Music and the Drama

A very delightful musicale was given last evening by the pupils of Mr. Arthur Ostler, in the recital-hall of the Conservatory of Music. A large audience was in attendance and heartily endorsed the different numbers. Mr. Ostler is deserving of great credit for the excellent manner in which his pupils played their selections. Miss May Smith, a pupil of Miss Adeline Smith, favored the audience with two vocal solos that were nicely rendered, and Mr. G. Hutton, a pupil of Mr. E. Bartmann, played a cello solo with splendid taste. One of the most enjoyable features of the programme was the quintette, which opened and closed the performance. The programme was as follows:

- Quintette Fauconier
- A. Presnell, R. Hopper, M. Pingle, M. Green, G. Hutton.
- Evening McIntyre
- Master A. Fauman.
- Cavatina Raff
- Miss Ethel Clowes.
- Allegro Maestoso, Concert IX. De Bériol
- H. Reed.
- Trio In A Minor Wolfhart
- E. Clowes, M. Pingle, G. Hutton.
- Simple Air Thome
- Mr. W. G. Darwin.
- Borowski
- Adoration Borowski
- Mr. Merle Green.
- (a) Nocturne Goring Thomas
- (b) Time's Rose Barry
- La Cinquantaine Gabriel-Marie
- Miss Rosalie Hopper.
- Elegie Massenet
- Miss G. Hutton.
- Souvenir Drella
- Miss Winnifred Watson.
- Adagio and Rondo, Concerto IX. (De Bériot)
- Miss Alberta Presnell.
- Quintette Fauconier
- A. Presnell, E. Clowes, M. Pingle, H. Reed, G. Hutton.
- Minstrels To-night.

The Toronto Rowing Club Minstrels, who will delight Hamiltonians to-night at the Grand Opera House, are doing nothing by halves. There will be a concert performance from the time they arrive in the city by a special train at 5.45 p.m., and the first thing will be a special parade in costumes specially made for the occasion. The parade will start from the C. T. R. station, headed by the club's own band, and will proceed down James street to the Waldorf Hotel.

After supper the Toronto Rowing Club Minstrels will parade again to the Grand Opera House, where they will dispense melody and mirth in a way not outside even by the famous professional companies in England and the United States. The singing will be done by vocalists that sing to the heart. Mr. Cartan has a sweet tenor voice, and knows how to use it. Mr. Kennedy, bass soloist, is as well known in the city as the club's and for concord a dangerous competitor. Everybody loves quartette singing, and Hamiltonians will have a chance to-night to hear a good one at the Grand Opera House.

Murder Charge.
Raleigh, N. C., May 22.—Edward Oakley, a young white man, has been arrested in Clarksville, Va., and brought here, charged with the murder of Mrs. J. M. Underwood and her young son, and the burning of their house at Fugate Springs, to conceal the crime. Feb. 1 last, Oakley had a quarrel with the husband of the woman, and the governor offered a reward for the young man's arrest. He denies the crime.

EMPIRE DAY
Loyally Celebrated in the Schools To-day

Nowhere was Empire Day celebrated than in the schools of the city. The devoted to the exposition subjects and instilling the love of flag and country. The schools this afternoon programme was given. WILL HAVE A FINE STREET CAR SERVICE by way of Barton street and Sanford avenue, over the old Radial tracks on Wilson street to the corner of James and Gore streets.

Under the new arrangement the York street service would be greatly improved. The car leaving the stub end at Main and Dundurn streets will run north on Dundurn to York street. Every alternate car will start from the stub end at the cemetery gates. The cars and from both stubs will run easterly on York to James, King to Wellington and by way of Stinson street and Delaware avenue to Sherman avenue.

Stuart street cars will run as at present, via James street to Herkimer, thence to the terminus at Garth street, and then back by way of Locke, King and James streets to the depot.

James street cars, as at present, will go by way of King west and Locke streets to the head of Garth street, returning by way of Herkimer and James streets to the steamboat wharves.

Under the new arrangement in the east end, the tracks on Wentworth street south are to be taken up. The city wants them removed for a line from King to Wilson streets on Sanford avenue, making another complete loop. Under this scheme cars would run as at present, from Sherman avenue west on King to James street, to Barton street, easterly to the Jockey Club, and back by way of Barton street to Sherman avenue.

There is some talk of doing away with the present tracks on Margaret street and placing them on Locke, as the present arrangement requires three curves. As Locke street, between Main and King, is very narrow, however, it is doubtful if this will be done. It would prove rather expensive widening the street.

The sub-committee will meet at 4.30 this afternoon to go over the plans again.

The city and the Cataract Company today squared up their bills. On account of the judgment in the street lighting arbitration, the city has been refusing to pay the account, and the company it turns held back the City Railway cheque. The City Treasurer received a cheque from the company for $7,228, covering the percentage and mileage for the first quarter of this year, and he handed to the company a cheque for $7,159 for the street lighting.

The company's net earnings for the first quarter of this year were $64,281.98, as compared with $62,099.68 for the corresponding quarter last year, an increase of $2,182.30. The city's percentage this quarter was $3,142.53, as compared with $4,967.50 in 1907, an increase of $1,824.97. Although an increase is shown, the City Treasurer admits that it is quite possible, as the company claims, that there was a falling off in receipts after January.

Building permits were granted today to W. Jacques for a frame house at the corner of Wood and Wilson streets, to cost $200, and to H. Zimmerman for a brick house on George street, between Locke and Pearl streets, to cost $2,100.

In view of the Finance Committee's action last night on the controversy over the site of the Southern Home and the indignation given by the donors if the site was changed at 10 a. m. on Sunday his offer, it is not expected that there will be a Council meeting to-night, as arranged. Mayor Stewart, however, will be obliged to attend and declare the meeting off when there is no quorum.

He will have to go through the same formality on Tuesday night, as a result of the decision to meet on Thursday night instead.

LOST THEIR STRIKE.
Windsor, Ont., May 22.—About twenty of the two hundred Michigan Central tunnel workers, who struck for higher wages on Tuesday, applied for reinstatement last evening, but were refused work by the contractors and were ordered off the premises. The authorities do not fear any further trouble with the strikers.

CRIST MILL BURNED
Linwood, Ont., May 22.—The large grist mill owned and operated by Mr. Joseph Edie, of this village, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $8,000; partly covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is as yet unknown.

No. 9 Co., C. A. S. C., will parade at headquarters at 10 a. m. on Sunday at the headquarters for the purpose of attending divine service at St. Andrew's Church.

OBITUARY.

Death of Former Hamilton Man in Winnipeg.

Word has just been received that Jack Richmond, eldest son of the late Alfred and Mary Richmond, 438 York street, died in Winnipeg on Wednesday, May 20, at the age of 46 years. Deceased was born in Hamilton. He leaves a widow and three sons, Alfred, Rodger and John, also a brother, William, in Detroit, and a sister, Miss Lillie, in this city.

The remains of Jeremiah Gallivan were laid at rest this morning, the funeral taking place at 8.30 from his late residence, 24 Ontario avenue, to St. Patrick's Church, where mass was said by Rev. Father Walsh; thence to Holy Sepulchre cemetery for interment. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Cummings, John and J. F. Cummings, D. Sullivan, H. Gallivan and J. Kelly.

The funeral of Pasquale Grandillo, who died at the City Hospital yesterday morning, took place at 8.30 this morning from Jas. Dwyer's undertaking rooms to St. Mary's Cathedral, thence to Holy Sepulchre cemetery for interment. Rev. Father Walsh officiated.

GUILTY OF MURDER.

the court room by the county constables and taken from the building to the jail where he remained over night.

The court room was crowded all afternoon by an eager audience, and it was thought at one time that the jury would not bring in its verdict last evening at all. At 5.40 the verdict was given. It was announced this morning that Greco, would not be brought up for sentence until the end of the court, which will be about noon tomorrow.

Mr. M. J. O'Reilly, K. C., counsel for Giuseppe, said he did not know at the moment just what course he would pursue, but he thought he would apply to the Minister of Justice for a commutation.

No Bill Against Bruno.
The Grand Jury this morning brought in "No bill" against Bruno Greco, brother of Giuseppe. The count was "accessory after the fact." The Crown did not have enough evidence to warrant putting him on trial except for common assault against Mendola, whom it is alleged that he struck with a pick handle, whereupon the latter tried to assist Kieszio in resisting the police.

Giuseppe will be sentenced to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and it is understood he will be sentenced to be hanged on Aug. 21. That will give Mr. O'Reilly an opportunity to enter an appeal to the Minister of Justice, and it is expected that the Chief Justice will ask for executive clemency, thus sending Giuseppe to the penitentiary.

There was no disagreement on the part of the jury in the murder trial, at any time, it being ascertained that the reason it had taken so long to come to a decision was that the jurors were very carefully over the evidence to see if there was a loophole by which they could find none. There was no balloting, the jury being of one mind on the subject from the start. One of the jurymen said he was also found impossible.

Mr. S. F. Washington, K. C., the assistant Crown Prosecutor, will receive the sentence for the Crown, Mr. Coatsworth being unable to be present to-morrow morning.

Bruno Took Release Badly.
Mr. O'Reilly took the order for the discharge of Bruno down to the jail about 11.30 this morning, and it was expected that he would be delighted to get his freedom. When he learned, however, that he would not see his brother again, he began pounding his head with his fists, in his cell, and seemed to go out of his mind for a while. It took the jail authorities some time to get him quieted, but it was with tears in his eyes that he left the jail.

The hard part of it was that there was no interest present when he was given his release to explain to him the positions that he and his brother were in, and he could not be made to understand why it was that he was let go and his brother kept in.

Barrie's Masterpiece.
Rev. J. M. Barrie, who has made a fortune of over a million of dollars because he could depict human nature in story and play, just that much better than other writers, proclaims "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire" to be his most ambitious and matured effort.

The story of the play will not be told in advance. No one can out-Barrie Barrie! It would be an insult to the Dean of Scotch writers to attempt depicting in few words what Barrie himself could only do through the vital forceful medium of the play. Patrons of the letter

NINE ARRESTED.

Were Found Picketing at Buck Stove Works.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)
Brantford, Ont., May 22.—Nine union moulders were arrested last night, and for a while it looked as if the men would be kept in jail. They were found picketing at the stove works in spite of the order of the court, yesterday morning, that the practice should cease. Pressure was brought to bear, however, and they were admitted to bail, the money supplied by Ald. Wright and Fred Corey. The men were Cecil Schram, Walter O'Connell, D. Sisco, Wm. Morrison, Thos. Corey and P. Aylesworth.

A strike breaker named Egan was arrested at the Clarence street subway this morning with a loaded revolver in his possession. He was brought to the station, where the revolver was confiscated. He was discharged.

Mr. J. H. Fisher, the Conservative candidate in North Brant, held a good meeting at Grandview last night. A building permit has been issued to Henry Hawley for the erection of a brick dwelling on Ontario street.

The Brantford troops of the Burford Dragons, under Lieut. G. J. Smith, held a fine drill at the Armouries last night. The Dragons will go to St. Andrew's Church Sunday with a garrison parade.

The deputation of Six Nations chiefs returned last night from Ottawa, where they were favorably received by Hon. Frank Oliver. Their request was for an increase of the loan to the Six Nations, but no definite promise was made.

Trades and Labor Council.
The Trades and Labor Council held its regular meeting Wednesday, when a request was made by H. J. Halford, of Hamilton, for financial assistance for the campaign, on behalf of Allan Studholme, in East Hamilton, on the memorial presented expressed strong sympathy with the Hamilton labor candidate, but owing to the reduced finances were only able to vote the meagre sum of $5 for the purpose of assisting him. In this connection Delegate J. Hackett expressed the opinion that the money provided for the labor educational convention in Kingston on May 25th, might have been better spent in supporting Mr. Studholme. A local tailoring merchant was reported to have recently supplied 25 suits of clothing to the strike breakers at the Buck Stove Works, and it was decided to report the matter to every union in the city. It was claimed that the suits were made in Toronto. A communication was received from Hon. Frank Oliver in reply to a resolution recently passed, that no immigrants, but those who were bona fide purchasers of tickets to Canada, were assisted by the immigration authorities, and that booking agents were only remunerated for securing this class of immigrant.

No Scoop on Ma.
"Mille" said the young man as he slipped the engagement ring on her finger, "have you told your mother about this?"
"Oh, you innocent!" exclaimed Miss Mille. "Why, Clarence, mamma knew it six months before you did."

A Useful Lamp Stand.
One of the features of a flat neighbor's cosy dining room is her lamp stand—the small, home-made table on which she keeps her lamps when not in active use and in which she hides her cans of oil, her lamp cloths, wicks and trimming scissors.

The stand consists of a good-sized packing box laid on its side and provided with short feet; the opening is toward the room, and a stout shelf is nailed across the inside, on which lie the wicks, scissors and polishing cloths; the floor of the box stand the two cans of oil. The top of the box is neatly covered with hessian in a small mosaic pattern, and the sides with a long valance of chintz, which valance is draped across the front in a certain depending from a small brass rod and opening in the middle.

Boiled Down.
"Tired of hearing my 'sugary words,' are you, Pulsatilla Corkin?" bellowed the indignant Orlando. "Perhaps you will be kind enough to tell me, Miss Corkin, what a sugary word is? What is it made of?"

"It is made, Mr. Spoonmore," answered the fair Pulsatilla, "of verbum sap."

Without another word of any description Orlando Spoonmore grabbed his hat and groped his way out into the darksome night. The blow had crushed him.
