—Fred. Martin, of Bay City, pleaded guilty at the Police Court yesterday to the larceny of three dozen razors, five revolvers, one diamond glass cutter and one dozen knives from John Wrieden, hardware merchant, of St. Thomas, on Sept. 15. He had been employed at the store two or three days, and during the night cut a pane of glass out of the window and stole the goods. Some of the articles he sold and others were recovered. Fred. McDonald, of this city, was thought to have had something to do with the burglary. When arrested he had in his possession one of the stolen revolvers loaded and concealed in his hip pocket. He stated to Detective Rider that he bought the revolver cheap, knowing that the bargain was "crooked," to protect a woman with whom he was living. The revolver was valued at about $5.00. He pleaded trial by jury on the charge of receiving stolen property and was remanded until after this trial on a charge of having firearms in his possession. Martin was sentenced to one year and six months in the Central prison.

—George Thompson, of Detroit, formerly of this city, was standing on the steps of an out-moving train on the C. P. R. on Sunday evening when a young man who had been saying good-bye to friends rushed out of the car and accidentally knocked him off in his hurry. Mr. Thompson was severely bruised and missed the train, while the excited young man broke his arm and was injured in other ways.
—Messrs. Cook (chairman), Childs, Brady, Tanton, Stephenson, Craig and Dr. Ferguson were present at Monday night's meeting of No. 2 Committee of the Board of Education. The chairman of the Board, the chairman of this committee and Mr. Tanton will report on the seating of the chemical room at the Collegiate Institute and on the seating of one extra room. They were also empowered to have the principal's office carpeted and furnished with a table, chairs and a cupboard. Messrs. Accounts were passed to the amount of $15. Anglican Consolidation.

The special committee appointed by the Bishop of Huron to consider the plan of the Winnipeg conference on the consolidation of the Anglican Church in British North America met in the Chapter House last Friday. There were present: The Bishop (in the chair), the Very Rev. the Dean of Huron, the Venerable the Archdeacons of London and Grey, the Rev. Canon Smith, W. A. Young, Alfred Brown, J. C. Macdonald, J. C. Macdonald, V. Cron (chairman), A. H. Dymond, Judge Ernster, Charles Jenkins, W. J. Imbach and I. F. Hellmuth. The subject was thoroughly discussed and all agreed to submit to the synod and to choose delegates to attend the General Synod at Toronto in 1903. The delegates will endeavor to obtain an amendment to the proposed scheme with regard to representation by increase of numbers and also to have the principle of equal representation from each diocese adopted.

In Charity's Cause.
The autumn meeting of the Housekeepers' Mission was held in the "Y" rooms, Dundas street, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Rogers opened the meeting with prayer, after which Mrs. Baldwin, the president, conducted the business. The constitution and bylaws, recently drawn up, were discussed clause by clause, and with a few alterations passed. All may not be aware of the object of this mission. It is the distribution of canned fruits, vegetables and relishes to the different charitable institutions, and also to the sick and aged poor. It is a very laudable and sympathetic thus far accorded this laudable enterprise are evidences to the promoters of it, that a long-felt want is being met and supplied. It is now that the work may be sustained during the winter months a large supply of canned goods will be needed. It was decided to commence at once a monthly distribution to the various charitable homes. It is earnestly requested that any who have not contributed will do so. In every case jars of equivalent capacity will be returned to the sender upon the receipt of goods. It is an easy matter for the housewife to set aside a few jars from her winter stores for the benefit of the needy. Yet simple and easy as this charity is there is none so much appreciated by the suffering of the city.

Mrs. Parsons' Piano.
In December, 1888, the Mendelssohn Piano Company sold to Mr. E. Parsons, then of South London, a piano at a cost of $350. They took in part payment an organ and allowed them $75 on it. The balance was to be paid in quarterly payments of $25 each. Last December Mr. Parsons went to Cincinnati, Ohio, on July 9 Wm. Sec. Cline, brother-in-law of Mr. Parsons, had the piano shipped per G. T. R. to parts unknown. Secombe stated that the instrument was shipped early in June to Fort Huron but was not sure to whom it was addressed. Fraser & Fraser, solicitors for the Bank of British North America, waited on Mrs. Parsons, and she offered them $100 to settle the payment. There was at the time $126 due. She would not say where the piano was when questioned. A bailiff was then engaged to search for the instrument and he reported that it was not in the house. The Bank of British North America of Toronto had placed the claim in the hands of their solicitor. The Grand Trunk authorities stated that on July 9 a piano was shipped to A. L. Holmes, Detroit, and that no other piano had been shipped for some weeks previous to this time, in fact since May. E. Meredith, counsel for the defendant, went into a box on behalf of his client. He said he advised Mrs. Parsons that she had a right to ship the piano wherever she wished, and that she did it on his advice. He thought it was a most scandalous proceeding, and the prosecution was entirely unjustified and harsh. The magistrate, after considering the evidence, dismissed the case.

THE CITY MORTALITY.

Interesting Statements gleaned from the Statistical Registry healthy city.

London is a comparatively healthy city. Its death rate per 1,000 of population is 11.59, a proportion creditably lower than that of other large cities of Canada. According to the returns 259 people died in London during 1899. The classified tables show that of these 162 were males, 197 females, and 152 widows; 178 were English, 104 Irish, 56 Scotch, 2 French, and 19 of other nationalities; 112 were Catholics, 113 Methodists, 58 Roman Catholics, 19 Baptists, and 2 of denominations undefined.

Statistics inform us that of this number 70 died under 1 year of age, 22 from 1 to 5 years, 17 from 5 to 15, 31 from 15 to 25, 28 from 25 to 35, 23 from 35 to 45, 26 from 45 to 55, 46 from 55 to 65, 41 from 65 to 75, and 49 who were over 75 years of age. Their occupations were also classified as follows: 111 industrial, 120 laborers, 69 commercial, 9 domestic, 24 professional and 20 in other pursuits. This indicates again strongly for the advantages of domestic life.

The compiler has also prepared a table of the diseases in the order of fatality. Among the foremost are: Lung diseases, 47, phthisis 27, old age 35, heart and blood vessel diseases 25, cerebral apoplexy 19, catarrhal affections 18, diarrheal affections 17, paralysis 16, enteritis and other affections of the bowels 15, cancer 13, epilepsy and convulsions 12. As regards the contagious diseases, scarlet fever claims 6 victims, typhus 6 and diphtheria 5. The greatest mortality in any one month was in January, the rate being 2.05 per 1,000 of the population; the least was in July with .62.

Deaths by accidents aggregate 16.71 to 1,000 deaths, and 19 to 1,000 population. In the latter respect London's proportion is remarkably low compared with other cities, Quebec, the next in order, showing .46.

Under the above heading an article appears in last evening's issue (from a St. Thomas newspaper) stating that "D" Company football team had failed to show up at St. Thomas on Friday last after issuing a challenge to the St. Thomas team. Kindly publish the following facts:

When in St. Thomas we played a match—the brigade against St. Thomas—and defeated them. As camp was breaking up on Sept. 11, I was authorized by our team to issue a challenge for a return match in London, but up to 18th I got no response. I went on my holidays and returned to London this morning and found a postal card signed "W. D. McLeod, secretary, St. Thomas F. C.," accepting for Friday, Sept. 21, at St. Thomas, or as soon after as convenient. "D" Company football team never received a challenge from the Collegiate Institute while in St. Thomas camp nor did they fail to show up in appearance. As I was away the acceptance of the challenge was not acted upon. I have, however, written the St. Thomas club suggesting a later date, when we will be in town, too happy to put in an appearance, and shall not fail to acquaint you of the date thereof when settled. BABY'S FACE WAS RAW Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the CUTICURA Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. I tried various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA Remedies. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so itchy that he had to be held in a willow case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA Remedies. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can. I would be pleased to see any one and talk to them of the good it has done my boy.
