Grand Memorial
Concert at Topsail

The young people of Topsail, under the auspices of the Memorial Association, united in giving a most successful concert and tea in the S. U. F. Hall on St. George's night, April 23rd. The effort was the last drive in aid of the completion of the Memorial railing, and the sea of faces that greeted the performers, showed that patriotism in Topsail is not a thing of the past. The hall, which was generously loaned for the occasion by the S.U.F., was tastefully decorated, and the footlights—innovation in Topsail—were the great work of Mr. Seward, who is at present engaged in lighting the houses in our town. Mr. S. Vacher acted as stage manager, while Misses Victoria Butler, Florence Miller and Lilian Chayer were accompanists. All our favorite artists were in their best form, and the continued patter of applause, and the many encores received, proved how well each item was appreciated. A new feature, particularly attractive feature of the programme was the Jazz Orchestra conducted by Mr. George Fowler as Prof. De Little. When the curtain rose upon his gaily attired company—the young ladies in scarlet tunics, equipped with Egyptian bandeaux of the same color on their flowing hair; the men with many-colored scarves and head-bands—the audience went wild with enthusiasm. Each instrument had streaming ribbons of the Newfoundland colors, and the effect was very charming. Prof. De Little could not be surpassed as a band master, and as he gyrated in his flowered pantaloons, tying coat-tails and tasselled feet, he caused gales of merriment to sweep the hall. Rev. A. Pittman acted as chairman, and the programme was as follows:—

Chorus—"Soldiers of the King."
(Soldiers, Messrs. W. J. Hibbs and G. C. Greenland.)
Monologue—"The Bald-Headed Man"
Miss Florence Miller.
Song—"Then You'll Remember Me."
Miss Minnie Tilley.
Dialogue—"Pulling a Tooth." Mrs. W. J. Hibbs, Messrs. Reg. Hibbs, G. C. Greenland, George Fowler and Roy Mores.
Part Song—"Huntingtower" (in Highland costume) Miss Florence Miller and Mr. P. L. Butler.
Recitation—"There is no Santa Claus," Mr. Vacher.
Piano Solo—"Paderewski's Minuet," Miss Valda Bursell.
Lullaby—"Ma Curly-Headed Baby," Mrs. W. J. Hibbs.
Duet—"Harbour Watch" (Costume of old sailors) Messrs. P. L. Butler and Reg. Hibbs.
Chorus—"Yes, we have no Bananas!"
Round—"A host unto the Ferry."
Patriotic Medley, by Prof. De Little's Jazz Orchestra. Violins, Messrs. Reg. Hibbs and Minnie Tilley; Mandolins, Mr. Bert Butler and Miss Florence Miller; Harp, Miss Victoria Butler; Spoon, Mr. W. J. Hibbs; Kettledrum, Mr. Roy Mores; Combs, Messrs. Greenland and Harry Butler; Effects, Messrs. P. L. Butler, W. J. Hibbs, H. Mercer, and Miss Lilian Chayer; Whistling Chorus, Mrs. Lloyd Fowler, Miss Minnie Pittman, Messrs. P. L. Butler and S. Vacher.

INTERVAL.
Chorus—"Sailing."
Song—"Three for Jack," Mr. Reg. Hibbs.
Playlet—"Four After One," Betty Trotter, Mrs. Lloyd Fowler, Sally Trotter, Miss Minnie Tilley, Augustus Septimus Cruikshanks, Mr. Greenland, Barney Flippers, Mr. Reg. Hibbs, Peter Lungstockins, Mr. Vacher, Policeman X.Y.Z., Mr. Roy Mores.
Part Song—"Long, long ago," (in costume of long, long ago) Mrs. W. J. and Mr. Reg. Hibbs.
Recitation—"Tales of a twin," Mr. Greenland.
Song—"Lassie, O' Mine," Mr. P. L. Butler.
Plantation Medley, by Jazz Orchestra.
Dialogue—"Interviewing Servants," Misses Victoria Butler, Lilian Chayer, Minnie Pittman, Messames Lloyd Fowler and Allan Mercer, Messrs. P. L. Butler and S. Vacher.
Male Quintette and Chorus—"Vive Lamour," Messrs. Vacher, Harry Butler, Reg. Hibbs, P. L. Butler and G. C. Greenland.
"God Save the King."

Tea was served in the gallery, after which there was dancing, which was much enjoyed. The thanks of the Concert Committee are due to the S.U.F. for the free use of their fine hall, to Mr. Seward for his services in installing the footlights, to all who sent donations of cake, candy etc., to Rev. A. Pittman for acting as chairman, and to all who in any way helped to make the affair the great success that it was. Proceeds amounted to $70.
