E NANGLE WILL LECTURE, Lt.-Col. Nangle will lecture on "The Trail of the Caribou" at the Llewellyn Club to-night. Special interest will attach to this lecture by reason of the excellent films and slides which are used to illustrate it. It is expected that a very large number of members and their friends will be present. During the evening a collection will be taken up in aid of the War Memorial Fund in whose interests Padre Nangle has been so active of late.

Billiard Tournament in Bonny Scotland.

In a billiard tournament held at Dunkeld, Scotland, in the early part of February, J. A. Barrett, of Curling, Nfid., was the successful competitor. The tournament was keenly contested by seventy-eight players, and although Mr. Barrett was handicapped by from twenty to sixty points, yet he won out by a creditable majority. The prize was a billiard cue, with ebony butt, inlaid with mother-of-pearl, and at its presentation a jovial time was A Proud Record.

Three generations of a sealing family are to be found on S.S. Terra Nova, which sailed for the icefields to-day. They are Capt. A. Kean, Capt, Nat Kean, his son, and Master Cyril Kean, his grandson. The last named is making his first trip to the icefields, and it is a proud record that father, son and grandson should sail in the same ship and at the same
