Hospital Laid.

The first day of the year was a fitting time to mark the advent of the latest addition to the charitable institutions of London. St. Joseph's Hospital is the name of the structure which will be devoted to a priseworthy purpose. In appearance it will be a credit to the city—a detailed description has already been published. The occasion yesterday was the laying of the corner stone by the bishop of the diocese. His lordship proceeded to the site on Richmond street. north about 3 p.m., accompanied by Rev. Fathers Ferguson (Assumption College, Sandwich), Tiernan, Kennedy, Noonan and Gahan. A large crowd was present to witness the imposing ceremony, which the bishop prefaced by an able and eloquent address.
