The Growing Girl.

A very enjoyable parlor meeting convened in the interests of the W. C. T. U. was held at the residence of Mrs William Sclater, 4632 St. Cutherine street, yesterday afternoon.

Ag afternoon.

It had been happily arranged that Dr. Elizabeth Mitchell would give an adress of mo Capid's wings.

And her subject, "The Growing Girl," was treated in such a practical and interesting style as to engage the entire intervet of her hearers. In the course of her admirable paper Dr. Mitchell pointed out how good health and a cultivated mind were never more essential in her sex than the work of the proper more essential in her sex that how good health and a cultivated mind were never more essential in her sex that her many facility are at the present day.
