Town and County News
THAT FLAG.—We have received a communication on this subject, but too late for to-day's issue.

Y. M. C. A.—General meeting to-night at 7.30. As there is very important business to transact every member should make an effort to be present.

NEW MUSIC.—Upwards of 50 new pieces of music received yesterday, comprising Wodela Galop; Barnum's Hippodrome Variations; "What is Home without a mother-in-law," at Anderson's bookstore.

CHARLEY MADDOCK, the catcher of the Maple Leaf, who has been from town some time, returned to-day, and takes his old place at the match with the Staten Islanders this afternoon.

DON'T FORGET IT.—The very choicest samples of fruit—peaches and grapes—have been imported for the Peach Festival to-night, in the Drill Shed, under the auspices of the Young People's Aid Society of the W. M. Church. We anticipate a big turn out.

REV. MR. HOWIE.—We copied a paragraph on Wednesday from the Reformer, to the effect that the Rev. Mr. Howie, of this town, had given up his charge in Ayr owing to old age and its accompaniments. The writer of this must have been under a misapprehension, for a member of Mr. Howie's congregation here has informed us of the real cause, which is, that having been earnestly requested by his people in Guelph to confine his labors to them, and having seen it to be his duty to comply with the request, he resigned the pastorate of the church at Ayr, which he has held in connection with the one in Guelph for the past nine years.

HOW TO KEEP A STRAIGHT.—Be ready to throw in an odd-half-hour or an hour's time when it will be an accommodation, and don't seem to make a merit of it. Do it heartily. Though not a word be said, your employer will make a note of it. Make yourself indispensable to him, and he will lose many of the opposite kind before he will part with you. These young men who watch the clock to see the very second their working hour is up—who leave, no matter what state the work may be in, at precisely the instant—who calculate the exact amount they can slight their work, and yet not get reproved—who are lavish of their employer's goods—will always be the first to receive notice, when times are dull, that their services are no longer required.

POLICE COURT.
(Before the Police Magistrate.)
Sept. 10.

Robert Ingram, of Puslinch, charged by Jane Anthony, of the same Township, with assault and battery, on the 25th of August last, was dismissed with costs. Mr. McMillan appeared for the plaintiff.

From Toronto.
BY TELEGRAPH.

Toronto, Sept. 10, 1 p.m.
Mrs. Logan, a lady actively engaged in promoting female immigration to Canada is at the Rossin House.

The handsome steamer Walkerton from Kingston, about 100 tons, commenced to-day running regular trips from Toronto to Humber Bay, calling at the Island wharves en route. There has long been complaints of insufficient ferry boats, and this enterprise is consequently welcome to the citizens.

It is reported that a project for establishing floating swimming baths in the bay upon the French principle is likely to be consummated next year.

The weather is very warm.

LIBERAL GRANT.—We learn that the Guelph Township Council, at their meeting to-day (Thursday), granted $400 towards the funds of the Guelph General Hospital. Such liberality is commendable.

THE HAMILTON STRIKE.—The moulders' strike in Hamilton seems to be progressing towards an adjustment. The founders held a meeting on Tuesday evening, at which they resolved to offer to give employment to half the men of the union at the old full rates, for which the union struck. Whether this will be accepted or not is yet unknown.

EXACT ACCOUNT.—On Friday, 4th inst., a little girl, four years of age, daughter of Mr. Duncan McLellan, 8th Con. Arthur, met with a shocking accident, which proved fatal the following day. She fell backwards into a kettle full of soap which had just been taken off the fire by her mother, scalding herself very badly. She died in twenty-four hours after the accident.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.—A Hamilton butcher who was returning to his home from the city, on Tuesday night, considerably the worse of liquor, met with one of the most hairbreadth escapes from instant death it is possible to imagine. He had fallen asleep in his wagon, and the horse, instead of taking the proper road home, turned and went along the face of a huge precipice, where he was about to keep his feet, and that was about all. Coming to a narrower part of the path the horse tripped and fell a distance of forty feet to a very similar path below. He reached ground first and the wagon came down upon him and the sleeping man in the midst. A Mr. Swesite, who came to the rescue, missed his footing while trying to put matters right, slipped, and rolled down the mountain a distance of 150 feet, most of the way being but a few feet off the perpendicular. The horse received such injuries that it was found necessary to shoot him, but strange to relate the man escaped unhurt.

London, Sept. 9.—The Times says Leesings has abandoned the project of a Central Asian Railway.

Sad and Fatal Accident in Rockwood.
(From our Correspondent.)
On Wednesday evening, about twilight, as the wife of Mr. Barnard Shultis, who owns a farm near the village, was returning home from Rockwood, where she had been visiting at Mr. Bowles, the horse took fright and ran down the main street till near the path leading to the woolen factory, where Mrs. Shultis, two of her children, and one of Mr. Bowles' children were thrown from the vehicle on to a pile of stones. Dr. Curry, who was near by at the time, ran up to the place, and on examining Mrs. Shultis found that life was extinct, death having been caused almost instantaneously by the injuries she received in the head. The body was removed to Dr. Curry's surgery, and on examination it was found that the skull had been fractured in two places, and that there were wounds over the frontal, the parietal and malar bones, besides other injuries to the internal parts of the brain. Mr. Bowles' little girl and Mr. Shultis' eldest one were unhurt, but the younger child, about sixteen months old, and which at the time of the accident was in the mother's arms, received a severe cut above the eyebrow. Dr. Curry, who is attending her, has, however, some hopes of her recovery in a few days. This sad accident has greatly affected the people in the village, and much sympathy is felt for Mr. Shultis and his young family who have been so suddenly deprived of a loving wife and affectionate mother.

The Governor's Last Speech.
In replying to the Brockville Address, the Governor-General, in graceful terms, alluded to the cordial reception he and Lady Dufferin received in every part of Ontario, and humorously referred to the different kinds of arches erected in honor of their visit. He said—During the six weeks my tour has occupied, I believe that I have received something like one hundred and twenty addresses, every one of which breathed a spirit of contentment, loyalty and kindness. In fact from first to last no harsh, desponding, or discordant note has marred the jubilant congratulations of the nation. But the demonstrations with which we have been honored, have not been confined to mere vocal greetings. It would be impossible to describe either the beauty or the variety of the triumphal emblems which have glittered on either hand along our way. In addition to the graceful and picturesque decorations of evergreen flags, tapestry and prismatic canopies of color from window to window, with which the towns were gay, we have passed under a number of the most ingenious and suggestive arches. There was an arch of cheeses (laughter), an arch of salt, an arch of wheels, an arch of hardware, stores, and pots and pans (great laughter), an arch of sofas, chairs and household furniture (laughter), an arch of ladders laden with firemen in their picturesque costumes, an arch of carriages (laughter), an arch of boats, a free trade arch, a Protectionists' arch (great laughter), an arch of children, and last of all an arch—no, not an arch—but rather a celestial rainbow of lovely young ladies! (Great laughter and applause.) There was an arch of cheeses (laughter), an arch of salt, an arch of wheels, an arch of hardware, stores, and pots and pans (great laughter), an arch of sofas, chairs and household furniture (laughter), an arch of ladders laden with firemen in their picturesque costumes, an arch of carriages (laughter), an arch of boats, a free trade arch, a Protectionists' arch (great laughter), an arch of children, and last of all an arch—no, not an arch—but rather a celestial rainbow of lovely young ladies! (Great laughter and applause.) Indeed the Heavens themselves drop red fatness, for weeks my tour has occupied, I believe that I have received something like one hundred and twenty addresses, every one of which breathed a spirit of contentment, loyalty and kindness. In fact from first to last no harsh, desponding, or discordant note has marred the jubilant congratulations of the nation. But the demonstrations with which we have been honored, have not been confined to mere vocal greetings. It would be impossible to describe either the beauty or the variety of the triumphal emblems which have glittered on either hand along our way. In addition to the graceful and picturesque decorations of evergreen flags, tapestry and prismatic canopies of color from window to window, with which the towns were gay, we have passed under a number of the most ingenious and suggestive arches.
