FUNERAL OF FRANK KEARNEY

The funeral of Frank Kearney who died from injuries sustained in his team colliding with the train near Stickney, was held on Jan. 14 from the Bristol church where interment was made. The service was largely attended. Col. W. W. Melville was director; Rupert Long, Joseph Tompkins, Lorne Simonson and Caldwell Kearney were pallbearers. Service was conducted by Rev. H. V. Bragdon assisted by Rev. A. Hatfield, G. A. Giberson, C. O. Howlett and C. Gray.

Mr. Kearney leaves to mourn their sad loss, a wife, daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Sprague, two sons, Harry and Earl, one daughter, Mary; three brothers, Avard of Fort Fairfield, Eber of Bristol and John in the west. The Primitive Baptist church and a faithful and earnest Christian, and left evidence that he has gone to be with Christ which is far better. Frequently in testimony he expressed his not expect to lay down the weapon of his warfare until he laid them at his Master's feet. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife and family.—H. V. B.

JOHN H. STITHAM

Friends of John H. Stitham will be sorry to hear of his death which occurred December 22 at his home, Monquart Settlement, after a few days illness in his 71st year. Deceased was a life long resident of the community and will be remembered as a true friend, a good neighbor, and a Christian. Early in life he embraced the Christian faith and identified himself with the Primitive Baptists of which denomination he remained a faithful friend. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Bath and conducted by Rev. A. Hatfield and G. A.

Giberson. Deceased leaves to mourn, a loving wife, Mrs. Jane Stitham, three daughters, Mrs. Howard Bell of Lakeville, Mrs. Henry Brooks and Miss Joseph Burke of Bristol, and one son, Amos, also five sisters and two brothers—Mrs. John Galtivan of Deerfield, Mrs. Alexander Sproul, Woodstock, Mrs. Geo. Dyer, Florenceville, Mrs. Alexander Hall, Johnsonville and Mrs. Allen Johnson, Charlestown, Mass., and Walter and James Stitham of Bath. The pallbearers were his five nephews, James Galtivan, Walter Boyd, Claudi Boyd, John Hall, Herbert Stitham and his son-in-law Henry Brooks. Interment was made in Bath cemetery.

WENDELL HUTCHINSON

The community was shocked to hear that on Monday 24th inst. Wendell Hutchinson a well known and respected citizen of Wicklow had suddenly expired of cardiac hemorrhage. He had driven to Frederickton on business and on his return called at a neighbor's. Sitting by the fire to warm he suddenly sprang upright and taking a few uncertain steps fell to the floor, dying instantly. Not more than a minute had elapsed since he had entered the house. His death was the more unexpected as only that day he had said to acquaintances whom he had met in Bath that he was feeling better this winter than for some years. He was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson. Born Jan. 2, 1875, his life had been lived in Wicklow with the exception of eight years from 1900 to 1908 which he spent in Butte, Montana. He is survived by two brothers, Chase of Minnetonka, Wis., and Rupert of St. Paul, Minn., sisters, Mrs. Elna Millary at home, Mrs. Helen Stevens, West Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Sarah Hutchinson, Whitman, Mass. The funeral was held on Jan. 27. The pallbearers were six cousins, Charles, Frank and Harvey Giberson, Charles and Robert Batey and Fredy Parker, conducted by Boardman Wheeler. A short service was held at the home after which the remains were taken to the U. B. church where the large concourse assembled testified to the place he held in the heart of his friends and associates. The service was conducted at the church under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias of Bath of which lodge he was a charter member. Rev. C. O. Howlett, B. A., B. D., chairman of the lodge, spoke comforting words from John 14: "Let not your heart be troubled." The choir sang "Nearer, Still Nearer" and "Silent." Miss Alverette Eschbrooks sang "Does Jesus Care" most fittingly. A male quartette composed of boyhood friends who had sung with him at many a funeral service sang "Sweet be thy Rest" and "Lay him low" and two Pythian brothers rendered the duet "There'll be no disappointments in Heaven." The funeral tributes were many and beautiful. He was an ardent member of the United Farmers, Secretary of schools and commissioner of highways for a number of years. His untimely death has cast a gloom over a large circle of friends for his genial face and generous heart will long be remembered by all.

H. N. CONNELL TAKES UNTO HIMSELF A BRIDE

(From a Washington Paper) H. N. Connell, well known business man and a pioneer of the city, was married in St. Paul, Minn., on Thursday, to Mrs. Mary E. Parker of that city. The Very Rev. William McGovern, D. D., officiated. The bride was given away by Mr. Fred W. Merritt and attended by Miss Julia Merritt. The groom was escorted by the Hon. William M. Connell of Woodstock, N. B. In the long past years the couple were young sweethearts back in the old Canadian province by the sea, not far from the "Land of Evangeline" but in the course of later years, and the object of her first love on a visit to Vancouver, B. C., and now the marriage down in the sunshine and roses of Los Angeles culminates the happy romance of the "old, old story."

A regular incident in connection with the above affair was the meeting of Mr. Connell with his cousin W. M. Connell, a prominent attorney and clerk of the circuit court of Woodstock, N. B. In arranging for the service at the church he discovered that the cousin had been married only a few weeks previous at the same church and the same clergyman to a noted society lady of Los Angeles and was there spending their honeymoon in the city.
