his noted "Manual of Rhetoric," being devoted to the "Intellectual Qualities of Style." Professor Bain has now reached the age of 61.

FOUR GREAT

who had told her his real position the night he proposed to me. But while she was speaking, we heard Mark say: "is to possible that you are Uncele Thomas? You see, owing to mele's accident, he had not seen him before. My uncile laughed and said: "I suppose my little game is up," and while mother and I looked from one to the other for some explanation, Mark said: "I find that not rear all it is I who must introduce Uncle? Thomas to you. We are old friends and traveked together from millomaire, Thomas of Jiong Banks, the latter name he andopted some years ago." So it turned out that Mark (whose name was Fredout t large flower gardens for commercial purposes.

Unselfishness the Basis of Tact.

Tact has its basis in unselfishness. It grows out of thinking of another while you are talking or dealing with him. Even though a man may be exercising tact for selfish purposes, he must give the other person the first place in his thoughts and plan for the time being, in order to enable him to be tactful. Tact grows out of and indicates consideration for the rights and feelings of others; a lack of tact shows a lack of consideration for their feelings and their rights—S. S. Times. that period of letters beginning with the earliest of the great writers of the century and ending with the imitators of Villon in the present day. Much of Lang's best work has been oublished originally in daily newspapers. The first editions of his books are in big demand among the collectors and command very high prices. Mr. Lang is a noted fisherman and has written interesting essays on old Izaak Walton.

NASHVILLE'S GIANT SEE-SAW.

NASHVILLE'S GIANT SEROM.

It Is 100 Feet High, 200 Feet Long, and Is Operated by Electricity.

The erection of this structure has caused wide apread interest because of its novely as an amusement and also as an engineering achievement. It is the first device of ine kind ever constructed on a large scale, and it bears the same relation to the Tennessee, Centronial as did the Biffel Tower to Paris, or the Ferris wheel to Chicago. It stands at a point 'ron, which a magnificent view of the Cumberdand Valley car'be had; in the distance the Hermit when ladies wore their "topknots" ridientously high it occurred to Rowland Hill to admonish them from the pulpit, and he did it by means of the words, "Topknot, come down," which he evolved from Matthew xxiv., 17, "Let him which is on the housetop come down." Of course, nothing but the exceeding quaintness of the preacher could have excused such a liberty with the sense and sound of the sacred text.

It was almost as bad as Swift's uniquely brief discourse on the text, "He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth to the Lord." "My friends," said the Dean, as he closed the book, "if you approve of the security down with the dust." As a matter of fact, it is usually only the quaint preachers who do venture on such liberties. Chambers' Journal. stands at a point can whole a magnificent view of the Cumbertand Valley car be had; in the distance the Hermitage, the home of Andrew Jackson, cube seen, while Belle Meade, the fortaund battlefields of Nashville, togethe; with the city and centennial groundlie in the beautiful panorama.

The tower rests on a stone foundatior running down to solid rock, and is 106 feet high, while the truss beam, from cither ed of which a car capable of carrying twenty-five people, is suspended, is 200 feet, only the siving a maxinum height of nearly 200 feet. Tha ent has a speed of sixty-five feet per minute. The walking beam is operated by an electric hoisting engine equipped with a ten-horse power mustipolar motor
"Seet connected, connection, to the beam THE DOG THAT OWNS JORKINS

THE GIANT SEA-FAW AT NASHVILLE Siectrical Company of Unremnati, C. The factor of safety in the construction of the seesaw is nine. A novel method filluminating is had by two enormous Hushmore searchlights, which can be seen for a distance of thirty miles.—
Raffway Review.

Rain Calms the Sea.

It is rather hard to understand how such tiny drops can flatten down the enormous swell of an ang-v ocean, but the observations of a well-known Euglish scientist explain it clearly. Each drop, he says, sends below the surface a certain quantity of water in the form of rings, which, with gradually decreasing volocity and increasing size, descend as much as 18 inches below the surface. Therefo.", when rain is falling on the sea, there is as much motion immediately beneath the surface as above, only the drops are larger and their motion slower. Thus, unseen by the human eye, the water at the surface is being made to continually charge places with that beneath, and in this way the wave motion is destroyed. Rain Calms the Sca.

Marriage in India.

The result of Mrs. F. A. Steel's personal observation is that marriages in India are singularly happy. There are fewer cases of unkindness and violence than in Great Britain. The dowry system, she avers, is a great protection to the wife. Every uride makes her husband a dowry, which is a kind of marrige settlement against unkindness. If she is badly treated and thus compelled to go back to her father's house, the bustand has to return her dowry; probably he has spent it, and, as it is not often convenient for him to refund the money, he takes care to treat his wife well. "It think that a similar system here would be a good thing," says the lady, frankly.

thing," says the lady, frankly.

Sphinx Nearly 4000 Years Old.

The famous Sphinx near the pyramids of Gizeh was thoroughly investigated by Prof. Erman, who at a recent unceting of the Berlin academy, delivered a fetcure about its probable sge.

Careful researches show that it could not have been built previous to the so-called "middle kingdom," or about 2000 and led "middle kingdom," or about 2000 and the could be seen was originally the image of a diety, all the could be seen which has at the present time disappeared. For the building of the colosmal work more than 20 years must not been employed all the time.

Didn't Notice Her Particularly.

Mr. Mann—Did you see that woman just as we crossed over?

Mrs. Mann—You mean the woman in the camel's hair gown and beaver jacket; the one who had on bronzed shoes, a hat trimmed with fuchsins and heliotrope, with pink ribbons and a chiffon yeil? No, I didn't notice her in particular. What were you going to say about her?—Boston Transcript.

Ethe Relic Found.

A small water keg covered with barnacies and bearing the name of the steemer Ethe, lost two years ago, has been brought into Grimsby by the smack Rescue. It was trawled up from the bottom of the sea about 85 miles A COZY LITTLE CHAT.

terir Entertaine His Wife With

Mr. Chatterly. Entertains His Wife With a Fanny Beory.

"Put that horrid old paper down," said Mrs. Chatterly, seating herself on the arm of her husband's chair, "and talk to me some. It's so dull here at home, and I don't get to hear of anything that's going on. I think you might relate little ineidents you see uptown, and try and amuse ene all think you might relate little ineidents you see uptown, and try and amuse ene all the when you come home instead of hiding yourself behind a newspaper svery night."

Chatterly's conscience smote him a bit.

"Why my dear, I am selfish," he said. "Let's have a cozy little chat. Oh, by the way, I saw an awful funny thing this morning. I was about a block from the office when Haskins, who has just began practising law, came." is he a brother of Elia Hagistre's asked Mrs. Chatterly, "that gird they are raving about on account of her complexion. If I know anything at all she owes it to spermeet and almond oil. She is a cousin of the Weatherly, who had to sell their place last fall because they were living altogether boo high for farniture cost over two thousand collars, and Elila's sister Jannie's husband. Mr. Elila's was her was on her father's note for goodness knows how much, and had to pay it."

"Well, Haskins came up," continued his named Mordaunt, who—
"Mordaunt?" said Mrs. Chatterly, "wasn't; that was Turner. I got the names mixed. Turner-Ed. Turner, was his name. Ed. Turner married a Potts wasn't; that was Turner. I got the names mixed. Turner-Ed. Turner, was his name. Ed. Turner married Alice Petterson, and the ways he made his name, sinch a finnicky old maid she was. She thought she had caught Jim Albright once, but Jim went back on her and married Alice Petterson, and the way she made his money fly Those Pattersons never even had food enough on their table at home, and when they did get a chance to spend a little-oh, my."

"As I was saying," went on Chatterly, "I'm sure I enfoy it awfully. Go on You said Stacy's dry goods store, didn't yeu?"

"Yes, and"—"Yes, and "

You said Stacy's dry goods store, didn't you?"

"Yes, and"—"I was at Stacy's yesterday," interrupted Mrs. Chatterly, "and who do you think came in but that young widow, Mrs. Staples. George, if you could have seen the way she was dressed! Load? You just couldn't hear yourself think. She had on a red silk shirt waist, actually trimmed in orange, a skirt with stripes as broad as my hand, and not a thread of mourning on her anywhere. Emma Waters says she is doing her best to catch that wealthy Mr. Perkins who bought the Bascom place the other day. If Mr. Staples don't turn over in his grave after that?"

"Was that 10 o'clock struck?" asked Chatterly,
"Sure enough, it was and here I am

Try it yourself and see how you like it!!

Jorkins was crushed. He asked meekly where the rice was kept, and spent the rest of the day cooking it, while his wife retired with a bad headache. He filled every tub, pan, pail and basin in the flat with boiled rice, the proportions of which appalled him. Hiding as much of it as he could, he took in a steaming mass to give Piper, who had concealed himself under Mrs. Jorkins lounge.

"You can't give a dog red hot food," said his wife. "You must cool it for him. I always do."

Her husband looked at her with admiration. He was beginning to think her a martyr. He took the rice and the dog into the kitchen, whither Mrs. J. presently followed him. She found him on his knees, with his bicycle pump, hard at work. He was cooling the rice while Piper sat by and howled.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Science has not yet discovered whether the creature known as the practical joker belongs to the genus homo or to the genus simila. In appearance he resembles the former, while his actions are decidedly those of the latter.

In the case of Dobbs, so pronounced was his main for joking that his closest friends hardly knew what to make of him, but, since his experience with Jones, hopes are entertained that his is at last beginning to see the error of his way and may ultimately reach a point in his development where there will be no doubt of the fact that he belongs to the human family.

It appears that one of Dobbs' most cherished saties was to approach a friend on the street, from behind, and softly twitch his pocket as though feeling for a purse. Of course the friend would finally feel the twitching, clap his hands on the pocket and turn upon the supposed thief with kindling eye and excited demeanor. Then Dobs would laugh heartily and thoroughly enjoy him solf.

One day he tried this joke on his intimate friend, Jones. A near-by policeman, who was not acquainted with the nature of the case, rushed up just as Jones halted widdly and whirled about with blood in his eye. Dobbs' joyous laugh was cut short by the policeman who laid a hand on his shoulder and remarked to Jones:

"He was trying to rob you, sir; I saw the whole sfair."

is tered for twelve years.

BOR MEN OF WAR.

It appears that one of Dobbs' most cherished anties was to approach a friend on the street, from behind, and softly twitch his pocket as though feeling for a purse. Of course the friend would finally feel the twitching, clap his hands on the pocket and turn upon the supposed thief with kindling eye and excited demeanor. Then Dobs would laugh heartily and thoroughly enjoy himself.

One day he tried this joke on his intimate friend, Jones. A near-by policeman, who was not acquainted with the nature of the case, rushed up just as Jones halted wildly and whirled about with blood in his eye. Dobbs' Joyous laugh heart of the case, rushed up just as Jones halted wildly and whirled about with blood in his eye. Dobbs' Joyous laugh was cut short by the policeman who laid a hand on his shoulder and remarked to Jones.

"He was trying to rob you, sir; I saw the whole affair."

"Nonsensel" returned Dobbs; "it's only a joke. This gentleman is a friend of mine."

But Jones never cracked a smile.

"It that a fact?" asked the policeman appealing the Jones.

"Why," returned Jones, by a happy impulse, "In eyer saw the secoundrel besired as of the summer of the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was retrieng from the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refriring from the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refriring from the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refriring from the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refriring from the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refriring from the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refrired by matter of the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refrired by the summit of Saran-Sar Moustain, when it was refrired to some of one heutenant killed, one missing and three wounded, and fifty men killed.

CKIME ADD OF MAR.

"Nonsense!" returned Dobbs; "it's only a joke. This gentleman is a friend of mine."

But Jones never cracked a smile.

"Is that a fact?" asked the policeman, appealing td Jones.

"Why," returned Jones, by a happy impulse, "I never saw the secoundrel before! Run him in!"

"That's what I will, sir," returned the blue-coat, taking tighter grip on Dobbs and starting for the patrol-hox; "he's a pretty neat grafter—evidently am old hand at the business."

"Look here, Jones," cried Dobbs, "what do you mean? Why, this is an outrage! Let me gs, officer!"

"Not on your kife! If, you don't stop pullin' away I'll give you a taste of my club. Oh, you're a fine bird. You've got gallows written all over your faces!"

This was all Jones could stand and he broke away from the rapidly collecting crowd and had a quiet laugh around the corner.

As for Dobbs, he was carted off to the station and witimately bailed out. Before the matter proceeded farther, Jones called at the police headquarters, expla'ned the situation and the case was wiped off the calendar.

'It was some time before Dobbs could bring himself to speak to Jones; but at last they met on the street and Dobbs presented his cigar case, inviting Jones to help himself to a Perrecto. Then, together, they wiffed the smoke of peace, For a wonder, the cigar wasn't losaded!

Coughs

Is there a tickling in the throat? Do you cough a great deal, especially when lying down? Are you hoarse at times? Does nearly every cold age to be settle in your throat? times? Does nearly every cold you take settle in your throat? These "throat coughs" are very deceptive. Don't neglect them. Troches, or cough syrups won't touch the spot. You must take remedies that will enrich the blood, tone up the nerves; and heal the inflamed membranes.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Coddings Oil with Hypophos-

Cod-liver Oil with Hypophos-phites contains such remedies. It has wonderful nourishing It has wonderful nourishing and healing power. The cause of the cough is removed; the whole system is given new life and vigor; and the danger from threatening lung trouble is swept away.

Book about it free.
For sale by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00,
SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville, Ont.

POLITICS-IMPERIAL. Mr. Charles McArthur, Conservative was elected for the Exchange Division of Liverpool by a small majority. PURKEY PERSONAL.

Mr. Gladstone will write a biograph of eminent divines he has known. With the exception of suffering from slight facial neuralgia, Prince Bismarc is enjoying good health.

Charles Pedler, an eighteen-year-old Hamilton youth, hanged himself on account of a dispute with his father.

A young man named Norman Mitchell shot himself dead with a rife at Montreal on account of disappointment in a love affair.

THE LABOR WORLD.

The Labora works.

The Labora works.

The Labora works.

The Labora works and the employers to arbitration.

The trouble between the Glassblowers' Union and the Diamond Glass Company of Hamilton has been settled and the men have gone back to work.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has purchased the Meadow Lawn farm in Illinois for $11,450, on which a home for dependent engineers, their widows and orphans will be builk.

Mr. J. L. Larke. Dimhnion Commercial agent in Australia, complains that his efforts to promote trade between the two countries are frequently rendered nugatory by the dilatoriness of Canadian firms.

During the September quarter of the current year Canada's imports amounted to $52,990,471, duffer $5,127,700, as compared with imports to the value of POLITICS-FOREIGN. It is understood that the Reichstag will be asked for a vote of three million marks for naval improvement. A Washington despatch says the rati-fication of the Hawaiian annexation treaty by the United States Senate is treaty by the United States Sunate is assured.

The condition of the members of the Turkish Eanbassy in Berlin is deplorable. They have not received any salary for more than a year, and they are being harrassed by their creditors.

It is reported that Newfoundhand will claim the right to be represented at any reciprocity conference between Osadada and the United States on the ground of the treaty of 1890, which was disallowed at Canada's request.

POLITICS—CANADHAN.

Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways, has signed, on behalf of the Dominion Government, a lease of the Drummond County Railway. It is reported that Hon. C. H. Mackintosh's resignation as Lieutenant-Governor of the Northwest Territories will take effect on Jan. 1.

The Hamilton Board of Trade has sent a memorial to the members of the Dominion Government in favor of the passage of a Dominion Insolvency law.

The Department of Railways and Canals has taken over the contract on the Soulanges Canal held by Mr. Archie Stewart of Ottawa, and the work is being carried on under the control of the Government. POLITICS-CANADIAN.

Rev. John Ewing, Presbyterian Minter at Mount Pleasant for 44 years, dead.

Trinity Church, Aurora, was consecrated Sunday, the Bishop of Toronto

Trinity Church, Aurora, was consecrated Sunday, the Bishop of Toronto preaching both sermons.

Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the W.C.T.U., announces that she will contribute three thousand dollars which the temperance people need to hold control of the Temple in Chicago.

The Rev. Dr. Clarke, Presbyterian minister at Bracebridge, Out., died there, aged 70. At one time he practiced medicine in Toronto, but he eatered the ministry in 1885, his first and only charge being Bracebridge, where he ministered for twelve years. FOR MEN OF WAR.

The trial of Mrs. Sternaman will begin at Cayuga on Wednesday morning The trial of Mrs. Sternaman will begin at Caytiga on Wednesday morning next.

Roland Gideon Israel Burnett was sentenced at Montreal to three years in the penitentiary for stealing a note for 750.

Benjamin Logan, an Indian constable, has been sent to jail for three months by Judge Elliott of London, Ont., for handcuffing another Indian with whom he had a rowdon murder case the coroner's jury has returned a verdict of murder against Tom Nulty, for the killing of his three sisters and little brother.

At Whitewood Anthony Grega was tried on a charge of murder. Grega killed his father with an axe during a quarrel. The jury returned a verdict of manshaughter.

Fred Elliott of Bayfield has been arrested on the charge of nurdering his brother. Harvey Elliott. At the pre-iminary examination he was sent for trial.

It is expected that a pardon will shortly be granted to Grenher, who was condemned to six months' imprisonment for libelling Mr. Tarte, Minister of Public Works.

George E. Alger, the Claremont inserance conspirator, has been released from the peaitendary. He has served nine-teen months of a seven years' sentence.

The office of the Canadian Express Company at Treston, Ont., was entered on Thursday night, the vault opened, and $$2500 in cash, money orders and Ompany at Treaton, Oat, was entered on Thursday night, the vault opened, and $2500 in cash, money orders and cheques stolen.

James Huton of Toronto, who killed his son with a pair of shears on Halhowe'en, and who was convicted of manislaughter, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

A Marvey Man Killed.
Peterboro'. Nov. 10.—(Special).—Yesterday during the wind and snow storm. Mr. Geo. Smith, a Harvey Township farmer, while driving cattle from a pasture was struck by a decayed tree, which fell from the weight of snow and wind, and killed.

An Indian Browned.

Onondago, Nov. 10.—While two Indians, Geo. Hill and A. Bumbery, were crossing the river in a boat on the evening of the 8th inst., about one mile east of Onondago, Geo. Hill, aged 21.

was drowned. The body was recovered about 6 p.m. yesterday.

It is stated that an excursion of fin-hundred families will leave Hull and Ottawa in the spring to consiste lands which the Quebec Government is open-ing up for settlement in the Gatineau district. ing up for settlement in the district.

A large female seal passed through Montreal on its way from Portland to Chicago. The seal is appresented by Mr. George B. Rece, General Traffic Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway; system. to Lincoln Park, Chicago. The son of George Kaight of Brasside and Charles Gutzman's daughter, both aged 11, have disspepared, along with Mr. Kaight's home and buggy, and it is thought to be a case of elopement, caused by remantic literature. The pelice are trying to, and, the, children.

KEEPS A FULL STOCK OF

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Window Glass, Coal Oil, Machine Oil, Rope of all sizes, Builders' Hardware, Mails, Forks, Showets, Drain Tile, Spades, Scoops, Iron Piping, (all sizes), Tinware, Agate Ware, Lamps and Chimneys, Pressed Ware, &c. Guns and Ammunition.

ries, Teas, Sugars and Canned Goods—in short, we have something for everybody that calls.

t for the Dominion Express Co.—the cheapest way to send money to all parts of the world. Give me a call.

WM. KARLEY

FARMERS, LOOK HERE!

I am prepared to furnish Points and Repairs for all Popular plows at lowest wholesale rates; also repairs for Oshawa Planet Power, and general job castings at lowest possible prices for first-class work.

My '97

...GIANT ROOT CUTTER. .

Has several important improvements, viz.: Heavier Balance-Wheel, Anti-Clog Cylinder, etc., making in the best machine in the market. Warranted as represented.

Send for prices.

GEO. P. McNISH.

Lyn Agricultural Works.

Quality Is the Guiding Star in Our Establishment....

Just now that of Toques, Toques, Toques, is A I as usual. Large assortment just received of Boys' Wool Toques, all colors. 25c and 35c the price.

CRAIG, The Furrier.

Lyn Woolen Mills

Have a good of stock genuine all-wool Yarn and Cloth, will be prepared to sell the same at moderate prices, and will at all times be prepared to pay the highest market price for wool in cash or trade.

R. WALKER.

NO SERVICE OF YEAR HOEN - XEXHOCO

DISEASED MEN CURED THOUSANDS of young men, middle aged men and old men can look back at their boyhood days or early manhood with a sigh of remurse. The ignorance of early youth, or later on a misspen life as 'yone of the boys' has sown the seeds toy future suffering. SELF ABUSE is a terrible oin against nature and will bring a rich harvest. Blood and Private Discasses san the very life and vitality of the victim. Our MEW METHOD TREATMENT will positively ourse all the following discasses.

VARICOCELE, EMISSIONS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, SYPHILIS, STRICTURE, GLEET, SEMINAL WEAK-NESS, PIMPLES, LOST MANHOOD, UNNATURAL

DISCHARGES, KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES. ARE YOU 7 NERVOUS and despondent; weak or debilitated; tired mornings; no ambition—lifeless; memory poor; easily fatigued; excitable and irritable; eyes sanken, red and blarred; impines on face) drams and night losses; resiless; inagand locking; was drains about the property of the pro CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY—CONFIDENTIAL SNATCHED FROM THE GRAVE. A Warning from the Living. "At doctors and nerve tonics by the score without benefit; emissions and denies increased. I became a nervous wreek. A friend who had been sured by Drs. Kennedy & Kergan of a similar diseases, edvised me to try them. I did so and in two months was positively cured. This was eight years ago. I am now married and have two healthy shildron."—C. W. LEWIB, Seginaw, VARICOCELE CURED, "Varioceals made life missrable. I was weak and nervous, eyes sanken, bashful in scolety, hair thin, nember of the control of the control

READER! Are you a victim? Have you lost hope? Are you consumplating that we will be a victim? Have you lost hope? Are you consumplating that you have been diseased? Have you any sendant of the consumplating that we will be a supplementation of the consumplementation of the cons 17 YEARS IN DETROIT, 200,000 CURED. NO-RISK.

TRS. KENNEDY & KERGAN, No. 1488HELBY ST.