

EYESTRAIN
relieved by glasses
Eyestrain rarely accompanies very bad sight.
The "nearly perfect" sight in its effort to secure "perfect sight" usually produces eyestrain and suffering.
We remove eyestrain by perfecting the sight.

FELTLESS SWEAT PAD

BEFORE
Breaths there a man with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said,
I'll sell my horse and rent a shed,
And starve my dog until he's dead,
And sell the hat from off my head,
And go without my daily bread,
To buy a sweat pad bound in red,
For my poor horse that's nearly dead.

AFTER
He was so pleased he laughed right out,
Because no other pads were near so stout,
He wanted all his friends to rout
All other pads not stout
And buy from

Dr. C. M. B. Cornell arrived in Brockville on Saturday last, after having spent the winter in southern Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. H. Brown of Carleton Place have been spending a few days in Athens, guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Berney.

Regular meeting Court Athens No. 789 Canadian Order of Foresters, Tuesday evening, May 30. Important business.

Mr. Charlie Dunham and Miss Lena Dunham of Frankville spent Sunday last with their aunt, Mrs. Geo. Robinson, Victoria street.

Mr. Weeks has had a good spring trade at his restaurant, and the prospects for the summer are bright. His ice cream, made from pure cream, is delicious.

Miss Mallory, elocutionist, Mr. Thompson of Brockville, Rev. Geo. Stafford and Mr. R. Stafford of Westport will take part in the Choir Concert programme on Friday evening.

Carleton Place town council have passed a by-law to compel the bakers to make full two and four pound loaves. Other weights will have to be stamped with the weight.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dowsley of Frankville called on friends in Athens on Tuesday. The Athenian friends of the Honorary President of Kitley's great fair were pleased to meet him and hear, as of old, his cheery greeting.

While picking wild flowers at Ferncliffe, near Gananoque, Mrs. Henry Morton noticed a mound which had the appearance of a small grave. Directly underneath, she found a scapbox, which contained the body of a female infant, which had probably lived several days after birth. Mrs. Morton notified the authorities, who took charge of the body and ordered an inquest. The remains were wrapped in fine linen. An inquest developed the fact that the child had been prematurely born and had been placed there for the winter.

Mr. Marous Stevens of Brockville spent the 24th in Athens.

Mr. John Cawley of Brockville spent the 24th in Athens.

Miss Lillian Reynolds of Kemptville is visiting friends in Athens.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Stafford, Westport, have issued invitations for the marriage of their niece, Miss Macie McQuinn to Mr. E. A. W. Whitworth, which takes place at their home on Thursday, May 25.

Mr. W. F. Earl is now installing one of his popular acetylene gas machines in Cedar Park Hotel. This will no doubt lead to more business at the lake, as the "Earl" wins high favor wherever used.

A call for a national prohibition convention, to be held in the Labor Temple Toronto on Thursday, June 22, has been made in a circular signed by J. R. Dougall, President, and F. S. Spence, Secretary, of the Dominion Alliance.

Smith's Falls granolithic walks cost a little over 16c, and the general price throughout Eastern Ontario is about 18c. They are served much better in Western Ontario. In the village of Burlington there are several miles of granolithic walks which were laid down at 14c.

Victoria Day was loyally observed by the youths of Athens. In the oak grove bordering Joseph street about a score of little girls held a delightful picnic, and the boys up town kept up a fusillade of firecrackers all day. In the evening there was quite an extensive display of fireworks.

On Wednesday afternoon smoke was seen issuing from the warehouse of Karley's hardware store at the west side. On investigation it was found that quite a little blaze was in progress, commencing at the outside of the sill and working inward and upward. It was extinguished without difficulty. The fire was probably caused by a spark from a chimney.

As usual, the 24th was a great day at Charleston Lake. All the lively boats were in use by the numerous large and small picnic parties. Dr. Lillie and Mr. B. Loverin had their gasoline launches out, the latter having on board a party from Rockspring. There were but few fishing parties, the majority being out simply to see the lake in its new spring suit. The Inn was a busy place all day, and in the evening the parlors were occupied by a merry party of young people.

According to law, after Dec. 1st next, no person in Ontario shall use a sleigh less than four feet wide on outer edges of runners, single cutters and pleasure vehicles exempted. The manufacturers must therefore prepare to make wide sleighs for next season's trade, and farmers and teamsters must consider the best and cheapest way of widening their sleighs so as to meet the requirements of the law. Cities are exempted from this law, and any county may exempt itself.

On Monday last the official board of the Methodist church passed a unanimous vote of appreciation to Rev. S. J. Hughes for his faithful, efficient service, and expressed the wish that conference would continue his pastorate here.

The roof of the new Holiness Movement church at Smith's Falls gave way to a strong wind last week. The rafters had just been erected, and were not yet boarded. The brick walls were not strong enough, and they gave way at the top, tumbling the whole of the roof to the ground. There were men at work, but they noticed the walls falling, and got away safely.

Very general interest is manifested in the Methodist choir concert, to be held in the H. S. hall on Friday evening, and its success is assured. The programme is now before the public, and it promises a rich musical and literary treat. General admission, 25c; no reserved seats.

Court Athens Independent Order of Foresters hold a public meeting in their lodge room in the Central Block on Thursday evening at which addresses will be delivered by J. C. Davidson, D.S.C.R., of Toronto and John Bowman, Supreme Lecturer, of London. The general public, and particularly all interested in fraternal insurance, will be welcomed.

Farming, like all other business, has proved a science. Fortunately all farm produce is commanding a remunerative price. Good results can only be had from any source when we have done our best toward obtaining them. The most successful farmers have proved beyond doubt that profitable results come from feeding Poultry and all other Stock not only good grain, hay and ensilage but such Brain-makers and Tonics as Herbageum, International Stock Food, Poultry Food, Kow Kure, Horse Tonic, Linseed Meal, Oil Cake, The Great English Calf Food-Cream Equivalent, Granulated Bone & Oyster Shell for Hens.

All of the above are guaranteed to produce results that will pay a good dividend for the cost of them.

DRESS GOODS

When buying material for a dress, a lady's first consideration should be the weave and shade—what is going to be the vogue, "what they are wearing." It costs no more to get a fashionable fabric than an old pattern, and a mistake cannot be made in buying from our carefully selected line.

Voiles—The new superb dress goods in latest weaves—special value. See our new twine weave.

Mohairs and Sicillennes—These rich, moderately priced goods are very popular, and we offer them in browns, navys, and fancy blacks.

Crepe de Chenes and Eoliennes—Always fashionable—draped elegantly, and make a rich gown, suitable for all occasions.

Shepherd's Checks—The most popular of the Tartan line—makes an extremely pretty shirt waist suit, and wears well.

Ladies are invited to critically inspect our line of dress materials.

PIERCE & WILTSE
P.S.—Our line of boots and shoes, rubber goods, rain coats, etc., for ladies and gentlemen will satisfy your wants.
