Resisted Arrest.

Yesterday afternoon an unruly Swede, here in some foreign vessel, a man of at least 6 feet tall, kicked up a disturbance on Water Street and was placed under arrest by officers Lee and Whalen. The man seemed to be possessed of the strength of Samp-son and gave the officers a prettly hard time of it. After a desperate struggle they succeeded in handculfing him but the bracelets were almost too small for his wrists and sunk into the flesh causing him much pain.
