VESSEL ASHORE.

Steamer Wm. H. Mack Aground Near Muskegon.

Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 18.—Driven by a fierce northeast gale, the steamer Wil-liam H. Mack dragged her anchor from Bay Mills yesterday, and is high and nearly dry on the long sloping beach at Bank Point, off this harbor. Small at Bank Point, off this harbor. Small harbor tugs, which went to the vegsel's assistance, could do nothing, and larger tugs have been ordered from Chicago. The Mack is a steel steamer of 5,000 tons displacement, and is valued at $235,000. She is owned by the Jenkins Steamship Co., of Cleveland. To move her may necessitate the dredging of a channel.

The marriage took place at 8 o'clock last night at the post office residence, 36 Adelaide street east, Toronto, of Miss Gertrude Rebecca Ross, daughter of Mr. George Ross, I. S. O., post office superintendent, and Mrs. Ross, to Mr. Frederick Taylor, son of Mrs. Alfred Taylor, London, Ont. The bride is a native of Hamilton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Lyle, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and Dr. Gutzist played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin," and Mendelssohn's wedding march. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthenums, Killarney roses, lily of the valley and maidenhair fern. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a very exquisite lace gown over duchesse satin, elaborately trimmed with silk cluny and old Italian lace and richly hand embroidered in ivy leaf design, finished with edgings and ornaments of seed pearls; the entire costume was a beautiful creation of the 1813 style.
