THE BOY WHO DIDN'T PASS. (Youth's Companion). A sad-faced little fellow sits alone in deep disgrace, There's a lump arising in his throat, tears streaming down his face; He wandered from his playmates, for he doesn't want to hear Their shouts of merry laughter since the world has lost its cheer; He has sipped the cup of sorrow, he has drained the bitter glass, And his heart is fairly breaking; he's in the apple tree the robin sings a cheery little song, But he doesn't seem to hear it, showing plainly something's wrong; Comes his faithful little spaniel for a romp and bit of play, But the troubled little fellow sternly bids him go away. All alone he sits in sorrow, with his hair a tangled mass, And his eyes are red with weeping; he's the boy who didn't pass.

SUMMERS STOCK COMPANY. "A Bachelor's Honeymoon," as played by the Summers Stock Company at the Mountain Theatre, is attracting large audiences and is proving all that was said of it in advance. It is certainly one of the funniest comedies ever seen at this popular resort, and will no doubt do a record breaking business. A special matinee will be given to-morrow afternoon at 2.30. MISS MORGAN'S PUPILS. On Saturday afternoon the pupils of Miss Isabelle C. Morgan, L. M. T., gave a recital at Miss Morgan's home, 91 East avenue south. Miss Ethel Whitehead, soprano, assisted. A most enjoyable recital was given by the piano pupils of Miss Donovan, assisted by Mr. Fred Murphy, basso, in the C. M. B. hall, last evening. The hall was nicely decorated and well filled, and the recital was very successful, and a credit to a teacher. With the exception of four, the pupils were children whose ages ranged from seven to thirteen years. Mr. Murphy was in splendid voice. He received encores for both his songs. Two extra numbers were added, a duet by Dorothy Wallis, and Edith Barton, and a march song by little five year old Edwin O'Brien. The programme: When Lights are Low (duet) Englemann Grace Flynn and Gerlie O'Brien. Conquering Hero Fred Reid. Crocus Allie Thomas. Doll's Cradle Song Oeston Rilda Wescott. Good Short Stories

HIS APOLOGY. Little Jim and Pat, the gardener, had been great pals and when Pat went back to the "Old Sod" to end his days, and slow-witted Dutch Jan took his place, Jim was a very unhappy kiddie. After stony unsuccessful attempts to interest Jan in his small affairs he waxed wroth, and one morning his father heard a tempest in the garden, culminating in "Oh, Jan, you're such a fool." Father took matters in hand at this point, and an instant apology was next in order. Jim rebelled, but finally calmed his ruffled feelings and went to the aggravated gardener, more in sorrow than in anger, with: "Jan, I—I'm awfully sorry you're a fool."

TALKS PEACE. Kaiser Says Britain Will Get Over Nervous Spell. Paris, June 30.—The Figaro to-day publishes an account of a conversation between Emperor William and Baron D'Estournelles de Constant, President of the French Parliamentary arbitration group, held recently at Kiel. In this talk Emperor William insisted that his policy was one of peace, and said that the battles of the future would be in the economic, industrial and commercial fields. Great Britain was now traversing a period of acute nervousness, he predicted that this would disappear when the country realized it could regain its lost economic ground, not by a destructive war, but by an increase in its productive activity. He showed great interest in the French experiments in aviation, but said he believed that for the present dirigible balloons had incontestable advantage over aeroplanes.

NOT INFECTIOUS. I used to be very much afraid that my children while playing with others would be exposed to some contagious disease, and they were constantly on the lookout for trouble of this kind. One day little Louise (aged four) came rushing in from the street where she had been playing with a crowd of children. In a very exciting manner she burst out, "Well, mother, two of the Meyers children have something, but sister says she don't think we'll catch it, though." "Well, what is it, darling?" I asked. "It's pigeon toes," she replied.

NOT COUNTED. A charter member of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick tries to keep amiably down, but doesn't always succeed. For instance, his antipathy toward those in whose veins flows the rich, warm blood of the Teuton was indicated by the following story which, he said, was not more than eight or nine years old: "A stranger who came Milwaukee for the first time encountered an Irishman working on the streets. The Irishman, rushing in from the street where he had been playing with a crowd of children, in a very exciting manner she burst out, "Well, mother, two of the Meyers children have something, but sister says she don't think we'll catch it, though." "Well, what is it, darling?" I asked. "It's pigeon toes," she replied.

Fulton Fulton Union Sunday school holding their annual picnic on Friday afternoon, July 1, in the grove of the farm of Mr. Aaron Nelson, of Fulton West, and expect a good time. Miss Jessie McDougal leaves this week for Boston, to take a situation as nurse in the hospital there. Miss Mary McDougal, of Hamilton, spent Sunday under the parental roof. The boys of the neighborhood who went to camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake have returned. Mr. Heman Nelson has gone to Greensville, to take a situation in the basket factory. Several of the farmers have commenced haying, and find it a very short crop, not up to the average. Miss Jennie Nelson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Heron Jackson, near Grimsby Park, this week. Mr. Arthur Kenyon is getting his new house near completion, and it makes a very great improvement to the appearance of his farm, and also to the neighborhood. Mr. R. Sheldrake is re-roofing his barn, as the heavy wind storm blew nearly all the shingles off. Mr. H. Jacobs and daughter Rita visited his sister, Mrs. Richard Sheldrake, on Sunday.

Jerseyville Now is the anxious time amongst teachers in the public schools, until the results of the entrance examinations are made known. Miss Clark sent up seven from the Jerseyville school. Rev. Mr. Awde preached his farewell sermon to the Jerseyville people on the 27th. Mr. Awde is now on the superintendency at Buffalo, as was first proposed. The Trinity and Jerseyville football teams played a friendly game here on Saturday afternoon, resulting in a victory for Jerseyville. Mr. Flint Langs and family and Mr. Herbert Misener and family, of Langford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin. Mr. Nile Smith's family, of Brantford, have become residents of the village. Mr. Smith A. Wait, of Niagara Falls Collegiate Institute, spent Sunday under the parental roof. A public and special meeting of the ratepayers was held in the school house on the evening of the 21st, for the purpose of selecting a site for a new school. The attendance was large. The discussion did not decide the question. One question freely discussed was how many pupils are the Trustee Board expected to provide accommodation for, and another question is there a "must" in the departmental regulations for all the pupils eligible in the section. Messrs. A. Grant, H. Dyment and F. Miller were appointed a committee to make inquiry and report at the next meeting of the ratepayers.
