SERIOUS FIRE AT BATH

A very serious fire occurred here recently when the fine residence until recently occupied by Edward Drost was about totally destroyed. The building is owned by Bohan & Co. and carried small insurance. But for the good work and excellent water supply a much larger damage may have resulted.

Rev. G. W. Henderson, who has had charge of the Baptist church during the past summer and autumn, preached his farewell sermon Sunday evening to a large congregation. Mr. Henderson has been engaged as Pastor of the Pentecostal Church at Oxford, N. S., where he is removing at the end of this week. His many friends here wish him and his family every success and prosperity and will always remember his services here.

Rev. J. B. Ganong of St. John was a caller here on Friday last. He is endeavoring to secure a successor to Rev. Mr. Henderson this Baptist field now being vacant.

Hay & Vaniderstein and Amos Demerchant are preparing and cutting considerable quantity of lumber on the Monquart stream for their respective mills.

Miss Augusta Slipp of St. John is expected to speak in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening next. Subject: Foreign Missions.

The farmers are not offering potatoes to the market here at the present time owing the low prices in comparison to what they have received and on account of the cold weather.

G. S. Larlee has again resumed his old position as Station agent here, with Wm. Keenan as assistant. He has his mother taking care of his home.

Dr. Commins intends opening a new drug store, located in his new building erected on the site of the former Tompkins Bros. store where their building was destroyed by fire some few years ago. The opening will take place about December 1.

A very successful school concert was held here recently when the following program was carried out and a basket social held in the evening when the sum of $1.32 was realized for the Belgian Relief Fund.

THE ANSWER IS WEAR RUBBERS

Many People Will Don Goloshes Early This Season to Combat the High Cost of Leather Foot-wear

"Buy rubbers," says the shoe-man, the dealer who plays fair with his customers.

Leather is up and shoes are up to such an extent that the buying of a pair of shoes is almost on a level with the acquiring of a new suit or coat. Shoes must be worn, but the economical person will don rubbers as soon as the weather gets the least bit "damp under foot"; not only for the protection to the health that the rubbers afford, but to save the costly shoes he or she wears.

There was never a problem in economics that was not solved sooner or later, and rubbers and overshoes seem to be the answer to the augmented price of shoes this winter.

G. Gee, M. Brennan, Wm. Gorman.

Recitation, Kaiser's Dream, Florence Brown.

Tableau, Measuring His Generosity.

Dialogue, Counting Eggs, M. Brennan, W. Simms.

Chorus, Cuckoo.

Recitation, Rock of Ages, Ella Giberson.

Flag Drill, Girls.

Auld Lang Syne.

God Save The King.

Thomas Pickard is principal of Bath school and Miss B. Giberson is in charge of the primary department.

Fire at Kilburn—Teacher has Typhoid

The home of Fred Grant was badly damaged by fire on Sunday afternoon. The fire was noticed about 4 o'clock by friends at Bairdville who telephoned to the Kilburn folk. Mr. and Mrs. Grant and children being away the neighbors broke into the house and removed most of the household effects, the flames having gained such headway that it seemed impossible to save the building, but after hard fighting the fire was extinguished. The inside of the house was badly damaged and a large quantity of clothing was destroyed. It is thought that the fire originated near the kitchen stove.

Recognition Service at Windsor

Despite the threatening appearance of rain the church in Windsor held an audience composed of representatives from all the Baptist churches of the Windsor field on Wednesday evening last, the occasion being the Recognition Service of the pastor-elect, W. B. Crowell. The addresses were of a very high order, impressive, practical and timely. As telling points were made the audience made expression of its approval. The music rendered by the choir was especially good and fully maintained the reputation sustained in the past. Rev. J. B. Ganong, Supt. of Home Missions, spoke on the Relation of the Pastor to the Church and was followed by Rev. E. C. Jenkins of East Florenceville, who spoke on the Relation of the Church to the Pastor. Rev. I. E. VanWart of Coldstream extended heartily a Welcome to the District, while Rev. James Colhoun, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Glassville, felicitously and eloquently extended a Welcome to the Inter-denominational Activities of the County. A suitable reply was made by the pastor of the church. The church was heartened by these exercises and both pastor and people begin their new relationship by a broadened outlook of possibilities and of results.

Death at Summerfield

The sad death of George William Green took place at his home on Monday evening, Nov. 13. He had been in poor health for about a year suffering from tuberculosis. All that loving hands could do was of no avail and he passed peacefully away at the early age of 18 years. He was always patient and cheerful; his mother was his constant companion. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Green, and was one of Summerfield's most industrious and promising young men.

The funeral service was held in the Methodist church and was conducted by Rev. Edgar Grant of Clearview assisted by Rev. G. A. Ross of Florenceville. The funeral management was in charge of James Green. Interment was made in the Summerfield cemetery. The pall bearers were four cousins of deceased: Gardiner, Stillman, Alton and Henry Townsend of Mars Hill. He leaves to mourn his loss, his father, and mother, three brothers, Russell, Earl and Lea, and three sisters, Lucy, Rilla and Georgia all at home. Also three grandparents, Mrs. Sarah Green and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lunn. To all the members of his family the sincere sympathy of the community goes out to them in their recent bereavement. He died in the hope of a glorious resurrection. "Safe in the arms of Jesus; Safe on his gentle breast."
