Spurgeons Place.

London, Oct. 28,—Rev. Dr. A. T.

Pierson, formally of Detroit, Mich., who has stipulated to supply Mr. Spurgeon's pulpit while the latter is taking a vacation for his health, preached his first sermon on Sundsy. Dr. Pierson was welcomed heartily, and the audience was as large as the usual assemblage when the regular pastor is present. In the course of his remarks he indulged in a bister attack upon the tendency to introduce ritualistic ornamentation into the London churches. Warming to his theme, he went so far as to express the hope that calamity would befall the tabernacle here, prostituted to secular art. At this there were plain murmurs of disapproval, though they were varied by a few cries of "hear." A number of the members of the tabernacle who were interviewed after the service expressed their asconishment at Dr. Pierson's criticism of what had been approved by the man whose place he was filling temporarily by courtesy. The extravagance of language which the preacher had fallen into was excused on the ground that it was doubtless unpremeditated.
