

CAP ins

count Caps and are quick clear-
all the new.

Suits

other week.
rt tailored,
ill have a

Co.

turers do More to Raise the st of Living than the Farm-

Parke is spending a few Cornelle.
o Mr. and Mrs. M. Potts, on 14th, a daughter.

can be humbled without adthe fact.

is one of the things that are by success.
ss comes only to those who ake others happy.

Kitchen Cabinets

aves Miles of Steps

nd injure your health.
rudging back and forth ABINET and group all housekeeper appreciates date conveniences.
tted with all the latest features shown is the all made from oak or mels will not warp or osing features and

6 to $42.00

oods to you.

& Son

ERS"
Embalmers Rural Phone Store and Residence 54

MISS A. MAUDE FINLAY

who will appear at the G. W. V. A. concert to be given in the Aylmer Opera House on Thursday, February 22nd. Seats on sale at Filby's store.

THE DOUBLE SACRIFICE

The following lines were written by Jack M. Patton, of New Rochelle, N. Y., and the inspiration came from seeing a photo of Lieut. Albert Eakins of Port Burwell, who met his death in his country's service.

I saw a picture just the other day, I glanced at it and laid it in its place;
I knew that e'er the week had passed away,
A martyr's glory should illumine that face.

Oh! just a handsome face, I thought,
A boy,
Intent upon life's varied daily game,
With tears for sorrow and a laugh for joy.

—A boyish love of praise—distaste for blame.

Just one of us with all our hopes and dreams
A will for work, a youthful zest for play,
A pleasant and a handsome face it seems.

I thought—but that was yesterday, and now its "killed in action" over there.

Oh! honor him, his great and noble soul,
He played man's hardest game—he played it fair;

He won, the angles know, man's highest goal.

Yes, other men have done as much, tis true;
Great souls have made great sacrifice before

Yet render unto him the honor due.
No man, not one, has ever yet done more.

His hero-soul not only man shall praise,
Not only woman worship and revere.

A higher sanction sheds its hallowed rays,
On him, who, loving life, deemed right more dear.

Oh, you who moan dark is this hour of trouble,
We cannot know how cruel it seems,
how grim?

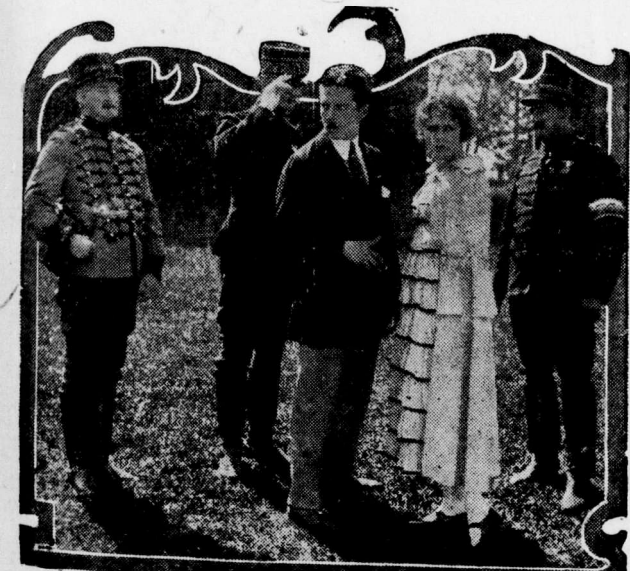

We only know the sacrifice is double,
He gave his life—and you who loved gave him.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mrs. Stratton and Miss Wood are in Toronto on business in the interests of The Big Store.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. G. S. Lloyd of Glencoe, at Victoria Hospital, London, on Feb. 21st a son, Mr. Lloyd is a former pastor on the Corinth trout of the Methodist church.

Sgt. Harry Sikes arrived home from England on the late train last Saturday night and is spending a short time with his family here before reporting at the convalescent hospital. Sgt. Sikes is suffering from the effects of gas poisoning and shrapnel wounds in the leg. He spent many months in active service in France and our readers have on several occasions enjoyed very interesting letters from him which were published in the Express. He has been for many weeks in the hospitals in England.

ANITA STEWART in "THE GIRL PHILIPPA" Robt. W. Chambers' great Spy Story, Star Theatre, Aylmer, March 12th and 13th. Vitaphone Feature.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Louis Charles Davenport, M. C. R. fireman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Davenport, of Aylmer, who was fatally injured and died at Montrose on Friday, February 1st, 1918, in his 22nd year.

With deep sympathy for the family in the sad and unexpected loss of their dear one the following lines were written and handed to Mrs. E.
M. Davenport by her sister, Mrs. W.
F. Fairbrother.

You mourn the loss of your dead son and brother,
You grieve when you think of the past.

The dear one, no more you behold him,
Your joys were too sweet to last.

Oh, yes, you do miss him, the dear son and brother,
At morning, at evening at noon.
He was snatched from among you so quickly.

And hurried away to the tomb.
How little we thought when we saw him.

Just three short weeks ago to the day That so cruel a fate would o'er take him.

And his spirit be called in that way Oh, death, what art thou but a dart, That will sting, but a short space of time.

And hurry us off to the tomb Though we seem to be just in our prime

Oh, dear ones, could you but cease mourning,
For God is the giver of all.
He only but takes what He gave you.
And you know we must all have a call

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Robertson, of Tillsonburg, moved last week to the farm they recently purchased on Dingle street.

Mr. Wilson Mills, of Sparta, has purchased the property in Sparta recently owned by Wm. Fishleigh and will take possession soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Benner who have spent the winter as residents of Aylmer, are this week moving to the farm they recently purchased near Luton.

Mr. Henry King received a telegram last week from his daughter in Kom-oka, Michigan, to come at once, as his wife, who has been an invalid for the past ten years, was much worse. He left immediately to be at her side. For the past few months Mrs. King has been with her daughter.

The heavy rain last Thursday, following the heavy snow fall of the past two months did considerable damage in Port Stanley and London, where people were driven from their homes and the streets filled with water. At Port Stanley the ice jammed the harbor at the bridge and the rushing water was blocked and spread over the village, doing much damage. Several tugs narrowly escaped being crushed or swept out into the lake, and the fishing companies sustained heavy losses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this is his first accident. His many Aylmer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to the Toronto Star by their special correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stratton have
just received a letter from their son,
Flight Sub-Lieut. K. V. Stratton, R.
N.A.S., who says that he recently
was let down badly in his machine
and was taken to a Quaker Hospital
in France. He was later removed to
Mount Vernon Hospital, at Hampstead
Heights, overlooking London, Eng.,
and is still suffering from shock. Lieut.
Stratton has been in France continuously for more than a year and this
is his first accident. His many Ayl-
mer friends will join us in hoping
for a speedy and complete recovery.
As will be seen by an article sent to
the Toronto Star by their special
correspondent in England Lieut.
Stratton was among a number of
flight officers recently interviewed in
the hospital in England by the Star's
special correspondent.

The Big Store

AYLMER'S
BEST STORES

The General Store

DOLLAR DAY

Wednesday, March 6th, 1918

Dollar Day at our Stores will mean more to you than ever before. It will pay you to anticipate your Spring wants.

Distinctive Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Blouses

Being a gala grouping of the new styles of springtime that has ever been created for women to have and to wear as well, and they have come to the Big Store in wonder variety is the news of the day—News that is attracting many women —and that will attract many many more during the weeks to come—Never has Fashion given us such a display of color—never has she spun more beautiful her texture—never treated more magnetically the individualities that make for vogue—never has more subtle originality been employed in the tout ensemble than is now luxuriating in these very, very clever Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Blouses.

"Aren't They the Smartest Things, Those Blouses"

Certainly they are, Spring's very own—which is the way one woman characterized these new Blouses—Surely they are clever adaptations and so typically free and new in their modes of Silk or Cotton ..... $1.25 to $8.50 each

An Event in Footwear

We are sole agents in Aylmer for the celebrated Williams Shoe, made of solid leather thru and thru. Shoes that give 100 cent's worth for every dollar invested.

The Big Store

Dry Goods, Millinery,
Ladies' Ready-to-Wear,
Geutt's Furnishings,
Clothing House Furnishings, Hats and Caps.

STRATTON & MARTIN

AYLMER'S BEST STORES

"Honest Goods at Honest Prices."

Highest Market Prices Paid for Produce. Good to shop at both Stores

The General Store

Dry Goods
Groceries
Boots and Shoes
Hats and Caps
Neckwear

Our Own Condition Powder

The Ideal Tonic for building up broken down horses that are out of sorts, making them sleek, fat and high spirited.

It gives A good appetite
A glossy coat
A healthy appearance

Just the thing for Cattle, Sheep and Hogs 25c per package

J. E. Richards & Co.

THE REXALL STORE

Dominion Express Money Orders on sale.

The Royal Bank of Canada

Capital Paid Up ..... $12,911,700 Reserve Fund and Undivided Profits ..... 14,564,000 Total Assets ..... 335,000,000

A complete Banking Service for Farmers, Cattle Dealers, Merchants, Manufacturers

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

Deposits received and interest allowed at best current rates.

J. W. BANFIELD, Manager,

Aylmer, Ont.