

The Evening Mercury

WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 31, 1890.

ATTORNEY General Martin has notified the Winnipeg city council that it must not pay money over to the Catholic school board, as it would be illegal.

The Quebec Legislature was prorogued on Tuesday. The new loan of $100,000,000 is projected chiefly for the purpose of taking up the floating debt, which is very large.

The negotiations in connection with Newfoundland are for the time suspended. Lord Salisbury is considering what part of the British possessions to offer as a territorial compensation in exchange for the French shore.

Mr. Gladstone's 81st birthday was celebrated at Hawarden on Monday. Telegrams of congratulation and a large number of presents arrived during the early part of the day from all parts of Great Britain, and there were also received several congratulations from the United States.

Mr. Tarte is mentioned as a possible candidate for the County of Portneuf. Should he run he will take the field as an independent, but more particularly as a champion of political rectitude. It is said that Mr. McGrovey will use his best efforts to defeat his enemy.

The elections to fill the vacancies in the Legislature for North Norfolk and South Norfolk have been fixed for Friday, January 25, nomination a week earlier. The North Norfolk Liberal convention has nominated Mr. E. C. Carpenter for the seat in the Legislature left vacant by the death of Mr. J. B. Freeman.

The Minister of Justice has just issued his annual report on the Dominion penitentiaries. The inmates on the 30th of June last numbered 1,251—an increase of fifty six for the year, but a decrease of sixty seven since 1878, when the total number of prisoners was 1,318. Only twenty two of the convicts are females. Thus the growth of population does not bring a corresponding increase of crime.

Mr. Plimsoll had an interview on Monday with the Minister of Marine. He stated that his visit to Canada has so far modified his views that he will not press for the slaughter before shipping of the small lean cattle, known as "stockers," which go to England at a time when snow comes in Canada and get the benefit of grass in England to fatten on. He still maintains, however, that fat cattle should be slaughtered.

The Late John Drew.
Another of the old settlers of Guelph township has gone to his account in the person of John Drew, who died on Saturday last, the 27th inst. of dropsy. Deceased was born in Richmond Barracks, Dublin, in 1813, his father being then a soldier in Lord Breadalban's Fencible Regiment, but who at the close of the war settled in his native place, Paisley, Scotland, and worked as his trade as weaver till 1828 when he emigrated to Guelph, first working on the Waterloo road and afterwards taking up lot 7, 2nd con, div. O, York Road. The family were one of ten who came out together to Canada. The Drew, Campbell, Fleming and Gravel families are settled on the York Road; the McKenney and Robertson families on the Waterloo Road, and the McKenney, Alexander, Ferguson and Craig families in the Paisley Block—this came being given to that section from the circumstance of these "Paisley bodies," as they were called, having settled in that part of the township. His father died in 1830, and deceased with his mother and brother and sister settled on and cleared what is now one of the best farms in the township. Some years after he married a sister of the late Wm Logan by whom he had two daughters, the youngest of whom died unmarried in 1865, and the other lives with her family upon the old homestead, being the widow of the late Mr. Brown. Deceased again married a sister of the late Col. Armstrong, another of the old Guelph families, who survives him. He leaves five grandsons and two granddaughters, with their mother, the oldest 18. Deceased was highly respected and was the last of the original settlers in this part of the township. Mr. Patrick Kelleher being the only other one surviving. The deceased was a quiet and retiring man, and was much respected by his friends and neighbors and all who came in contact with him.

Rushin Council.
The Council met in the Council room, Abercrombie, Monday, Dec. 29th, at ten o'clock a.m. The members were all present, the Revue in the chair.
On motion of Messrs. McNaughton and Scott, in re the petition of John D. McWilliams for a refund of his dog tax, no action was taken.
The account of Wm Nicol, executor of the Kennedy estate, for 40 yards gravel, supplied to Pathways, was ordered to be paid. The Council adjourned sine die.

Nominations.
The nomination of Reeve and Councilors for the ensuing year, was held in the township hall in the afternoon. There was a large attendance of ratepayers, and municipal matters, such as road making, filling sink holes, equalizing assessments, and effects of estate labor, were reviewed and finally ordered and temporarily discussed. There were three candidates nominated for the Reeve ship, three more for the Deputy Reeve ship, and four for the office of Councilors. Results—Mr. Wm Nicol was elected Reeve; Mr. Allan Stewart Deputy, and Messrs. James Scott, Daniel McNaughton and James Hume, Councilors, all by acclamation.

Abercrombie, Dec. 30th.
FROM LETHBRIDGE, N. W. C.—Mr. Ed Higgins, who is a son of H. Higgins, has arrived home last evening from Lethbridge, Alberta. He is now head of the firm of Higgins & Co., Lethbridge, and goes to work there, and is over purchasing goods for their trade. He expects to be in Ontario three weeks. When he left Lethbridge they were getting up a lacrosse match for Christmas day, the weather being simply perfect, with not a bit of snow. He was accompanied from Lethbridge by Mr. A. R. Colvin, who has gone on to visit his parents at Toronto. Mr. Colvin left Guelph a couple of years ago and has since been with Mr. J. D. Higgins in the drug business at Lethbridge. He has come east to study medicine. His successor will be Mr. W. S. Galbraith, another Guelph boy, now with a Hamilton & Co. Hamilton, who will leave Guelph for the west the latter part of next week.

Conference of the Home Rule.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Parrell and O'Brien this afternoon had a private conference, which lasted half an hour. They then had luncheon together, seem to be on very good terms. It is not expected any definite information of the result of the negotiations will be made known tonight.

The McCarthyites are said to have a bomb ready to explode in ships of the principal prosecution of Parrell for breaking into the office of the United Ireland.

The Great Fire in London.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The fire originated in the building occupied by O. Davidson & Son, paper and paper felt manufacturers, formerly paper bag makers, at 119 Queen Victoria street. It was a large structure and was completely gutted as was also that of Adolph Frank & Co., manufacturers of plates and importers of tobacco, at 121 Queen Victoria street. Old St. Benet's Church, a famous Welsh church, caught fire, the blazing steeple of the terrible scene. The firemen at one time obtained control of the flames at this point and the neighbourhood was for a time saved. At 4:30 p.m. four large blocks of buildings were in flames, burning fiercely.

The firemen saved the Salvation Army headquarters. The fire finally burned itself out. The department with 29 engines is still pouring water on mountains of smouldering debris. A rough estimate of the damage places the amount at $1,500,000, but $2,000,000 may eventually prove to be the loss.

6 p.m.—Later advice state that parts of St. Benet's Church were not destroyed. The weather was so cold that the water frozen almost in the air and formed ice all over the fire apparatus and over the firemen. There was no loss of life, but few accidents among the firemen. The cause of the fire is unknown. The damage is now estimated at $2,000,000.

Conesago Correspondence.

Mr. Thomas Hillard, of Waterloo, preached in the Methodist church last Sunday. His discourse was on 1 Corinthians xiii. We never heard the subject of Love handled in so practical and able a manner before.

Mr. George Burnett is down sick with inflammation of the lungs.

The contest for the reeve ship of Woolwich promises to be a lively one this year. There are three candidates in the field, viz. D. B. Snyder, an ex reeve, J. L. Umbach, another ex reeve, and Alex. Peterson, the present reeve. As the Wardenship of the county passes to Woolwich next year it is to be hoped the electors will not cast their votes for one not capable of filling that office.

The following officers and teachers were elected for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the U.S.S. on the 26th inst.: Superintendent, J. G. Harris; Assistant Superintendent, G. A. McIntyre; Secretary, Treasurer, N. B. Boush; Librarian, Miss Ida Boush; Organist, Mrs. Hurd. Teachers—Mrs. McIntyre, Mr. Bowman, Mrs. Hurd, Mrs. Bowman, Miss Nellie Wright and Mrs. Hurd.

Trenchery of the Indians.

THE FOOT'S HAND ATTACK A TROOP OF CAVALRY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Official despatches from Gen. Miles, dated Rapid City, S. D., were received tonight telling of the fight in the Bad Lands today between the Indian hostiles and the white troops. He says: Whiteside had four troops of cavalry and held the Indians till they reached him with four more troops. At night, at 8:30 this morning, while the Indians and soldiers on foot surrounded the Indians a detachment of cavalry was sent to search the tress. About 60 guns were found, but while this work was going on the warriors had an incantation powwow. The tress had been gone through, an order was given to search the warriors. All thoughts of trouble were evidently wholly out of the mind of the soldiers. A dozen of the warriors had been searched, when, like a flash, all the rest of them jerked guns from under their blankets and began pouring bullets into the ranks of the soldiers, who a few minutes before, had moved up within almost gun-length. Those Indians who had no guns rushed on the soldiers with tomahawks in one hand and scalping knives in the other. Oh, it was a demoniac, a hellishly horrible rush. With Gen. Forsythe and Major Whiteside I stood when the firing started, within scorching distance of the death-dealing devils. The only thing that saved all three of us from instant death was that the Indians had their backs turned to us when they began firing. Their first volley was almost as if fired by one man, so that they must have fired a hundred shots before the soldiers fired one. But, oh how they were slaughtered after the first volley. Some, however, succeeded in getting through the lines and away to the small hills to the southwest. The firing lasted a half hour, and even as I write these words I hear Hotchkiss pouring shots into the gulleys to the north, where a few of the devils have taken refuge. Father Crafts, a Catholic priest, was mortally wounded in the lungs. Many of the wounded lay in the foreground. Lieut. Kende received but a slight wound in the cord of the ankle.

It is estimated that the number of killed and wounded soldiers is about 50. Just now it is impossible to state the exact number of dead Indians. There are many more than 50, however, killed outright. The soldiers are shooting the Indians down wherever found, no quarter being given by anyone. Lieut. O'Donoghue of Arcton fame was shot through the arm at the elbow. To say that it was a most daring feat, 120 Indians attacking 500 cavalry, expresses the situation but fails to say it could only have been insanity which prompted such a deed.

ROSELVILLE, Neb., Dec. 30.—At 4 a.m. today an attempt was made by two "Grits" band to capture the Seventh Cavalry supply train returning from the scene of yesterday's fight at Little Wounded Knee. Upon hearing the shots the troops made a rush around the reds and killed 33 of them. In response to the signal lights sent up last night hundreds of soldiers took refuge here in the churches and court room. A better feeling prevails at Pine Ridge.

Two Surin and his band have retreated in a northwesterly direction from the agency, and it is supposed he is trying to make his way back to the Bad Lands. Thus far the Pine Ridge Indians have taken no active part in the war, but the Big Foot, Slow Bear, Kicking Bear and Two Strike bands have been and are active in the disturbance.

Col. Forsythe says 63 dead Indian men were counted on the plain where the attempt was made to destroy Big Foot's band and where the fight began. On other parts of the ground there were eighteen more. These do not include those killed in the ravines, where dead warriors were seen but not counted. Six were brought in badly wounded, and six others with a party of 23 men and women which Capt. Jackson had to abandon when attacked by about 150 Brule Indians from the agency. This accounts for 99 men killed, and leaves but few alive and unborn. The women and children broke for the hills when the fight commenced, and comparatively few of them were hurt and few brought in.

Gen. Forsythe says the fight was a most unfortunate occurrence, but he did not see how it could have been avoided.

Fergus Correspondence.
LATHING.—Mr. and Mrs. Nairn left today for their new home in Galt. Many regrets are expressed that their best interests have called them from us. During the past week they have been shown many kindnesses, amongst which may be mentioned the photograph of Mrs. Nairn's Sunday School class, presented by the class to her; Stanley's volume "In Dark-est Africa," presented to Mr. Nairn by his Sunday School class; a supper last night at Mrs. Kemp's by the Oddfellows to Mr. Nairn; special reference to both in the Sunday School on Sunday, and so on. We beg to add our tribute to the worth of both our loss and Galt's gain. They are superior citizens, good and earnest Christians and Church workers, pleasant in company, take an active interest in what is going on and are thoroughly reliable and truly trustworthy in every way. We are sorry they are going. Melville Church and Fergus should have given them a public farewell, with something tangible as a mark of their favor. In saying good bye we wish them and their health and happiness in abundance.

XMAS.—The 25th of December, '90, was very quiet in Fergus. There was nothing of a public nature going on, and the enjoyment was where it ought to be, at home. Family gatherings, with examinations into the workings of Santa Claus, the children of Xmas boxes by the young girls and boys, from 12 years old and upwards, who could not tell where their lovely gifts came from, and yet people in the back of a card when they should not. All combined made a happy day, and cold weather made the house still more attractive, and so Xmas '90, went.

SUNDAY.—The Methodist Sunday School tea meeting in the drill shed Xmas night was very well attended and passed off well.

BELWOOD.—The Foresters concert at Belwood was a great success, nearly $120 being taken at the door.

MUNICIPAL.—There is now, and has been since the nominations yesterday, considerable excitement. Mr. R. Steele and Dr. Johnson were nominated for Reeve, Messrs. Hurd, Hamilton, R. H. Perry, Patterson, Forbes, D. Thomson, G. A. Reid and Gow, for councilors, and Messrs. M. Anderson, J. Craig, Hunt and Alex. Mills for trustees. A public meeting was held in the hall last night, when the ambitious men none the less addressed the audience. Most of the councilors nominated have withdrawn and the old council, with Jas. Patterson, will be elected, and will be the council for 1891.

CHURCH.—Sacrament will be dispensed in Melville on Sunday. Prof. Thomson, Toronto, preaching. The Mullin holds a prayer meeting tomorrow night at 10:30 to finish the old year, 1890.

GABRIELLA.—Probably the council in this township will be elected by acclamation, and will be Messrs. Collingridge, Black and Clarke. The contest will be between Messrs. McDonald and Dryden for Reeve and Hanns and Ranson for deputy.

NOTES.—Skating rink was opened on Saturday night. It has the electric light and should be well patronized. The case against Mr. Baker tried on Saturday last was dismissed, there was no evidence to convict. Miss Maggie Moore, of Fergus, has been engaged by the School Board to take the place of Miss McDougall, assistant High School teacher. Miss Moore was chosen out of 14 applicants. Her recommendations and qualifications are first class and she will no doubt give good satisfaction. No sleighing yet. We wish all a happy New Year and many of them.
