CARLETON COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION

Report of Annual District Conventions Held March 12-22, 1918

Owing to the severe storm and blockade on the I. C. R., Rev. J. W. Brown, Ph. D., was not able to attend the first convention held at Mt. Pleasant on March 12. The Brighton District Convention at Windsor was postponed on account of bad roads. Dr. Brown arrived on Wednesday evening at East Florenceville and attended his first convention in the county at Florenceville on Thursday evening, March 14. The County Secretary accompanied him at all the conventions held, the last one at Debec on Thursday, March 22. The largest attendance at any place was at Upper Knoxford on Sunday, March 17. There was a good interest taken in Sunday school work and much helpful discussion at all the conventions. Dr. Brown charted the different schools, and in several districts there was a gratifying increase in standing since last year. The highest average standing of the schools reporting, according to the International Sunday School Chart, was for the district of Kent with an average of 75 per cent. Woodstock came next with an average of 72.5 and Richmond with 66.17. Three schools reached 100 per cent, Bath U. B., Woodstock U. B. and R. B. Richmond led in number of Cradle Rolls. The C. R. members of the Woodstock churches were reported as follows: United Baptist 87, Methodist 30, Reformed Baptist 18, Adventist 16, Presbyterian 11. The Home Department enrollment was as follows: United Baptist 50, Reformed Baptist 25, Adventist 21, Methodist 18.

Dr. Brown's addresses and talks on Sunday school work and problems were very practical and instructive. He condemned strongly the sending of cigarettes to our soldier boys. He gave instances of the rapid increase of cigarette smoking among the girls and young women of our land. At two of the conventions resolutions were passed, strongly protesting against Canadian grain being shipped to England to be used in the breweries to make beer and whiskey.

In the election of District officers for 1918-1919, a different arrangement of Departments was used. The Superintendent of the Elementary Division has charge of the work among children up to the age of 12 years. The Secondary Division includes those between 12 and 24. Adult Division includes the Home Department, Education Division includes Teacher Training, Temperance and Missions. Administration Division is a new Department and has to do with the proper organization of schools.

All the new officers are being supplied with manuals of instruction as to their duties. These manuals are supplied free to County and District officers by the New Brunswick Sunday School Association.

Any others wishing to obtain copies may procure them for five cents each by writing to the N. B. Assoc. Headquarters, St. John, or to the County Sec'y, Clark A. McBride, Centreville.

Letter from the Front—Tells of Soldier 73 Years Old

Somewhere in France
Dec. 27, 1917.

Dear Lottie and Children:
Christmas has passed and I had a very nice time. It was a cloudy night with moon peeping through at times Christmas eve. Next day was pretty nice but a cold raw wind. Breakfast as usual and I was on tent cleaning fatigue. Wrote a few letters and got one from Susie dated Nov. 11. For dinner we had chicken, mashed potatoes, ground bully beef, cabbage, bread, English Christmas pudding and ginger beer or pop, was waited on by sergeants and corporals. For supper we had tea, sliced ham, bread, butter, cheese and a nice piece of raisin pie with tea. In afternoon Jock (my dog) and I went out to sand dunes, which here are covered with pine woods—a dwarf pine or Jack pine. We spent two hours roaming around looking for rabbits who dig holes in sand hills and Jock dug for some but got none. We had a good walk and Jock was delighted. Albeit Jock will have some good old hunts if I can get him back to old N. B. won't he Charlie boy? In evening I went to Y. M. C. A. but called Gordon Hut where each soldier was handed a little cloth or cotton bag of candy. Mine was all stuck up as it was acid drop but one of the girls in Hut gave me an extra bag for Jock. It's a dandy and I expect to send a box home soon and it will be in box if I can keep it good (Jock had chicken bones and some nice pieces for Christmas dinner and real English bread for tea). We had all cake (cookies) real English currant bread and tea free also an apple. We formed in two lines and walked by a Christmas tree. Santa Claus, a real tall Santa Claus, with red cloak and pants, trimmed in white fur and wool and bushy grey or white looking young ladies—one from New Zealand and the other from Yorkshire in England, handed each of us a present as we walked by and went down to the lecture rooms where we listened to a Band Concert for an hour. It was grand the way all public huts were decorated and our beautiful Union Jack was freely displayed in every public hut. It's the most beautiful flag that flies in earth's breezes and the truest liberty our world knows is seen and felt wherever it flies. God bless our Flag!

My present was a nice writing case with a good stock of paper and envelopes, a most welcome present to me. Oh! it brought Christmas near to the hearts of us soldier boys. I could not go out without going up to our good old Christian officer who had charge of ceremony and giving him my thanks for the real good home-like Christmas cheer, he and they had given. No one home can realize how the Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army, Church of England, and Catholic and other church huts are doing out here in this war for us soldiers. We can hardly realize (Continued on next page)
